FARM MORTGAGES.
The Mortgage Bank & Investment Co.
FARGO, NORTH DAKOTA.
OFFERS FOR SALE $3,000 WORTH OF CHOICE FARM MORTGAGES, among which are such loans as the following:
$1,000, John D. Smith, 8 per cent., interest payable semi-annually, loan due June 25, A. D. 1890. Three coupons have already fallen due upon this loan and were paid promptly at maturity. Will furnish name of party residing in New York State who purchased the loan of us in July, 1888, and from whom we have just repurchased it, party needing funds—security
1st mortgage upon a farm of 160 acres in Kidder County, Dakota, five miles from county seat, on N. P. RR. One hundred and fifty-eight acres have been cultivated for five years. Buildings on farm valued at $900. Fire insurance for $500, assigned as collateral security, together with title insurance. Complete set of papers furnished. The actual cost of putting the 158 acres under cultivation exceeds the amount loaned. This is the largest and one of the best loans we have on hand, and we recommend it as an absolutely safe investment. We have negotiated farm mortgages for the past six years in Dakota, and can refer to parties who have held our 8, 9 and 10 per cent. farm loans for five years. Our loans are all SMALL and SECURITY is AMPLE. This company advances all principal and interest ten days before maturity on every loan. Write for more particular information.

BANK OF MINOT,

At the Opera.
[From Drake's Magazine.]

Miss De Gold—Ma, that man in the upper left-hand box is a brute. He has been ogling me all the evening.

Mother—That is young Mr. McCash, whose uncle died and left him one hundred thousand last month. He is looking for a wife, they say, and——

Miss De Gold—He is a nice looking gentleman, anyhow. Can't we put him on our list, ma?

A Queer Language.
[From Harper's Bazar.]

"It says in the paper that the Blank Carpet Mills have shut down. What does that mean, Isaac?"

"It means that the Blank Carpet Mills have shut up."

He Got Shingled.
[From Drake's Magazine.]

"Say, boy, this pine log you get me to chop would make a good cruiser."

"?"

"Why, she's fifty year old, and she's been making twenty knots an hour right along."

Wanted by His Mother.
[From Judge.]

Tommy—Come on out 'n play, Johnny.

Johnny—Can't.

Tommy—Whatyer gotter stay home for?

Johnny—The stove-lid is broke and ma wants me to sit on the stove and keep the smoke in.
