THIS IS RIGHT ALSO.

The New York Bar Association has unanimously decided to investigate Judge HENRY W. BOOKSTAVER. The following resolution of the Executive Committee was carried unanimously in a meeting last night of unusual attendance:

Resolved, That the presentment of the Grand Jury in the Flack matter, so far as it affects the Hon. HENRY W. BOOKSTAVER, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, be referred to a special committee of five, to be appointed by the Chair, to investigate the matter and report to such committee.

The position taken by the Bar Association is the only decent one they could assume. A proper esprit de corps obliges them, if Judge BOOKSTAVER be innocent, to vindicate a grievous misapprehension against a person who is a dignitary of the Bench. If the charge is substantiated, then it no less behooves them to remove a blemish which defiles their body. Noblesse oblige.

WARM TO IT.

Interest in THE EVENING WORLD Christmas Trees is very great, and contributions are coming in plenteously. But this should only be another stimulant for all who have as yet done nothing. Non-contributors will please bear in mind that there is no more reason why the hearty patrons of the tree should exert themselves for the poor children than there exists for their doing the same. Don't let the self-sacrificing, open-handed people do all the work. Six halls, with their Christmas Trees, will stand a large amount of donating. The time is getting shorter, too. So, if you please, good folk, hurry up and send your contributions.

AH!

A certain novelist, who was thought to have reached the limit in the matter of erotic literary license, is now under charges which would seem to show that an autobiography would differ but little from his imaginative works save in point of excess.

Probably a large majority of those who have devoured the grossness of action and motive which this brilliant young man has garnished for them with a style as rare and dainty as a peridot will shrink from the author as an actor of deeds which they placidly ruminated on as creations. This is the consistent inconsistency of human nature.

THOSE DOCK PEOPLE, MAYOR?

The community over which Mayor GRANT presides has its ear cocked, waiting for his judgment on the Dock rottenness. That there was rottenness, loud, fetid, offensive rottenness, was shown on the investigation. All the Mayor has to do is to detect the sources of the stench and blot them out.

It is a very simple problem theoretically. There is corruption in the Dock Department. Whoever is responsible for it should go. The only difficulty is in tracking it home. Wharf rats are elusive vermin, and can hide well. Root them out, Mr. Grant.

Spring water is being let into the White House. With such a dropsical Administration isn't this a needless expense?

SPOTLETS.

Dr. Rainsforth didn't shoot the quail he was charged with shooting, but paid the fine for another which he had shot that he wasn't charged with. Fine shooting, doctor.

Lord Somebody or other wants to be divorced from his wife because of her naughty ways with an infantry lieutenant. She has instituted a counter charge. Counter charge to infantry lieutenant? Oh, yes! nurse-maid.

Patti was poorly supported at the Auditorium. Should think Patti could support herself on $5,000a night.

Artists of late, with judgment narrow,
Arm Cupid with a bow and arrow.
When it would be a great deal cuter
To load him with a seven-shooter. —Puck.

A "dead" wire is worse to have around than a corpse a month old.

John H. Macy is a very husky fellow. An ear of corn a second is John's record as a husker.

A man called "Old Tom," and living on Snake Hill, is a confirmed drunkard. His favorite pizen must be gin.

Some people think the good Bostonians want more heart. That may account for the turn in the late elections when they put Hart in.

Frog-catchers were arrested yesterday as vagrants. This is where a cow-catcher has the advantage.

The enterprising young man who gayly caverted into a seat in the Morions' box at the Auditorium had a peculiar bouquet about him. It was Mrs. Morton's.

A sailor made a feint of jumping off the Brooklyn Bridge. Several adjacent women made a faint of the feigned jump he fain would have made.

ATHLETES IN REPOSE.

C. J. Harvey is a man well posted on athletic matters. He possesses good executive ability, and is President of the thriving Star Athletic Club. He is something of an athlete himself.

Orville Oddie, the amateur billiard champion, is the most sought-after opponent in amateur billiard circles, owing to the fact that he is fairness personified; in fact, he insists on taking the worst of any question that might arise in the course of a match.

F. W. Meinken, of the Manhattan Athletic Club, is an unassuming athlete, but he "gets there." A number of prizes have been added to his collection this Fall.

William B. Curtis is an enthusiast regarding skating, and before his time was so fully occupied with the management of the business affairs of the National Skating Association used to be a familiar figure on the skating grounds.

Sensible Woman.

[From Puncey's Weekly.]

Mrs. Fangle (reading the paper)—Queen Victoria said she would not sit for her picture any more.

Fangle—She takes a better picture standing, I suppose.

THAT MAN WILSON.

He Persists in Leading "The Evening World's" National Guard Election.

Major Kipp Less than Three Hundred Votes Behind Him.

Little or No Change in the Positions of Other Contestants.

Once more Capt. Wilson, the irrepressible commander of the Second Battery, jumps into the lead in THE EVENING WORLD'S National Guard election. He has 41,372 votes, but Major Kipp, of the Seventh Regiment, is close on his heels with 41,113 ballots.

Col. Ruppert is still third, with 32,591, and Lieut.-Col. Moran fourth, with 30,440.

The sword which the successful candidate will receive is to be a most magnificent affair. In the first place, it is to be made upon an entirely new design, richly ornamented, and of the best material to be obtained.

The blade will be of the finest Damascus steel. The handle and guard will be of brass of special design, burnished and hand-chased, as will also be the mountings upon the scabbard, which will be of steel and nickel-plated. The grip will be either of shark-skin or of embossed metal, silver-plated and burnished, the design depending on the rank of the officer receiving it.

The shape of the blade will also depend upon the rank of the winner; if he is a line officer it will be straight, and if a staff officer it will be a sabre and curved in form.

A medallion mounting of burnished and hand-chased metal on the upper part of the scabbard will be inscribed with the name of the winner, with his rank and regiment.

The sword will be manufactured by B. M. Whitlock, of 99 Fourth avenue, the well-known maker of military equipments, and this announcement of itself guarantees the best of material and workmanship.

If you have not already done so cut out and send the following blank, properly filled, to THE EVENING WORLD.

Catarrh

is a complaint which affects nearly everybody, more or less. It originates in a cold, or successions of colds, combined with impure blood. Disagreeable flow from the nose, tickling in the throat, offensive breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, are the more common symptoms.

Catarrh

being a constitutional disease cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strikes directly at its cause by removing all impurities from the blood, building up the diseased tissue and giving healthy tone to the whole system.

Catarrh

"For several years I have been troubled with that terrible disagreeable disease, catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and stuffed-up feeling." MRS. S. D. HEATH, Putnam, Conn.

N. B. If you have decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

HELP ON THE FUND.

Growth of "The Evening World's" Christmas-Tree Project.

Matinee in Its Aid at the Union Square Theatre.

Beautiful Fruits Ripening for the Cities' 20,000 Poor Children.

The matinee for THE EVENING WORLD'S Christmas-Tree Fund has met with such overwhelming success in its incipiency that it has been found necessary to procure a larger theatre than the pretty little Berkeley Lyceum. Just when the ladies who have it in charge were wondering where to turn in this emergency Manager J. M. Hill kindly came forward and offered his beautiful Union Square Theatre. What his kindness will cost him can be imagined when it is remembered that he has had all the scenery for "The County Fair" built right on the stage, and that there isn't an ordinary "wing" or "fly" left in the theatre.

So at the Union Square Theatre on Friday afternoon, Dec. 20, at 2 o'clock, will take place the performance which it is hoped and believed will add a big sum to THE EVENING WORLD'S Christmas Tree Fund.

Among the patronesses of the performance are Mrs. Judge Brady, Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, Mrs. Egbert Guernsey, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, Marquise Lanza, Mrs. Frederick S. Goodwin, Mrs. Horace A. Hutchins, Mrs. Benjamin Hanfeld, Mrs. J. J. Eakins, Miss H. S. Abbe, Mrs. E. Mercy Raymond, Mrs. Archibald C. Gunter, Mrs. Abner Bartlett, Miss Mattie Sheridan, and many others.

The play to be presented is a five-act pathetic domestic drama entitled "Elsie," written by Townsend Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont Smith and Mr. James Koehler, of the Booth-Modjeska combination company, appear by kind permission of Director Arthur E. Chase. Mr. Guy Lindeley, of the Manfeld company, will also appear by kind permission of Mr. Augustus Pitou, manager.

The response from every one has been most unanimous and gratifying. J. Polhemus, printer, of Ann and Nassau streets, has kindly offered to print all the circulars, tickets, &c., free of charge, and Mr. Daniel Frohman, with his characteristic generosity, has volunteered to advertise the matinee in each issue of the programme of the Lyceum Theatre.

Special thanks are due Mr. L. Hopkins, jr., Manager Hill's right bower, for his courteous and efficient aid.

Tickets may be procured at Delmonico's, Brentano's, the Union Square Theatre, L. Jonas, the Astor House news-stand, THE WORLD office and from any of the patronesses.

Keen interest attaches to the theatrical debut of Don Miff, a dear little dog from whom wonders are expected.

THE EVENING WORLD Christmas Tree Fund is close to the $1,000 mark. Subscriptions received up to last night are as follows:

Bessie Smith.—Your contribution of 85 cents was acknowledged in THE EVENING WORLD of Dec. 3.—Ed.]

The Merry Christmas Slipper.

In the gracious attempt to make a holiday gift combine both beauty and utility there is little that comes nearer to the mark than a handsome pair of slippers. To the partly-loving girl and the comfort-loving father the gift is equally suitable. A. J. Cammeyer, Sixth avenue, corner of Twelfth street, has for years recognized this fact and dressed his Christmas window accordingly. In his very handsome exhibit this year he has set before his customers not only everything that is new and pretty in suede, bronze and patent leather for tiny, light-footed feet, but everything that men like in slippers.

He begins with the good old favorites in embroidered slippers, and goes through the list until he comes to the handsomest real alligator slippers and patent-leather pumps, all at prices which he proudly says are not merely as low as any one else's, but lower.

Poor people need not be deprived of night's rest if they use MOXELL'S TEETHING CORDIAL. 25 cents.
