DAILY RECORD

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1873.

THE OLDEST HORSE IN THE WORLD.—Twenty-nine years ago last Spring a horse was brought from Vermont to Boston for sale, being eleven or twelve years old. Strange as it may appear, that horse is still living; and is now forty or forty-one years of age. He was purchased at that time by the late Cyrus Reed of Lexington, and is now owned by his son, John Reed, one mile from the Lexington depot. Notwithstanding his great age, he has been most wonderfully preserved, and is able to perform light work, and is often seen on the road, working as faithfully as he did a quarter of a century ago. He was fortunate to have been born in an age when speed was not the only requisite for a good horse, otherwise his bones might long since have been mingling with dust; but he bids fair to live several years longer. To stand before this venerable old horse and ponder upon the events he has passed through, and to realize that he is the only survivor of all the horses born in 1833, makes us feel like paying respect to his age, and like calling upon the society with a long name to secure him against all labor for the future.—[Our Dumb Animals.

FOURTEEN years ago Louis Waldenberger was arrested in Egg Harbor, N. J., on charge of murdering his child, tried, and sentenced to be hanged. The sympathy of his neighbors was aroused. They did not believe that he was guilty. The feeling was so strong that the Court of Pardons commuted his sentence to imprisonment for life. In these fourteen years that he has been incarcerated his wife has died, and many of his friends who had tried to secure his freedom. From certain statements made by his wife on her death bed it is probable that she was the guilty one. The inhabitants of Egg Harbor are moving to secure his release. Ten of the jurymen who convicted him have signed the petition, one of them is dead, and the other has departed for parts unknown.

THE sardine fisheries in France, at present, employ 20,000 sailors and some 18,000 men, women and children on land, to prepare the fish for market. It seems that the catch is now diminishing every year, and the almost complete failure of these fish may be anticipated at no remote period.

To the Unfortunate.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

DR. GIBBON'S DISPENSARY,

NO. 623 KEARNY STREET, CORNER Commercial, San Francisco. Private entrance on Commercial street. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Disease, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc., etc. Skin diseases of years standing, and Ulcerated Legs, etc., successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for alleviating human suffering.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal emission is consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, pimples and various eruptions about the face, hectic flushes, furred tongue, fœtid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use.

Persons writing to the Doctor will please state the name of the paper they see this advertisement in.

By enclosing $10 in coin in a registered letter through the Postoffice, orthrough Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Address, DR. J. F. GIBBON,
