The World
Published by the Press Publishing Company.

SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 25.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD
(Including Postage):
PER MONTH.....30c.
PER YEAR.....$3.50

VOL. 30.....NO. 10,385

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second class matter.

BRANCH OFFICES:
WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE—1267 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d sts., New York.
BROOKLYN—359 FULTON ST. HARLEM—News Department, 150 EAST 125TH ST.; Advertisements at 237 EAST 115TH ST. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 112 SOUTH 6TH ST. WASHINGTON—610 14TH ST.
LONDON OFFICE—32 COCKSPUR ST., TRAFALGAR SQUARE.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Both at Albany and at Washington action in regard to the World's Fair is taking place. At the State capital there was a little demurring to the immediate consideration and settlement of the question. Some Senators urged that they wished to study the bill. This will only occasion a few days' delay, as the question is to be considered next week. But any needless procrastination is to be deeply deplored, as the granting the ten millions by the Legislature at Albany will have the most beneficial effect in Washington.

THE WORLD's petition will be printed in the Congressional Record to-morrow. The Fair workers in Washington for New York profess confidence that all will be well.

The sooner it can be settled the better. It will be found that the erection of the buildings and the general preparations for the World's Fair will take all the time that can be had before 1892. In spite of Mr. PLATT, the people want it in that year.

THE DEADLY CAR STOVE.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company has maintained that deadly feature of car travel, the stove. They claimed exemption from the State law, which enjoins steam on all roads over fifty miles in length, on the ground that they only had twenty-six miles of rail in this State.

Happily, Judge INGRAHAM in the Supreme Court, Special Term, has given judgment for the State, and the General Term has sustained him when the case was appealed to it. The horrors of the deadly car stove are great enough for a road like this to wish to avoid them, without attempting to screen itself under a technicality of the law. Everybody will be glad that the road failed in this miserable policy.

The sugar magnates held a meeting of several hours' duration lately. Of one thing the public may rest assured, that they were not taxing their brains to devise a scheme for supplying sugar to the world at the greatest advantage to the purchasers. Monopolistic bonds to weld together the Trust were probably put upon the anvil and hammered well.

Yet monopoly is opposed to public opinion, and, theoretically, can hardly escape the State statutes of criminal law. What, then, are these magnates to be called, and how should their deeds be named?

Those who have watched, with some vexation, the wanton hilarity of BENJAMIN PETER HUTCHINSON, the jolly cornerer of Chicago, whenever he has pinched the country, and who have dropped a large amount of money, will feel a little mirthfulness themselves at learning that "Old Hutch" has been "done" by an insignificant clerk in his employ quite unknown to fame to the extent of $60,000. Instead of a feeling of pride in such a clever employee, the old man has locked himself up and swears and sulks dreadfully.

England is suffering from a plague of rats. The fields are overrun with the rodents, and the injury they are inflicting is very serious. In 1815 Nova Scotia was nearly paralyzed by an invasion of mice. They ruined the crops. The cats were the only animals that thrived and waxed fat. Where is there a regiment of Pied Pipers who may patrol the length and breadth of Albion and lure the hateful rodent to destruction? The rat poison men should do a rattling rating business.

SPOTLETS.

Sa-po-ro-na-o is dead. He has gone to hunt in the Indian Reservation of the "Sweet By-and-By."

The Brazilian Republic has some wire-pullers. The Telegraph Department has been robbed of 50,000 pesos.

Ben Harrison wired Humberto that he was just too sorry for anything over the Duke of Aosta's death. That's all right, Ben.

Home jail-birds in Illinois broke loose in cold weather and were almost frozen to death. They didn't know they were going to have such a snap.

A young man was arrested at his wedding as he stood at the alter. He has altered before—checks.

Crispi, Italian premier, has had some cigars named after him. A crispy cigar can't be very nice.

Herr Most has skipped. His bondsman, Mrs. Hoffman, feels as if her most had gone, but not her all.

How lucky the Rothschilds are! One of them goes out to fight a duel, and the other fellow was the one pinked.

M. Eiffel is being sued by his elevator men. They naturally object to giving him a lift for nothing.

No leaded lot is eligible for this column on the ground that it is a set of lot.

It Was a Clear Case.

[From the Lowell Citizen.]

Boarding Mistress (after watching a boarder eat three sausages with great celerity)—You must be an Odd Fellow, sir?

Boarder—You've guessed it; but how did you know?

Mistress—I knew you must be by the familiar way in which you handled those three links.

THE WORLD OF SPORTS.

Oarsmen Want an Annual Eight-Oared Regatta.

St. Louis Anxious to Have a Players' League Club.

An annual open amateur eight-oared regatta, four-miles straightaway, is what is needed to enliven amateur oarmanship—according to certain prominent New York oarsmen. These aquatic Solons say that a race of this kind would go very far towards arousing enthusiasm in rowing circles and tend to develop talent on a large scale. A contest between half a dozen of the crack eights of this country could be arranged for next Summer, say these wiseacres. The idea is to get the following crews into such a race: University of Pennsylvania, Cornell, Atalanta, Bradford, Columbia and New York Athletic Clubs eights, Harvard and Yale, or any other crew that so desired, could also enter.

* * *

Nearly two hundred thousand people witnessed the funeral of Henry E. Searle at Sydney, Australia, which testifies to the popularity of an oarsman who always rowed "on the square."

* * *

St. Louis is anxious to have a Players' League Club and has set to work to secure a franchise.

* * *

The Twelfth Regiment Athletic Club will hold their Spring games at their armory, Sixty-second street and Ninth avenue, March 27. The events are as follows: 100-yard dash, 440-yard run, mile run, mile walk, 2-mile bicycle race, all handicap; also a novice half-mile and obstacle races. There is also a 100-yard dash and a 1,000-yard run, open to members of the regiment only. Entries close March 1.

* * *

J. Reilly, of this city, desires to back Tom Green, the welter-weight of New York, against Jack Files, of Chicago, for $500 a side and a purse of $500 in a finish match with 5-ounce gloves, the battle to take place within one hundred miles of New York, within four weeks from the signing of articles.

* * *

It is quite possible that the National Skating Association may hold its twenty-mile race to-day at Lake Mechanicus. It depends on the condition of the ice. If it is decided to hold this race to-day the mile and a quarter and the ten mile races will take place Monday.

* * *

Parson Davies says he places John L. Sullivan at the top of the pugilistic ladder, Peter Jackson next, then Kilrain, Slavin and Joe McAuliffe, in the order named.

* * *

Frank Ives, who is to be one of the contestants of the big billiard tournament next month, is playing in excellent form. At a recent exhibition contest in Boston he surprised even his friends by the good work he did at the eight-inch balk-line game.

* * *

Harvard will enter a tug-of-war team in the Mott Haven games, despite reports to the contrary. She has material for a winning team.

* * *

Next week Louis Hansen will put his head on one cigar and his feet on another and try to hold a 1,000-pound dumbbell on his chest. This interesting performance will take place at the Police Gazette office, and if he succeeds, Mr. R. K. Fox will give him $100.

* * *

As Stansbury, the Australian oarsman, will not come to him, O'Connor, the Canadian sculler, is going to Stansbury. O'Connor says he will try to make a match with the Australian over the Paramatta course.

The crack pistol shots of the Seventh Regiment practise at their armory every Saturday evening. At the next athletic games given by the regiment, pistol marksmanship will probably form a feature.

* * *

Jacob Schaefer, the "wizard of the cue," will leave Chicago next Monday for New York to see about entering for the billiard tourney to be held at Chickering Hall before long.

ATHLETES IN REPOSE.

B. C. Williams, of the New York Athletic Club, has infused new life into the National Cross-Country Association since he assumed the Presidency of that organization. He is also the Chairman of the Committee. He is one of the most active of downtown business men.

John McTiernan is the right noise of the 125-pound boxer of the Downtown Athletic Club, and "Tiernan," although the abbreviated name sticks to him like glue. Just now he is training for his ten-round bout with Harry Hiles for a hundred-dollar prize Feb. 1 at the Brighton A. C.

"Dolly" Parker, so called because his right name is George, has proved that he has lots of pluck. In his mill with Pat Cahill at the preliminaries of the Varuna Boat Club competitions he was knocked down three times and yet was angry when the referee stopped the contest. He is a member of the Bedford A. C.

Max Luttbeg, the amateur wrestler who holds the 135-pound championship, is a New York Turn Verein man. He has had a good deal of experience in the ring, and has great snap and fire; in fact he is apt to let temper get the better of cool judgment. He is one of the leaders of the well-known German organization.

FASHIONS.

In the line of mourning jewels gray pearls are the ideal ear-drops.

All the theatre rapotes are small. Where velvet is used the draping is very close. There is an odd, ugly crown-shape made of lace, and yet which is merely a band or coronet from which the hair rises in puffs, coils or knots.

Sparrow brown is a new shade.

The Misses Sherman, daughters of the illustrious soldier, dress with the severity of recluses. They go in society a great deal but never dance. Both are brilliant conversationalists and make very happy dinner guests.

You can buy veiling now with tinted cheeks and chin.

WORLDLINGS.

Justice Brewer, the new member of the Supreme Court, is a tall man with dark hair, brown eyes and a swarthy skin.

The late Empress Augusta was noted in her youth for her beautiful shoulders.

George Matthews, of Youngstown, O., is certainly a remarkable man. After having his right arm amputated as the result of an accident, he placed the severed arm in a valise, and, unattended, went ten miles to his home.

Secretary Noble's fortune amounts to between $125,000 and $150,000.

Dry and Thirsty.

[From Munsey's Weekly.]

Chapman—There is really a great deal of dry humor in this play, Fibson.

Fibson—Yes, the manager won't let his comedians go out between the acts.

After Pneumonia

And attacks of la grippe, typhoid fever, scarlet fever or diphtheria, the patient recovers strength slowly, as the system is weak and debilitated and the blood poisoned by the ravages of the disease. What is needed is a good reliable tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has just the elements of strength for the body, and vitality and richness for the blood which bring back robust health and make the weak strong.

"After recovering from a prolonged sickness with diphtheria, and needing something to build me up, I took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I felt good results from the first dose. It seemed to go from the top of my head to the ends of my toes. I know Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good thing."—G. H. STRATTON, Druggist, Westfield, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1 (six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

THE THEATRES NEXT WEEK.

List of Attractions in the Play-Houses of Two Cities.

Julia Marlowe to Be Seen in "As You Like It."

Miss Julia Marlowe will appear as Rosalind in "As You Like It," at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday night. This ever-popular Shakespearian play will be thoroughly well presented. Eben Plympton will appear as Ingomar, Minnie Levick as the melancholy Jaques and Charles D. Herman as Oliver.

Miss Margaret Mather will play in "Romeo and Juliet" at Mr. Hammerstein's Harlem Opera-House on Monday and Saturday evenings; on Tuesday in "The Honeymoon; Wednesday and Friday in "Leah, the Forsaken," and at the Saturday matinee in "The Lady of Lyons."

D'Oyly Carte will arrive in a day or two in this country, and his presence will give a new turn to "The Gondoliers," Gilbert and Sullivan's latest comic opera, now running at the New Park Theatre. In the mean time the managers report that the production has been doing a very satisfactory business.

"Aunt Jack" is extremely prosperous at the Madison Square Theatre. During the past week numbers of theatre parties have attended the performance. A delegation from the In and Out Club, of Brooklyn, applauded Mrs. Agnes Booth's admirable work as the susceptible heroine.

W. J. Scanlan, the Irish comedian, will begin a two weeks' engagement at the Fourteenth Street Theatre on Monday night, appearing in Jessop and Townsend's Irish drama, "Myles Aroon." In the company will be Matt e Ferguson, Nannie Weatherals, Charles Mason, Thaddeus Shine and little Constance Wallace.

"The Five Twin Sisters," a melodrama by Denman Thompson and George River, will be seen at the Windsor Theatre on Monday night. The piece will be presented by an excellent company, including Frazer Coulter, Emily Stevens, Jessie Danville, George River, W. H. Currie, May Merrick and Lavinia White.

"A Midnight Bell," the best of the works from the pen of Charles H. Hoyt, will begin the last two weeks of its run at the Bijou Theatre on Monday night. There are many very excellent features in "A Midnight Bell," and it is full of humorous interest from beginning to end.

"The Senator," at the Star Theatre, is crowding that house at every performance. Mr. Crane has rarely had a part that suited him better than that of Senator Hannibal Rivers. The play is surely a money-maker, and the run at the Star Theatre will undoubtedly be extremely profitable.

"The County Fair" is doing a large business. Neil Burgess has just purchased a flat house at the corner of Eighty-second street and Central Park, which proves that Aunt Abigail Prudence says well. A matinee performance for the Boston Lodge of Elks will be given on Wednesday afternoon.

"The Fugitive" will be the attraction next week at H. R. Jacobs' Third Avenue Theatre. The company will be headed by Mr. Mason Mitchell, and the play will be presented in a very elaborate manner. The usual matinees on Monday, Thursday and Saturday will be given.

"The Prince and the Pauper," at the Broadway Theatre, is a great success. Little Elsie Leslie in the dual title role gives a charming performance; the others in the company are good, while the production itself leaves absolutely nothing to be desired. Wednesday and Saturday matinees are given.

"The Charity Ball" is still the attraction at the Lyceum Theatre. It is doing such an excellent business that there is no talk at all of its success. Indeed, it is quite probable that, like "The Wife," the play by the same authors, "The Charity Ball" will run through the season.

Most of the leading orchid growers throughout the country will be represented by rare specimens of these beautiful flowers at the annual orchid show, which opens at the Eden Musee on Feb. 18. The great Winter garden will be entirely given over to the floral exhibition, which will be a very large one.

"Bluebeard, Jr.," has been attracting large audiences to Niblo's during the past week. The ballet of the birds and insects is said to be an exact duplication of ballets at Her Majesty's and Drury Lane Theatre, London. The company seen in "Bluebeard, Jr.," is well balanced and competent.

Wednesday matinees will be given at the Academy of Music, beginning with the coming Wednesday. This will not interfere with the Saturday matinees. Dennan Thompson is not very fond of matinees, but "The Old Homestead" is doing such a phenomenal business that they have been found necessary.

Richard Mansfield will present "Prince Karl" at Palmer's Theatre on Monday night. This by many people has been considered his most enjoyable production. During the past week "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" has attracted large audiences to Palmer's Theatre.

"Clemenceau" has been so well received at Abbey's Theatre that it will remain as the attraction at that house for another week. Mme. Clare Ucelia will resume her impersonation of the Countess Dombroiska. "Clemenceau" is in five acts by Alexandre Dumas.

"What Nellie Bly Saw on Her Trip Around the World" is the title of a song that will be sung at Tony Pastor's Theatre next week by the entertaining Mr. Tony Pastor. A number of other enjoyable features are also announced. Tony Pastor's performances are always full of merit.

William Terriss and Jessie Millward will present Roger La Honte at H. C. Miner's People's Theatre next week. This is the play that ran for some weeks at Niblo's quite recently. In it Mr. Terriss appears in a dual role, and Miss Millward is the leading feminine part.

"The Brigands" is a popular favorite at the Casino. The music is so delightfully tuneful and so admirably rendered that it is not astonishing that it should have caused its former success. Miss Lillian Russell will shortly star the "Chanteuse de Fortune" in Boston.

"Paine's Lavender's Deception" will be continued at Koster & Bial's concert hall next week. Among the specialty features will be the Venetian Trouvadours, consisting of eight women; Arthur West, Hastings and Leslie, Ward and Swan, the Cantelupes; the Tessets and Co., Flute.

"Shenandoah" is doing a very large business at Proctor's Twenty-third Street theatre. The two hundredth performance is announced for its place on the bill for Feb. 24. Mr. Bronson Howard's war play has certainly won fame for itself. It is presented by an excellent company.

"The Seven Aces" at the Standard Theatre is certainly a charming production. It seems are all picturesque and charming to the eye; the costumes are gorgeous and tasteful. Henry I. Dixey as the Judge and the lean and slippered Pantalons does the best work he has ever done.

"The Exiles," Victorien Sardou's melodrama, will be the attraction next week at the Grand Opera-House. It was seen at Niblo's during Thanksgiving Week and met with much approval. "The Exiles" is produced in a very elaborate manner, and the cast is a good one.

"The cyclorama entitled "The Battle of Gettysburg," at Fourth avenue and Sixteenth street, will have to be recognized in reports of the year's amusements. This is the second season of its sojourn in New York, and satisfactory business has been the general rule. The cyclorama has certainly been "indorsed."

Dominick McCaffrey will begin the second week of his engagement at Worth & Huber's Palace Museum, Monday. In the language of the management he will "lift the iron, lift the weights and illustrate different ways of lifting." The giant hog is still on exhibition. It will be weighed next Thursday, and the guessing contest will close Wednesday night. Other features at the Museum will be the Venetian troubadours, Thomas Haley, the tattooed boy; Carl, 3 hour ten and his wife; Giovanni, with his trained birds; Maida, albino, with the Terra del Fuegoinnokey; George Williams, the turtle boy; Turner Reed, the colored midget; Col. Pickett Nelson and John Nelson, the giants. The Metropolitan Specialty Company will give a stage entertainment.

The Arizona Joe company will be the attraction next week at Wild & Collyer's Comedy Theatre, appearing in the sensational comedy-drama called "The Black Hawks; or, The King of the Sansomone. Arizona Joe will be well supported. There are matinees at this house Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

There will be plenty of entertainment next week at the New London Theatre in the Bowery. T. L. Brooks's "Stolen Pipe" will be given. Then there will be Beatrix Hamilton, John Russell, Harry Maynard and Matt McGhee, Nellie Mordaunt, Diamond and Hart, Carrie Maynard, Hughes and Lindsay, Frank Manning and T. L. Brooks.

The Brooklyn Theatres.

The very title of the play which will be produced at the Criterion Theatre next week, "The Fatheen's Club," is suggestive of merriment. J. B. Stewart's comedy, which is built around the adventures of gentlemen of large proportions, who constitute a club, is replete with humorous situations and some snappy dialogue. Prominent among the supporting company is Miss Nellie Page, who formerly played in Rogers with Evans and Hoey in "The Parlor Match," and jointly starred with Joseph J. Dowling.

A particularly pleasing feature is "Old Bell Penny," which Robert Golden will present for the first time in Brooklyn, at Col. Sinn's Park Theatre next week, is that every character in the play is drawn from life. The scene is laid in the quaint New Castle Place, which formerly played in Brooklyn with Evans and Hoey in "The Parlor Match," and jointly starred with Joseph J. Dowling.

A particularly pleasing feature is "Old Bell Penny," which Robert Golden will present for the first time in Brooklyn, at Col. Sinn's Park Theatre next week, is that every character in the play is drawn from life. The scene is laid in the quaint New Castle Place, where formerly played in Brooklyn with Evans and Hoey in "The Parlor Match," and jointly starred with Joseph J. Dowling.

Mr. Golden was born and spent the early years of his life. Dora Wiley, well remembered for her work in comic opera, heads the support.

One of the most humorous of all the farces the ingenious brain of Charles H. Hoyt has contrived is "A Parlor Match," which comes to the Grand Opera-House next week, with Charles F. Evans and William Hoey as the principals. For six years which the "Match" has been before the public haven't dimmed it a particle, but seem rather to have added to its popularity. The character of Old Rose, in the hands of Will Hoey, is a positive creation.

The most ambitious effort the career of the popular comedian Nat Goodwin has yet shown was his production of "A Gold Mine." With one stroke Mr. Goodwin put aside the ideas of burlesque and minstrelsy and stepped forth as a comedian of the strictly legitimate order. Next week the patrons of the Amphion will be afforded an opportunity of seeing this successful comedy, with Mr. Goodwin and a number of clever people in the cast.

An interesting story of the manners and customs of the people of the far off India has been used as a groundwork for the spectacle of "Rajah," which will begin at the Lee Avenue Academy next week. The special features introduced form almost an entire show in themselves, and George Melville, the clown, sees that the humorous end of the show is not neglected.

Oliver Doud Byron is announced for next week at Jacobs' Brooklyn Theatre in his successful drama, "Across the Continent." All the sensational features will be reproduced, with scenery and mechanical effects. Miss Kate Byron will be at the head of an evenly balanced company.

The late Barney Campbell's play, "Mr Pacer, is undoubtedly for next week at Jacobs' Lyceum Theatre. The touching story of life in the far West is well known to the average theatre-goer and has lost none of its interest. The same company now at the Brooklyn will be seen.

The acrobatic specialists, "The Fargum Brothers," head the long list of attractions at Zipp's Casino for the coming week. Others on the bill are Josie Layton, Frank Bacon, Josie Farnum; Herman, a man of many talents; Lizzie and Minnie Kennit, who will continue the popular song, "Globe-Trotting Nell o' Ally."

ABOUT BOOKS.

Some bright accounts of a "Trip Around the World" may be looked for when those fair rival travellers, Miss Bessie Bisland and Miss Nellie Bly, return to New York, which will be in a few days now.

Mr. Howard Pyle has the double advantage of setting forth his travels with pen and pencil. His Jamaica trip, as presented in Harper's Magazine, is a very bright account of a romantic trip. Does Mr. Pyle prefer to draw Jamaica rum or see it set up in cold type?

Mr. Julian Hawthorne, in Lippincott's, presents another version of the strange theme developed in part in "Dr. Grimshawe's Secret" and "Septimus Felton." If any one has a right to supplement an author's incomplete tale it is the author's son. But possibly it is better that it should never be supplemented. The Venus of Milo is very beautiful without her arms.

Classic Theory of Serving Wines.

The classic theory of serving wines at a dinner is the following:

Immediately after the soup dry white wines are offered, such as French wines, Marvala, sherry, Madeira, dry Syracuse, &c. With the fish dry white wines are also served. With oysters Chablis is preferred. With relevés of butcher's meat and warm entrees red wines—Burgundy or Bordeaux. With cold entrees and other cold pieces fine white wines are served.

With the roast come the fine Bordeaux or champagne wines, or both. With the cremets, champagne alone. With the dessert, liqueur wines, such as Frontignan, Lunel, Alicante, Malvoisie, port, Tokay, Lacrima-Christi, &c.

The red wines ought to be drank at a temperature of about 55 degrees Fahrenheit. White wines should always be served cold.

He Had Retired.

[From Texas Siftings.]

An angry guest at an Austin (Tex.) hotel came downstairs at 2 o'clock in the morning and said to the night clerk: "Who is that man across the hall from me, kicking up such a racket? I can't sleep a wink."

Clerk—Oh, he's a retired army officer on a little lost.

"Retired, has he? Well, if he makes all that racket after he has retired, what a louder-yard he must be for more before retiring."

One Thing Needed.

[From Munsey's Weekly.]

"These are my household gods," he said to her, as he entered his bachelor apartments.

"Just you look something," she remarked.

"What?"

"A household goddess."

Important to Clerks.

[From Texas Siftings.]

Clerk—I want three days off in order to get married.

Boss—You do, eh? Not long since you were laid up three days with the grip. Why didn't you get married while you had the grip? Or, if you couldn't do that, why didn't you put off having the grip until you got married and make one vacation answer both purposes?

Medical Item.

[From Texas Siftings.]

A.—Dr. S. is very sick again.

B.—Why, I heard that Dr. W. treated him successfully, and that in consequence he was restored to health.

A.—Yes, that's so; but it worried Dr. S. so much that Dr. W. cured him that he had a relapse.

Paying His Money.

[From Munsey's Weekly.]

Paddock (to horsy-looking man, who is sitting in saloon playing cards)—What am I paying you $5 a day for?

Horsy—To break your horse.

Paddock—And you break him by having him hitched outside of a saloon while you play cards for drinks?"

Horsy—Certainly, sir; I'm breaking him now to stand hitched.

Nervous and Sleepless.

When is one sure way to cure nervousness and sleeplessness, and that is by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great brain and nerve invigorant. This wonderful remedy is Nature's own nerve tonic and sleep producer, and is perfectly harmless, being made from pure vegetable medicines. It may be given to infants, children or the most delicate invalids without fear. It soothes, calms and quiets the weakened, irritable and overwrought nerves, producing perfect repose and refreshing, natural sleep; at the same time it builds up and tones up the weak and shattered nerves and gives renewed life, strength, vitality and vigor to the system. It is for sale by all druggists for $1.00 per bottle.

ONLY A SHORT LEAD NOW.

Miss Cafferata Takes Second Place, Close Behind Miss Liebman.

The Watch Contest Grows More Interesting Every Day.

The struggle for popularity between the candidates in THE EVENING WORLD Lady Teachers' Contest grows more and more interesting. Miss Liebman still leads with 32,027, while Miss Cafferata jumps into second place with 30,325, relegating Mrs. Burns to third place with 26,795.

Close behind, in fourth place, is Miss Jarecki with 26,252. Miss Mayer's vote has increased to 18,683 and she is still fifth, while Miss Alyea continues sixth with 4,152.

Any lady teacher in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut can be a candidate in THE EVENING WORLD's contest. The teacher receiving the largest number of votes will be presented with an elegant gold watch, purchased from Edwin A. Thrall, of No. 3 Maiden lane. Mr. Thrall thus describes the prize:

The watch is one of the finest of movements. It is full-jewelled, with rubies, lever escapement and nickel finish. The cases are hunting cases, 18 carats fine, and very heavy.

They are made from nugget or antique gold, with twelve pigeon-blood rubies, twelve fine sapphires and twelve fine diamonds imbedded in the gold of the case. The price will be $100.

The watch is now on exhibition at Brentano's, 5 Union Square.

In all cases, where possible, indicate the number of the school, as well as city, with which the candidate is connected.

All votes must be on the ballot printed below. Cut out the blank, properly fill out and sign it, and send it to THE EVENING WORLD.

My choice is—

.....

In school—

.....

.....

Signed—

.....

Address—

.....

Conditions.

Any reader of THE EVENING WORLD may vote once only.

The vote must be upon the ballot printed in THE EVENING WORLD.

Only women who are actively engaged in teaching may be voted for.

The voter should give the full name of the teacher voted for, the school in which she is engaged and its location.

The candidate must be now engaged in teaching somewhere in the State of New York, New Jersey or Connecticut. She may be engaged in any school. There is no restriction as to age.

Envelopes containing ballots must be addressed to Watch Contest Editor, EVENING WORLD.

Following is the vote of each candidate who has received over 25 ballots:

Adams, Lizzie, Fourth Ward, Astoria, N. Y.	330
Alexander, Mrs. E., Ac., 304, Kingsland, N. J.	4,[illegible]
Atkinson, Teresa L., Prim., No. 19, N. Y.	131
Albro, Sara, No. 44, N. Y.	67
Allen, Grace, Oakside Sch., N. Dekalb, N. Y.	30
Agnew, Gertrude, No. 12, Brooklyn	50
Adams, E. A., Grammar Sch., Newark, N. J.	54
Anthony, Ella, No. 50, N. Y.	130
Alsop, Anna A., No. 16, Brooklyn	26
Ackerman, Ella, No. 40, Brooklyn	950
Burns, Mrs. Agnes C., No. 38, N. Y.	26,795
Bailey, Mary A., No. 6, Brooklyn	652
Barton, Mary E., Academy st., Trenton, N. J.	75
Beecher, Jane E., No. 31, N. Y.	146
Bonne, Annie E., No. 34, N. Y.	140
Boyle, Agnes, No. 34, N. Y.	1,068
Barnack, Miss, No. 20, N. Y.	144
Bottell, E., Normal College, N. Y.	84
Bates, Mrs., No. 10, N. Y.	101
Beaudoire, Mary, No. 35, N. Y.	75
Beach, Miss S., No. 38, N. Y.	111
Bliss, Julia, No. 17, Jersey City	37
Bell, Miss, Prim., No. 40, Alamada, Cal.	54
Bower, Mrs. M., No. 19, N. Y.	111
Brockington, Ida S., No. 38, N. Y.	30
Bunn, Mrs. Sarah, North Castle, N. Y.	30
Bacon, Sara, No. 37, N. Y.	652
Barnes, Agnes, No. 37, N. Y.	75
Blake, Sarah, No. 35, N. Y.	175
Brown, Louisa, No. 35, N. Y.	130
Brown, Ada, No. 35, N. Y.	130
Bouchia, Sara, Primary 41, Jersey City	30
Bolton, Jane, Primary 41, Jersey City	30
Barrett, Hannah, Primary 41, Brooklyn	30
Brown, Sarah E., No. 1, Bd. N. Y.	101
Bolton, Emily, No. 4, Jersey City	30
Bacon, Jennette, No. 14, Brooklyn	30
Brown, Miss A. J., No. 34, N. Y.	40
Boughton, Annie M., No. 3, Brooklyn	30
Bassett, E., No. 31, N. Y.	30
Beck, Lizzie, No. 31, N. Y.	30
Baker, Martha, 4th Ward, Astoria, N. Y.	30
Brown, Lizzie A., No. 38, N. Y.	38
Black, Annie A., No. 38, N. Y.	38
Blair, Jennie M., No. 38, N. Y.	38
Bassett, Nellie, No. 38, N. Y.	38
Buchanan, Lilly, Primary 41, N. Y.	40
Carter, Miss E. A., Pub. No. 14, Brooklyn	30
Brown, Miss M., No. 19, N. Y.	30
De a, Miss K. I., No. 68, N. Y.	30
Cotherstn, Emma, No. 40, Brooklyn	30,[illegible]
Carlin, Lizzie, No. 44, Brooklyn	30
Carolan, Mag., No. 13, N. Y.	3,679
Cullen, Mrs. A., No. 40, N. Y.	407
Chen, Grace M., No. 38, N. Y.	30
Cuney, Frances, No. 38, N. Y.	641
Carter, Frances, No. 38, N. Y.	411
Cohen, Ella C., No. 7, Nichols, N. Y.	2,[illegible]
Clarkson, Annette V., Primary 1, N. Y.	30
Craig, Sara E., No. 1, Brooklyn	3,[illegible]
Coll, Mag., No. 15, N. Y.	30
Carroll, Elizabeth, No. 20, N. Y.	30
Cronin, Mary, No. 20, N. Y.	30
Cullen, Margie, No. 2, N. Y.	3,511
Clark, Miss M., No. 22, N. Y.	30
Chapman, Jennie, No. 16, A. N. Y.	40
Combs, Miss, No. 40, N. Y.	30
Connors, Mrs. Sarah E., No. 47, N. Y.	30
Craig, Jen, Drum Hill, No. 2, Pecatonica, Ill.	30
Christie, Ella V., Hoboken	75
Cullen, Annie, No. 20, N. Y.	175
Cotton, Miss M., No. 6, N. Y.	30
Crowley, Kate, No. 43, N. Y.	30
Charlton, Laura, No. 37, N. Y.	30
Cullinan, Mary E., No. 31, N. Y.	30
Crawford, Isabella, No. 3, Brooklyn	30
Church, Emma E., No. 38, N. Y.	30
Collins, Jennie, No. 14, Brooklyn	30
Doyle, Miss, No. 31, N. Y.	101
Dunne, Annie, No. 38, N. Y.	30
Dillon, Mary E., No. 19, N. Y.	30
Donnelsich, Annie, No. 40, N. Y.	336
Downing, Annie, St. Matthew's Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y.	201
Devine, Maggie, No. 31, N. Y.	77
Dillon, Annie F. A., No. 1, New Rochelle, N. Y.	30
Dougherty, M. E., No. 14, N. Y.	30
Dundon, Katie A., No. 77, N. Y.	130
Dunne, Annie, Prim., No. 41, N. Y.	175
Dalidson, Miss, No. 38, N. Y.	30
Dowling, Frances A., No. 67, N. Y.	175
Dean, Miss M. M., No. 3, N. Y.	317
Dingman, Kittie, Phoenix, N. Y.	30
Dugan, Josie, Drum Hill, Pecatonica, Ill.	30
Dale, Miss M. M., No. 10, Brooklyn	677
Delong, Mrs., No. 3, New Brighton, N. Y.	30
Davis, Miss B., Normal College, N. Y.	30
Dinsmore, Miss H., No. 3, N. Y.	30
Everitt, Ida J., No. 3, N. Y.	30
Eagan, Miss, No. 10, Brooklyn	30
Ellis, Clara, Washington School, Rahway, N. J.	110
Eagan, Annie A. L., No. 46, Brooklyn	6,608
Eagan, Miss Ella, No. 38, Brooklyn	205
Ecker, Miss G., No. 11, N. Y.	337
Ely, Mrs. L. B., Home Ind. Sch., N. Y.	257
Fallon, Annie, No. 77, N. Y.	30
Fuller, Miss A., No. 66, N. Y.	175
Flynn, Alice M., No. 1, N. Y.	1,[illegible]
Ford, Nellie, No. 1, N. Y.	151
Fisher, Sophie, No. 4, Dorchester, N. Y.	204
Flynn, Miss M. C., Fifth Ward, Astoria, N. Y.	410
Flood, Christinel, Normal College, N. Y.	31
Finley, Margaret, No. 60, N. Y.	37
Fraser, Isabella, No. 50, N. Y.	78
Fowler, Emma, No. 3, Brooklyn	40
Fermon, Carrie A., Cottage Place Masten, N. Y.	47
Farmer, Miss A. J., Primary No. 31, N. Y.	48
Flood, Miss H. V. B., No. 47, N. Y.	30
Ferguson, Mrs. Mary, No. 47, N. Y.	30
Farrell, Annie, No. 20, N. Y.	30
Fagan, Josephine B., No. 50, N. Y.	33
Flowers, Ida, No. 20, N. Y.	33
Foote, Miss Ida, No. 26, Brooklyn	30
Fagan, Miss, No. 10, Brooklyn	30
Haberman, Jaggie, St. Patrick's, N. Y.	30
Holt, E., Bleecker Grammar School	30
Fowler, Conn	30
Ford, Miss M. J., No. 38, Brooklyn	30
Jarecki, Gabriel, No. 23, N. Y.	26,252
Jury, Mary E., No. 68, N. Y.	3,241
Johnston, Jeannette, Port Richmond, S. I.	207
Jennett, Mary E., Primary 15, N. Y.	130
Johnson, Emma L., White Plains, N. Y.	130
Johnson, Mrs. M. A., No. 3, Brooklyn	131
Jacobs, Miss L., No. 40, N. Y.	30
Jansman, E. F., No. 40, N. Y.	42
Johnson, Miss F. E., No. 40, N. Y.	48
Jackson, Julia A., Parkville, L. I.	30
Jackson, Isabella, No. 1, Hoboken	30
Jay Lines, No. 34, N. Y.	31
Kirkman, Clara, Canal st., N. Y.	30
Kemper, Jennie, No. 37, N. Y.	758
Kerland, Miss K., No. 74, N. Y.	1,788
Kelly, Annie L., No. 77, N. Y.	127
Kerr, Miss M., No. 37, N. Y.	801
Knapp, Lina R., No. 44, N. Y.	803
Kelly, Nellie, No. 44, N. Y.	51
Kelly, Kate, No. 3, Brooklyn	30
Kelly, Isolina F., Dist. 23, Trenton, N. J.	107
Kinner, Miss, No. 40, N. Y.	30
Keresham, F. L., No. 38, Brooklyn	143
Killeen, Miss, No. 3, N. Y.	111
Kerley, Miss H., No. 38, Brooklyn	111
Keyes, Alice B., No. 41, N. Y.	30
Kennedy, Daisy L., No. 2, Jersey City	30
Kelsey, Miss, No. 43, Rome, N. Y.	30
Kay, Ella M., No.