COMPULSORY EDUCATION

AN ACT

TO COMPEL CHILDREN TO ATTEND SCHOOL.

[Approved February 25 1873.]

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every parent, guardian, or other person in the State of Nevada, having control and charge of a child, or children, between the ages of eight and fourteen years, shall be required to send such child, or children, to a public school for a period of at least sixteen weeks in each school year, at least eight weeks of which shall be consecutive, unless such child, or children, are excused from such attendance by the Board of School Trustees of the school district in which such parents or guardians reside, upon its being shown to their satisfaction that the bodily or mental condition of such child, or children, has been such as to prevent his, her or their attendance at school, or application to study, for the period required, or that such child, or children, are taught in a private school, or at home, in such branches as are usually taught in primary schools, or have already acquired the ordinary branches of learning taught in the public school; provided, in case a public school shall not be taught for the period of sixteen weeks, or any part thereof, during the year, within two miles, by the nearest traveled road, of the residence of any person within the school district, he or she shall not be liable to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State, on or before the first Monday in September in each year to furnish the principal of each public school taught in such district with a list of all children, resident in the school district, between the ages of eight and fourteen years, said list to be taken from the report of the School Census Marshal. At the beginning of each school month thereafter, it shall be the duty of the principal of each shool in such district to report to the Board of School Trustees of such district the names of all children attending
