RED TAPE VS. BRUTALITY.

Emigration Officials Differ and Sick Mrs. Laedeng Suffers Pain.

Mrs. Augusta Laedeng, a German widow, forty years old, was subjected to most brutal treatment by emigration officials this morning.

She is very ill with dropsy and has been obliged to give up her situation as cook at 234 Seventh avenue. When she applied for aid to Dr. Guiteras, of the Emergency Hospital, at the Barge Office to-day, he sent her to Castle Garden, because she had landed here Oct. 19, or before last Saturday, when the Barge Office officials' responsibility for emigrants began.

Secretary Jackson would not receive her at Castle Garden because Secretary Windom, a week ago, refused to pay the State Board the expenses of any obligations assumed after the receipt of his letter to that effect.

The poor woman was therefore repeatedly dragged back and forth between Castle Garden and the Barge Office, suffering excruciating pain from her swollen limbs. If speedy action is not taken in her case she may receive lasting injury from her treatment.

The invincible power of truth and honesty is our bulwark. We will do all we claim and more.

OUR SHOW WINDOWS

will be radiant with the most phenomenal values ever exposed for public inspection. The red figures will guide you when the price fray is hottest.

Specimen items culled at random from the wilderness of bargains:

Children's Reefers, 99c. Ladies' all-wool Jackets, $1.62; others $3.45, $3.98, $4.98 and up; were $9, $10 and $12. Connemaras, $3; others $3.98, $4.50 and up; the price does not represent the cost of the material. All-wool Cloth Shoulder Capes, with ruffles and trimmed with gold braid, $2.50; were $4.98. Handsome Beaded Wraps, $1.29; were $4.50; others at $3.98, $4.50, $6.00, $7.50 and up; less than half the regular every-day price.

Ladies' nicely made and handsomely finished fine Twill Black Cashmere and Black Brilliantine Suits, $5.98; other strictly stylish and elaborately trimmed Suits, $7.98, $9.98, $12.98 and up for Friday Bargain Sale. Heavy Black Gros Grain Silk Suits, made up to sell cheap, for $31.50; will sell in Friday Bargain Sale for $16.98. This is a puzzler.

DR. SANDEN'S ELECTRIC BELT

LATEST PATENT JAN. 25, 1889. IMPROVED FEB. 1, 1890.

A Medical Discovery whereby through indiscretions or otherwise suffering LOST OR FAILING POWER, DRAINS or LOSSES we GUARANTEE to cure or refund money by this new, improved ELECTRIC BELT AND SUSPENSORY, made for this purpose. Also belts for LAME BACK, RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES, SLEEPLESSNESS or GENERAL ILL HEALTH. These belts are the only complete sold in New York, and are wonderful in their action, being complete medical laboratories, constructed for convenience in the shape of belts giving mild, soothing, steady currents which are instantly felt by wearer or we forfeit $5,000. They are light and convenient to wear, and when used three to four hours during day or evening will cure the worst cases in 60 to 90 days. They cannot be fully appreciated without being seen. Overwhelming home references. Note a sample cure.

FROM THE SECRETARY BRIGHTON BEACH RACING ASS'N
23 Prospect Place, BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 11, 1889.

THE SANDEN ELECTRIC CO., Gentlemen:—If the people of this country who suffer from vital weakness could know my condition before using your belt, and what I am to-day, you would hardly be able to supply the demand for them. You have entirely cured me of the weakness, and all the symptoms, which you know were pain in the back, premature weakness, nervousness and general weakness. The rapidity with which I have improved has been a source of great surprise to me and my friends, and I shall always recommend you.

Yours truly, JAMES McGOWAN.

Avoid irresponsible agents holding out bogus trial offers, etc., to foist inferior imitations of our goods upon the afflicted, but call or write direct to the inventor and manufacturer and get reliable information.
