BRICE'S TAX DODGE.

The Suit to Compel Him to Disgorge Now in the Supreme Court.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

COLUMBUS, June 19.—The suit brought to compel Senator-elect Brice to pay back taxes which he owes the State of Ohio has reached the Supreme Court of the State. This afternoon a petition in error on behalf of the State in relation to Henry W. Morgenthaler vs. Cyrus D. Crites, Auditor of Allen County, was filed in the Supreme Court. The suit was brought originally by Morgenthaler, who is a tax "inquisitor," to require the Auditor of Allen County to place on the tax duplicate and collect the taxes on large sums of money, bonds, securities and other personality owned by Calvin S. Brice. The law provides for the compensation of tax inquisitors and the collecting of delinquent taxes for five years on property not returned for taxation. Mr. Morgenthaler looked up the records of Mr. Brice's personal possessions, and claims to have discovered that the great politician and financier had failed to return each year large sums of money, bonds and securities which he owned and which were subject to taxation. It is claimed that in some years the property so held amounted to more than $2,000,000.

Mr. Morgenthaler took steps to have the taxes on this unreturned property collected, and himself carried to Mr. Brice in New York a notice to appear before the County Auditor and make answer why he should not pay the taxes. Mr. Brice paid no attention to the notice. The case was postponed from time to time, and the plaintiffs insinuate that the County Auditor was in collusion with Mr. Brice's attorney, an insinuation which is indignantly denied by Auditor and attorneys. Finally the case was taken into the courts and an alternative writ of mandamus was issued by the court to the Auditor.

The case was finally decided against Mr. Morgenthaler. On motion by his attorney to strike from the files Mr. Brice's attorney's demurrer to the plaintiff's reply was made, and the case was appealed.

The attorneys for Morgenthaler are Messrs. Robb and Teete, of Lima, and William L. Avery, of Cincinnati. The questions involved in the suit are of great importance, for if it is decided against Mr. Brice the decision will open the way to bringing out of their hiding-places vast sums of money, bonds and other personal property on which no taxes are paid.

Race Trouble in Texas.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 19.—The Houston Light Guards are under arms by order of Gen. Kinz, being in readiness to respond to a call from Sheriff Hammond, of Polk County, in which trouble is expected. A negro at Livingston, who cut the throat of a white man named Morris a few days ago, was lynched by a posse of armed men. In revenge a band of negroes killed two of the men alleged to be implicated. A bloody race war is feared.

RUSSIA'S PRISON CONGRESS.

Resolutions Adopted for the Benefit of Criminals.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The International Prison Congress, in session in this city, has adopted resolutions declaring: First, that in future treaties between nations the general principal of extradition should be authorized and an agreement arrived at as to the nature of the cases to be deemed exceptions to the rule. Second, that International Associations should be organized to assist discharged prisoners and their families. Third, that the actions of charitable bodies, both punitive and preventive, should be brought into general agreement. Fourth, that inebriety, accompanied by disorderly conduct, should be punishable; that the sellers of alcohol should be responsible for crimes resulting from their serving drunken men, and that the sale of liquors on credit or to children should be prohibited.

Mr. Randall, of Michigan, will address the Congress on the subject of "Young Offenders."

Great Auction Sale,

1,000 CHOICE LOTS

at 12.30 P. M., on the premises

TUESDAY, JUNE 24,

you will lose your heart over the fine location and gain money by investing at your own price.

FLUSHING HIGHLANDS is within the limits of Flushing Village, a city in reality, of over 10,000 inhabitants, and all modern conveniences. Thousands of go-ahead New Yorkers, who know a good thing when they see it, have moved to Flushing within the past three years, and the Long Island Railroad runs sixty trains daily to accommodate the travel.

THE BROADWAY STATION is right near these lots, and there all the trains stop. This ad. will not contain all the good points which can be enumerated about this property, so attend the sale and secure GENUINE BARGAINS. For free tickets and descriptive maps address JERE JOHNSON, Jr., 60 LIBERTY ST., NEW YORK, or 393 FULTON ST., BROOKLYN.
