The Noble Mare Wins a Grand Race at Linden.

A NOSE BEFORE DE MUTH.

Pools on the Mayoralty as Well as on Horses.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

LINDEN RACE TRACK, Nov. 3.—Previous to the first race at Linden, to-day, George Shaw, a bookmaker doing business under the name of the Golden City Club, put on odds on the Mayoralty contest to be decided to-morrow.

He offered odds of 1 to 2 against Grant and odds of 7 to 5 against Scott.

He took in many bets on both sides, and several other bookies followed his example. One offered as high as 9 to 5 against Scott.

Racegoers were more than pleased to see Fred Taral and George Taylor on the first train that went to the track to-day. It meant that good riding would be seen at the Elizabeth races, and the two boys were subjected to vigorous handshakes.

Taral received a mount directly upon his reaching the track. He rode Al Farrow in the first race.

It was 4 to 1 and take your pick against Al Farrow, Clarendon, Dr. Hasbrouck and Fitzjames when the betting opened.

Clarendon and Al Farrow closed favorites in the betting, the latter being heavily backed.

Firenzi was announced as a sure starter in the third race, and it was reported on good authority that she worked a mile and a quarter in 2.11¾ at Monmouth Park a few days before removal here.

The two-year-old, Michael, won the first race from Clarendon easily, and in very near record time. Forest King was third.

Early Blossom was a favorite for the second race and won very easily from Lepanto, who was in peril all the way in the stretch.

Equality was heavily played, but could get no better than third.

That noble mare Firenze won a great race in the third, while thousands of people yelled like lunatics at the finish.

It was a dead-dog between De Muth and Firenze all the way up the stretch, and Garrison landed the Queen a winner by a nose in the last time of 2.08¾.

Casalis was third, four lengths away.

FIRST RACE.

All ages; free handicap; six and one-half furlongs.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.
			—Betting.—
1 Michael	97	A. Covington	6-5	1-2
2 Clarendon	115	Thompson	4-1	7-5
3 Forest King	92	Costello	6-1	2-1
4 Kittie Van	90	Stevenson	20-1	6-1

9 Fitzjames	110	Littlefield	7-1	5-2
10 Ballarat	97	J. Tribe	15-1	5-1

Kittie Van was the first to show, with Louise, Glory and Ballarat next.

Down the back-stretch Ballarat went to the front, and closely attended by Glory and Kittie Van made the running to the far turn.

Then Clarendon and Al Farrow came through and the field entered the stretch in a close bunch.

Clarendon took the lead down the stretch, but then a little bunch of white and blue shot out of the stretch. It was Michael and he won easily by a head from Clarendon, who beat Forest King a length. Time—1.21¼.

SECOND RACE.

Two-year-olds that have run and not won at this meeting; sweepstakes; five and a half furlongs.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.
			—Betting.—
1 Early Blossom	108	Yank	5-8	10-1
2 Lepanto	111	Lambly	15-1	3-1
3 Equality	115	Littlefield	3-5	7-5
4 Bilitoe	108	Covington	3-1	7-5
5 Van Dyke	113	Hall	20-1	6-1
6 Lord Harry	118	Miller	7-2	6-5

Equality was first away followed closely by Lepanto, Lord Harry and the others close up. On the turn, this order still prevailed, but as they entered the stretch Early Blossom began to come through, closely collared by Bilitoe and Lord Harry.

There was a general closing up at the last furlong, but Early Blossom came away easily and won by a length from Lepanto, who came with a rush in the last furlong, after being whipped all the way up the stretch.

Equality was third, half a length away. Time—1.05¾.

THIRD RACE.

All ages; free handicap; one mile and a quarter.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.
			—Betting.—
1 Firenze	127	Garrison	6-5	10-1
2 De Muth	101	Taylor	7-1	2-1
3 Casalis	116	Taral	3-1	7-5
4 Tirion	95	Clayton	12-1	3-1
5 Reporter	103	Lambley	8-1	3-1
6 Stockton	94	Littlefield	6-1	2-1

Casalis was first out of the chute, followed by Tirion and Stockton.

Going by the stand, Casalis and Tirion were running head and head, four lengths in front of Demuth, with Firenzi next.

This order prevailed until the far turn was reached, where De Muth took the lead and Firenzi moved up, but in the stretch, De Muth was a length in front of Firenzi, and Garrison went to work.

He scourged and used his strong legs to their almost power, but he could not catch Demuth.

At the last furlong, the Snapper went to the whip.

Inch by inch he gained on Demuth, as the noble mare responded.

Now Taylor goes to the whip and Demuth follows.

The two jockeys are whipping like demons and the spectators have risen up and are yelling like mad.

Inch by inch Firenzi gained, and at the last jump Garrison lifts her and she just gets her nose in front of Demuth, winning a great race.

Casalis was third, four lengths away. Time—2.08¾.

FOURTH RACE.

For two-year-olds; purse $300, selling; five furlongs.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.
			—Betting.—
1 Ketchum	91	Decker	1-2	2-1
2 Kate Clark	101	Lambley	8-1	3-1
3 Common Sense	101	Taral	7-1	2-1
4 Ella T.	90	T. Finn	3-1	1-2
5 Contessa Bly	93	Costello	9-2	3-1
6 Melmic	96	Clayton	10-1	4-1

Kate Clark, Ketchum and Common Sense got away on even terms.

Ella T. was next and Contessa Bly last.

Ketchum was a head in front going around the turn, with the others closely bunched.

In the stretch Ella T. came through and appeared to be winning easily, as the others were at the wire.

In the last furlong Ketchum drew clear away, and under the whip won by half a length from Kate Clark, who beat Common Sense the same distance. Time—1.18¾.

FIFTH RACE.

All ages; selling sweepstakes; one mile.

HEMMED IN BY TWO TRAINS.

Narrow Escape from Death of a Crowd of Race-Goers.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 3.—Passengers on the 1.30 train from New York to the Linden Race Track had a narrow escape from disaster and death this afternoon.

This train does not come in on the siding but stops on the main track.

When it stopped to-day a coal train was passing, bound for New York.

The passengers had passed out on the side of the regular track, when suddenly, without warning, an express train bound for New York plunged into the crowd.

The passengers scattered as rapidly as possible, but they were hemmed in between the coal train on one side and the race train on the other.

It was a frightful position, but luckily every one kept cool, the express train passed and no one was hurt.

DEATH OF GEN. WRIGHT.

The death is announced to-day of Gen. John G. Wright, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Gen. Wright went to the front in the Seventh regiment in 1861, as captain.

He served all through the war, and was mustered out of service as Brigadier-General of Volunteers. He received five promotions for bravery on the field.

He had undergone the operation of laparotomy at the hospital, but did not rally, and died at 9.20 last night.

Minnesota Not Solid.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—The prospects favor a Republican Congressional delegation from this State with possibly one exception. Congressman D. S. Hall will have a hard fight in the Third District against O. M. Hall (Dem.), and Gen. Baker, Farmers' Alliance. The latter will veil a large vote. The chances are in favor of Hall's re-election, however. All the other districts of the State are regarded as surely Republican.

Nebraska in Doubt.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 2.—The situation in Nebraska is one of doubt in every district. In the first, Connell will probably succeed himself, though this is not conceded by his opponents. His majority will be small. In the second, McKeighan, Alliance-Democrat, has practically a walk-over. It is anybody's victory in the third, between Dorsey, Republican, Hopson (Democrat) and Kern (Farmers' Alliance, given in about the order of their relative strength as it appears at present.

Baseball Briefs.

The Brooklyn (N. L.) Baseball Club held its regular monthly meeting to-day.

A syndicate representing $2,000,000 is said to be behind the movement for a National League club in Cincinnati. Great developments are promised for late weeks.

St. Louis despatches says Capt. Comiskey has returned to the Von der Ahe fold, bringing the best of his players with him, and that the Windy City's all star team is now a thing of the past.

BENNING'S TRACK.

Weather Not So Pleasant for the Extra Week's Racing.

The First Event Caught by Silence at 4 to 1.

An Owner Fined for Taking His Horse Away Without Notice.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

BENNING'S RACE TRACK, Nov. 3.—The weather to-day was not as pleasant as it might have been, but the attendance was fairly good and the track in splendid condition.

J. Crocker left yesterday with his valet.

He had entered Waldo Johnson for the first race to-day, and the Jockey Club will hold him to his entrance fee, and as he left without giving the Club any notice, he will be heavily fined.

FIRST RACE.

For three-year-olds and upward; selling; six furlongs.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.

The horses got away well together with Coldstream leading slightly.

Tappahannock came up in a moment later and with Coldstream made the running to the head of the stretch. Silence had been running third, but in the stretch moved up, and in the last few yards went to the front, winning in a close finish, with Tappahannock second, who beat Coldstream for the place by a neck. Time—1.04.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $5.40; for a place, $3.10. Tappahannock paid $1.60.

SECOND RACE.

0 Alarm Bell	102	Simms	3-1	6-5

As soon as the horses got away, Alarm Bell drew away and made the running to the stretch, Pericles running second, Lowlander third, the others well together.

In the last few yards Lowlander drew away and won easily, while Kitty T., who had been running in the bunch, came up with a rush and beat Pericles out for the place by a head. Time—1.16¾.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $4.75; for a place, $3.35. Kitty T. paid $4.15.

THIRD RACE.

Purse $300, for three-year-olds and upward; selling; six furlongs.

0 Samaritan	101	Hay	5-1	even

Hazem and Samaritan at once went to the front and made the running to the head of the stretch.

Corticelli, on whom a strong tip was out and who carried most of the money, ran third all the way round, but at the head of the stretch went to the front.

But Larchmont, who had been running fourth, was given his head in the stretch and he won easily, with Corticelli a good second. Time—1.52.

Mutuels paid: Larchmont, $2.45; for a place, $2.05. Corticelli paid $2.85.

FOURTH RACE.

One mile; handicap.

Starters.	Wgts.	Jockeys.	Straight.	Place.

2 Tanner	102	Hayden	3-1	1-4
3 Iceberg	96	Jones	5-1	6-5
0 Syracuse	100	Hay	8-5	2-5

The horses got away with Tanner and Iceberg in the lead.

Iceberg soon began running away from the others, and at the upper turn was three lengths in the lead, Belle d'Or running last.

At the lower turn Syracuse and Tanner moved up, but at the head of the stretch Syracuse dropped back.

Belle d'Or moved up to third place, with Iceberg still leading, Tanner second.

In the stretch Tanner looked like a sure winner, but in the last few strides Belle d'Or went to the front and won by a nose. Tanner second. Time—1.42¾.

Mutuels paid straight $6.95; for place, $3.25. Tanner, $4.15.

Close in West Virginia.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 2.—All four of the West Virginia districts are doubtful. In the First, John O. Pendleton, who was unseated by the present House, is opposed by W. P. Hubbard, one of the ablest Republican lawyers in the State. The odds are in Pendleton's favor, but his majority will be less than 300. In the Second District William L. Wilson, Democrat, is opposed by George Harmon, a farmer and Steve Elkins's follower. Wilson will win, but his majority will be less than 600. In the Third District, the Democrats have renominated John D. Alderson, their present incumbent. Mayor Theophilus Gaines opposes him. Republican disaffection will probably defeat Gaines. In the Fourth District James Capehart, a farmer, has been nominated by the Democrats, and C. B. Smith, the first man seated under the Reed rule, by the Republicans. The contest is very close, but Smith seems to have a slight advantage.

Democrats Gain Two.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 2.—The Congressional fight in the First District is being vigorously pushed by both parties. Lewis Sperry, the Democratic nominee, is very popular and will probably be elected by a small majority, notwithstanding Congressman Simonds (Rep.) is working hard for re-election. The district is close, a Democrat being elected in 1888. In the second District Washington P. Willcox (Dem.) will be returned, the district being Democratic by 800 to 1,200. The Third District is uncertain, the strength of David A. Weis (Dem. and Tariff Reformer) being an uncertain quantity. Charles A. Russell (Rep.) was elected two years ago by 748 plurality. In the Fourth District Mayor Robert E. De Forest, of Bridgeport, the Democratic nominee, is working hard to defeat Miles Rep., who squeezed in two years ago by 26 plurality. Mayor De Forest's chances are good for election. Well-posted Democrats claim three Congressmen in place of one in the present Congress.

STOCK REPORTS.

Judge Pratt's Decision Causes a Panic in Sugar Stock

Everybody Anxious to Sell, Regardless of Price.

The General Market Not Affected by the Slaughter.

HIS decision of Judge Pratt that the Sugar Trust must be placed in the hands of receivers started a tremendous selling movement in the certificates and there was a break of 5½ per cent. to 50%. Thousands and thousands of shares were thrown overboard almost without regard to price. People who have been holding on for months and months, in the hope that the troubles of the Trust would be bridged over without a receivership and the enormous expense attached thereto, were sick, sore and sorry and let go of their stock.

Some of the big insiders have been under the impression that they would have things their own way, and Judge Pratt's strong language came like a thunder-tap out of a clear sky.

They have not been able to get out of their stock yet, but with a long receivership staring them in the face they will probably lighten their load at every opportunity.

Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago sent orders to sell, and the only demand of importance was from the shorts, who were willing to accept the handsome profits offered.

The break in sugar did not affect the general market to any extent. On the contrary, a firm tone prevailed.

Conservative operators are somewhat alarmed about the condition of the London market. Matters there are not in good shape and money is hardening again, call loans being quoted at 4 a 4½ and discounts at 5.

Sterling exchange ruled quiet and steady.

Money on call was done at 5 a 6 per cent.

The offerings of silver to the Government to-day were 1,000,000 ounces, of which 515,000 ounces were taken at 106.10 a 106.75.

The transactions in the entire regular list at the Stock Exchange were 125,000 shares, while the dealings in sugar certificates alone were 156,000 shares. The sales of silver were 140,000 ounces and 15,000 barrels of Pennsylvania oil.

General Sporting Notes.

Mike Brennan is reported in great shape for his fight with Mike Burns, of Lenox.

A rousing benefit is suggested for Joe Coburn, who is dangerously ill.

In what he declares to be his last race Horace W. J. Wheldon has broken the world's 24-mile road record on the pike from Hopkinton to Reading, time 1h. 49m.

In the Smith-Godfrey fight gloves will be used a little over four ounces in weight.

READY TO VOTE.

Full Instructions for Compliance with the New Ballot Law.

Betting Heavily in Favor of Tammany's Success.

Fifteen Million Ballots Prepared—Predictions of the Factions.

Following are complete instructions for voting to-morrow under the new election law:

When you enter the polling-place give your name and residence.

A clerk will hand you a complete set of ballots. One of these will be Democratic, another Republican and so on, but there will be nothing to show you which is which. It is advisable, therefore, to have in your pocket a list of the candidates for whom you intend to vote. You cannot vote any but an official ballot, but the list will serve as a memorandum in selecting your ticket if you vote straight, or in making up a ticket to suit you if you do not.

Go alone into the secret booths and there select the ballot you wish to vote from the bunch given you by the clerk. If you wish to alter it by scratching or pasting, you can do so just as under the old system.

Each ballot has a perforated line running across it near the top. All below that line is the ballot; all above it is the stub or coupon. When your ballot is ready you must fold it twice, once lengthwise and once crosswise.

You can do this in either of two ways: You can first fold from the bottom up to the perforated line, and then fold the other way, with a crease down the middle; or you can first fold from side to side, with the crease down the middle, and then fold the bottom up to the perforated line. In Brooklyn the first plan is recommended by the election officers; in New York the opinion is that the other is the way prescribed by the law. The Attorney-General has ruled that either way is permissible.

When folded, the face of the ballot must be completely concealed and the indorsement on the back open to view.

After you have folded the ballot you mean to vote, fold all the others given to you separately in the same way. Be careful not to get the one to be voted mixed with the others.

When ready, go to the officer at the boxes and hand him the ballot you wish to vote. He will tear off the stub and throw it into a box provided for that purpose. He will then put your ticket in the ballot-box. Give him all the rest of your ballots—those that you do not wish to vote. He will tear off the stubs, throw them into a box specially provided for them, and then throw the unused tickets into still one her waste-box. See that he does all this correctly, and especially that he puts your right ballot into the right box.

If you wish you can take a complete paster ballot with you, paste it on any one of the ballots given you by the clerk, and vote that. But be careful to paste it below the perforated line and do not let any of its edges extend beyond those of the ballot.

You must stay at least three minutes in the secret booth, and you must not stay more than ten minutes. If you spoil a ballot go back to the clerk, surrender the whole set and he will give you another.

If you are blind or because of any other physical defect or infirmity unable to prepare your own ballot, state the fact and make oath to it. You can then take your wife or any friend you choose with you into the secret booth to prepare the ballot for you. But remember that a friend does not entitle you to do this. If you cannot read, have a complete plaster with you and use it.

It is very simple when you once understand it.

BOTH SIDES PREDICT VICTORY.

"What will be the issue of to-morrow's contest?

"The serried ranks of Tammany Hall will scatter that untrained mob like chaff before the wind. It will only be play for us," is the way Tammany composes of it, and this answer is typical of confidence in the ability of Tammany's leaders and the organization which they have at their command.

"Tammany does not see the entire army which it is to meet," say their allies. "There is a popular uprising, which will reinforce us at the polls, and Tammany will be utterly routed when it comes to meet this unexpected auxiliary."

HOW THE BETS ARE BEING MADE.

While both sides are so confident of success, however, Tammany's friends are the only ones who offer to measure their confidence with money.

The sporting fraternity has begun to offer its money on the re-election of Mayor Grant, and at pretty fair odds.

Patrick Duffy, of New Orleans, and Pat Sheedy have each laid $1,000 to $800 on Grant. Ex-Police Commissioner Stephen B. French took the first bet and a gentleman named Stevenson the second.

Michael J. Harry bet J. E. Levy $2,000 to $1,500, Mr. Levy backing Scott.

Bigger and more lively betting is expected about the Hoffman, Morton and Brower houses to-night.

SCOTT IS TIRED OUT.

Francis Murphy Scott, the fusion candidate for Mayor, has quit making six stereotyped speeches a night. He is resting to-day, and will take a cross-country walk through Westchester County to-morrow, returning in the evening to keep in touch of the canvass.

Candidate Goff, unlike Mr. Scott, has not thrown up his job as stump orator. He proposes to talk until the last moment, and will address several meetings to-night.

LAST MOMENT SURPRISES.

John I. Davenport's wholesale arrest of alleged colonizers is what was expected from an official of his stripe.

Tammany's surprises have thus far been confined to wholesale resignations from the County Democracy organizations in the several Assembly districts.

Now Tammany leaders say that he has nearly every County Democracy captain in his Assembly District pledged to work for the Tammany ticket.

"They do it because they are good Democrats," said he. "They see that the Fusion ticket is a Republican scheme, which is intended to be far-reaching in its assistance to the Republican party, if elected, and they are not going to allow it to be elected if they can help it."

15,000,000 BALLOTS ALL READY.

All of the ammunition for the battle has been prepared. Printer Martin H. Brown has finished his contract, and printed, numbered, perforated and delivered to the police 15,000,000 ballots.

These ballots have been delivered to the several police captains and are now carefully guarded in the station-houses, from which they will be delivered to the several polling places by the patrolmen early Tuesday morning.

In some districts there will be at least seventeen different ballots, and in all of them at least eleven.

CONFIDENCE BEGINS TO DIE OUT.

The friends of Andrew Mercer are very confident of his re-election and predict that he will carry 10,000 ahead of the ticket.

Some of the reasons which carry great weight of consideration are that for the past six years he has given his services free of charge to the city at about what the salary of his office is, and that the number of honest Republicans in the city are now legion.

He has also freed many poor people from the asylums for the insane, and is a close friend whenever he could for all people in distress like of nationality, creed or party affiliation.

HIS STRONG STRENGTH OF DEFENCE SHOWN.

Delancey Nicoll, Tammany's candidate for District Attorney, is growing in strength as the campaign wanes. Hundreds of his Republican friends are making personal appeals to their acquaintances to support him, and their efforts are said to be crowned with gratifying success.

Great strength has been gained by Mr. Nicoll because of the attitude of the P. M. L. clergymen, who preached pretty generally yesterday against the Tammany ticket.

PROPHETS AND PROPHECIES.

Richard Croker's estimate of the result of to-morrow's polling is a majority of 35,000 for Mayor Grant.

Commissioner Gilroy is 10,000 less confident than his chief, but says it is only a matter of majority.

"One is as good as a thousand," Gen. Sickles said, in talking on the outlook.

County Democracy leaders are doing a little in the proprietary line to-day. Ernest Hurwitz figures a plurality of 10,000 for Scott, 25,000 for Goff, 15,000 for Corsa and from 8,000 down for the rest of the Fusion ticket.

SPECIAL SESSION PROBABLE.

Official Authority for a Statement That It Will Be Called.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—There is official authority for the statement that an extra session of Congress will be called to meet on Nov. 11 or Nov. 18.

SAYS THE JUDGES ARE BRIBED.

Dr. Crosby's Sensational Allegations Against City Officials.

Dr. Howard Crosby, in an address today at the Baptist Ministers' Conference, said:

"There are 7,000 saloons in the city and most of them are kept open on Sundays. Now, who is foolish enough to believe the fact isn't known to every policeman, sergeant, captain, inspector and Commissioner, yet it is allowed, to go on. They are very careful not to furnish proof of this law-breaking, yet, as I said before the Fassett Committee, 'you can smell when you can't see.'

"I know of a police captain, for a Commissioner told me, who received $20,000 last year in blackmail from the saloons in his precinct.

"I can prove this if it is doubted. These moneys, so infamously gained, go to support the oligarchy that runs this city.

"I can tell you that even the judges are open to bribes, and in support of my statement I will tell you a story.

"My sexton, Mr. Osborn, brought back from Scotland a fine Scotch terrier, which was soon after stolen. He found the thief and had him arrested. The case came up before one of the justices, and the thief was held in $100.

"A few days later the Justice wanted to discharge the man, but I sent a protest against this.

"The Justice asked who it was that protested. He was told 'Dr. Crosby.' He hesitated a moment and then said after so not over his fright: 'Dr. Crosby be ——. The case is dismissed.'"

The doctor, in telling the story, imitated the Justice's manner so that, although no name was mentioned, it left no doubt in the minds of the ministers as to who the Justice was
