DISPLAYED A THIEF'S SPOILS.

Chief Inspector Byrnes gave a reception in his office at Police Headquarters this morning. Many fashionably dressed people of Brooklyn and New York attended and the affair was a pronounced success.

The occasion was the display on the part of the Chief of his jewelry and plate, and he may be pardoned for his seeming vanity, for the rare collection, which was spread out on the tables was gathered by members of the most skillful detective staff in the world.

There was more than $5,000 worth of it, and Detective Sergeant Corbett and several aides brought it in from 228 Sullivan street, where it had been collected by Thomas Hickey, the recent discharged head of Warden Brush at Sing Sing, who was captured on Saturday.

There were silver soup ladles, spirit flasks, "book marks," coffee spoons, salt cellars, garter buckles, sleeve buttons, rings, bangles, belt buckles and card receivers; golden lace pins, earrings, bracelets, scarfpins, brooches and watches, and diamond, ruby, emerald, amethyst, onyx, garnet and cameo jewelry; meerschaum pipes and cigar holders, ivory goods and bronzes.

Among the guests from Brooklyn were Mrs. Mary Van Duzer, of 78 St. Mark's avenue, who found here some property taken from her home on the night before New Year's by some visitor who entered by false keys; Mrs. Amy G. Williams, who found here goods stolen from her home, 312 Clinton avenue, in her absence, Dec. 11; Henry Penny, a clerk, of 59 Clifton place, who found jewelry stolen Dec. 15, and William H. Hitch, of 666 Halsey street, who was the victim of a bogus "gas inspector" Dec. 26.

New York was represented by Frank Moller Baldwin, of 68 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street, who identified jewelry taken from his house Dec. 27, and Charles H. Jackson, of 415 St. Nicholas avenue, who lost a lot of scarf pins and rings Dec. 4.

Richards was to-day held in $5,000 bail at Jefferson Market Court and has a fair start for Sing Sing.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

WRECK ON THE HOUSATONIC.

An Engineer's Slow Watch Causes a Collision at South Norwalk.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 13.—A switch engine coming north from Wilson Point, on the Danbury and Norwalk division of the Housatonic road, ran into the 7.35 south-bound mail train this morning in front of the depot at South Norwalk.

The tender of the mail train engine was telescoped, also the baggage car, severely injuring the baggage master, John Grimes.

About twenty Italians were riding on the tender of the switch engine and they were scattered in all directions, a number of them being bruised and cut.

The accident was caused by the watch of the engineer of the switch engine being slow.

The track is now blocked and it will take nearly all day to remove the obstructions.

NINE DROWNED IN THE SEINE.

They Disregarded Warnings That the Ice Was Unsafe.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Nine persons have been drowned in the River Seine, in the attempt to cross from shore to shore on the ice.

The people had been warned that the ice in the middle of the river was unsafe, but a crowd pressed forward rashly.

The thin shell of ice suddenly broke, and then there was a terrible scene.

But for the energetic action of the police and other life-savers many more lives would have been lost.

FLOATED THE FERRYBOAT.

The South Brooklyn, Beached at Governor's Island, Towed Into Dry Dock.

The ferryboat South Brooklyn, which was beached on the Governor's Island flats at 8 o'clock last night, having sprung a leak, was floated off at 9.49 o'clock this morning by the aid of one of the Chapman Wrecking Company's tugs.

The ferryboat was then towed down to the dry dock at the foot of Twenty-eighth street, South Brooklyn, where she will be examined to determine the extent of her injuries.

It is believed that the ferryboat ran on a portion of the recently raised Diamond Reef, which knocked a hole in her hull.

EMMA ABBOTT'S WEALTH.

The Singer Left Nearly a Million, Mainly to Benevolent Institutions.

Churches and charitable institutions benefit largely by the will of Mrs. Emma Abbott Wetherell, the prima donna, which has been probated at the Surrogate's office. The singer's estate is valued at upward of $1,000,000.

All the members of her family are liberally provided for first. Then nine churches, in various cities, which she took pleasure in attending, are given $5,000 each.

After the specific bequests are paid, several charitable institutions, chiefly for the care of orphans and foundlings in this city and Newark N. J., are made residuary legatees, along with Mrs. S. V. White and Mrs. Sarah Bird, of Brooklyn, the ladies named being requested to apply their portion to charity.

James L. Mitchell, Van Houghton and William F. Dunning are named as executors. Mrs. Wetherell directed that her body should be cremated.

TO AVENGE THE INDIAN DEAD.

A Half-Breed Says the Hostiles Will Keep Up the War.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 13.—Fred Laplant, a half-breed ranchman living near Fort Pierre, has just received a letter from an Indian relative at Pine Ridge, saying that 368 Indians, including women and children, have thus far been killed by the troops.

The letter further says that the Indians will now continue the war to the bitter end, to avenge the killing of their women and children.

Parties in yesterday from the Cherry Creek country say that the Indians there are still keeping up the wailing and lamentation over the killing of the women and children, and that the friendly Red River Indians expect an attack in the Spring.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 13.—The Nebraska State troops have been moved to the edge of the reservation. They must have suffered severely during the blizzard Sunday, as they are insufficiently clad.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—A Pine Ridge special says: There were reports yesterday afternoon that the savages would move to a point three miles from the agency and go into camp there for the night.

It was the original plan to separate the Ogallalas and Brules, but owing to their wild condition it is thought they will construe such a move as the first step to wipe them out, a bunch at a time.

Should they come into the agency, it is likely they will all be bunched around Red Cloud's house, which can be raked from four points by the three-inch rifled cannon and the machine guns.

The crisis will be reached when the savages go into camp here. Then it will take but a spark to set off the whole mass.

Artillery men were galloping through the camp late yesterday afternoon, placing their heavy guns in a more commanding position.

Everything is now so arranged that any hostile demonstration on the part of the savages will be met by a fire which will blow them further than the edges of the medicine men by thousands of miles.

Despatches from North Yakima, Wash., state that the Yakima Indians have been indulging in ghost dances for several days past, and that there are fears that the renegades of that tribe, known as the "Blanket" Indians, may join the hostiles.

They have been obtaining much whiskey of late and are becoming quarrelsome.

Piute runners have been among them, and it is said they are combining with Chief Moses's Indians from the north.

FIRE.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF MISS LAMB'S SCHOOL OF STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING.

Owing to fire Miss Lamb's School of Typewriting and Stenography has removed to 1180 Broadway, between 28th and 29th sts., fourth floor. TAKE ELEVATOR.

TYPEWRITING AND STENOGRAPHY.

Advantages offered by Miss Lamb's School.

FIRST in importance is Miss Lamb's new and simplified method of teaching stenography. Her method is greatly condensed and improved and at the same time wholly comprehensive. In simplifying it nothing of a practical nature has been omitted.

SECOND—She guarantees that pupils can acquire a practical knowledge of the art so as to report the average rate of speech—from 80 to 125 words per minute—in one-half the time and not one-half the effort required by other methods.

THIRD—THE SCHOOL IS OPEN EVERY DAY (EXCEPT SUNDAY) THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

FOURTH—Dictations are given from 9 A. M. until 9.30 P. M. Pupils may attend day or evening, and as many hours as they desire. Evening classes at reduced rates. All instruction is individual. No classes.

FIFTH—Instruction is given by mail with perfect success. The results guaranteed. A complete set of lesson sheets, which will fully prepare the student for dictation, $1.00.

SIXTH—Dictation given in any system of stenography by the hour, week or month; also in typewriting.

SEVENTH—

Typewriting Taught Free.

SPECIAL OFFER.

All pupils entering the Stenographic Department will be instructed in every branch of typewriting FREE. This includes all forms of legal, architectural, dramatic, commercial and miscellaneous work, with the finger practice. No charge is made for the use of typewriting machines or stationery. Instruction given on all kinds of machines. A typing Department being connected with the school, every advantage is afforded acquiring a thorough knowledge of practical typewriting, which is equal in all respects to extended experience.

EIGHTH—TYPEWRITER DICTATION will hereafter be made a feature of the school work.

NINTH—Pupils may pay by the month, and if for any reason they may desire to withdraw before the course is completed payment for full course is not required.

PUPILS ASSISTED TO POSITIONS FREE OF CHARGE.

Desirable boarding-places secured when desired, at lowest rates.

The corps of teachers employed are expert, practical stenographers and typewriters, selected with especial reference to their unusual ability as instructors. Every courtesy and attention will be extended by them to the students of the school.
