EX-SUPT. WHALEN IS IN LUCK.

He Gets Plenty of Business in the Contract Line.

Ex-Street Supt. Michael H. Whalen, who resigned to go into business, has found plenty of business in the contract line to do.

Mr. Whalen has entered into a partnership with Edward Holland, who has had the contract for cleaning Broadway south of Fourteenth street, and the contract has been modified by increasing the pay to the contractors for a day patrol service, instead of a night service as formerly.

Street cleaning employees are reticent as to the terms of the new contract, which is a private one made by Commissioner Beattie, but in the rate of compensation to the contractor is said to have been increased four-fold.

Whalen and Holland are also paid by the city for removing ashes and garbage from Broadway at the rate of 35 cents per load, when the average cost of carting all over the city under Commissioner Coleman was about 30 cents a load.

These things Mr. Whalen gets from Commissioner Beattie, under whom he served as Superintendent of the Barge Office, and later as Superintendent in the Street Cleaning Department.

Mr. Whalen has also served as a Dockmaster by appointment of Dock Commissioner J. Sergeant Cram.

The Dock Commissioners have given him and his partner a contract for filling in the bulkheads on the Harlem River, between One Hundred and Thirty-eighth and One Hundred and Fortieth streets, for $12,604.

The Street Cleaning Department is doing most of the filling in for Mr. Whalen, paying for it as cown which carry the material there from the East River docks and the wages of the men who unload them.

This property is adjacent to three blocks of land under water belonging to Henry A. Cram, father of the Dock Commissioner, which has already been filled in and which will be greatly increased in value, it is said, by the filling in of the bulkhead by Whalen & Co.

President Post, of the Dock Department, said to-day that his Department had been unable to make terms with the Street-Cleaning Department to fill in bulkheads and that is the reason that it has to make contracts with outsiders.

Never Troubled Angels.

[From West Shore.]

Mrs. Fangle—You used to call me your angel, Henry, but you never say so now.

Mr. Fangle—No, dear; I have found out the difference. Angels, you know, don't care anything about dresses.

Inappropriate.

[From Munsey's Weekly.]

Peddler—Madam, I have some very fine mottoes for the house.

Woman—What have you got?

Peddler—Here's a beautiful one: "If you don't see what you want ask for it." How's that for the dining room?

Woman—It's no good for me, young man. This is a boarding house."

ANTIQUITY OF PLAYING CARDS.

Introduced Into Europe During the Crusades.

The game of cards was first played in the East, and seems to have had a military origin, says the St Louis Globe-Democrat.

Cards were introduced from Asia into Europe at the time of the Crusades, and were first used by necromancers to foretell fortunes. They soon became a popular amusement in the South of Europe, where the Saracens and Moors taught the people how to use them, and card playing spread to all parts of the continent.

The state records of Germany mention the fact that Rudolph I. in 1275, was fond of the game and played with his courtiers.

After the invention of paper the manufacture of cards became extensive, but declined somewhat when card playing was forbidden by several of the German states and by the English government on account of the supposed immoral tendency.

Before the era of paper, cards in the Orient were made of ivory, papyrus and canvas, less frequently of the precious metals, and quite commonly of wood.

In Judge Brady's Honor.

Clerks and attaches of the Supreme Court held a meeting to-day and adopted resolutions in honor of the memory of the late Judge Brady.

TO PREVENT DISEASE.

The Chinese Medical System Has One Advantage Over Ours.

Chinese physicians are under contract to keep their patients well, and I am inclined to think that that is the correct principle and one which some time will be generally adopted, says Dr. J. H. Kellogg.

A doctor should be paid not for curing people when sick, but for keeping people well. He should see that the sleeping rooms of his patrons are well ventilated, that the water supply is uncontaminated, and that the general surroundings of a family are conducive to health. That would be a much higher vocation than that of following disease around just a little ahead of the undertaker.

So few people live to a ripe old age nowadays, and how dreadful death is just as we are learning how to live. When we have gathered a store of wisdom which will enable us to be something to ourselves and the world, then we have to die.

A doctor ought to be fighting death at better advantage than is possible at the time he is usually called—that is when disease is well seated. He ought to keep death at bay instead of fighting him hand to hand.

Col. McAneerney Elected Vice-President.

Col. John McAneerney was to-day elected Vice-President of the Seventh National Bank of New York, in which institution he has been a director for some time.

MR. CLEVELAND'S NEW OFFICES.

The ex-President's Law Firm Going Into the Mills Building.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland's law firm of Bangs, Tracy, Stetson and MacVeagh, is going to give up its headquarters in William street May 1.

The new offices of the firm will be in the Mills Building, in Broad street, and the rooms engaged will be much more commodious and pleasant than those which they now occupy.

They are on the seventh floor and on the south-west side of the big building overlooking the harbor and Staten Island, and will be sure to catch all the sea breezes blowing during the hot, sultry weather of the summer season.

The ex-President will have a handsome private room fitted up especially for his use, where he will have every comfort and convenience.

Besides this, he will have for his near neighbors ex-Secretary Whitney, Col. Don. Lamont, Colvin B. Huntington, Henry Villard, McKay Twombley, the hellgrams, the Wormsers, Henry Clews and a number of other representatives of the "Four Hundred," an attraction which the somewhat dingy quarters found in William street lack.

OPPOSES THE BRIDGE BILLS.

Comptroller Myers to-day sent to the Committee on Commerce and Navigation of the State Senate a long letter, protesting against the passage of Senator Birkett's bill providing for the construction of bridges over the East River.

The bridges, the construction of which the bill provides for, are intended particularly for the connection of the elevated system of this city with that of Brooklyn and allows the taking of a number of streets.

"It is the most magnificent piece of legislative impertinence I have ever had brought to my notice," said the Comptroller to-day. "It proposes to give to a corporation a franchise which has millions in it and to give practically nothing in return.

"It is proposed that not one cent of taxes be paid on the millions of capital or property which the bridge company must necessarily have."

Sealed proposals will be received by the Comptroller of the City of New York at his office until WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of March, 1891, at 2 o'clock P. M., when they will be publicly opened, for the whole or a part of any of the following registered stocks and bonds of the City of New York:

$1,250,000 DOCK BONDS OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, authorized by Section 142 of the New York City Consolidation Act of 1882 and resolutions of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.

The principal of said bonds is payable November 1, 1921, and the interest is payable semi-annually, on the first day of May and November in each year.

$139,564 CONSOLIDATED STOCK of the City of New York, known as "Schoolhouse Bonds," the principal payable on the first day of November, 1906, with interest payable semi-annually on the first day of May and November in each year.

The said stock is issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 112 of the New York City Consolidation Act of 1882 and Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1889, for the purchase of new school sites for the common schools of the City of New York, and for other purposes as therein provided.

Attention is called to the provisions of an act passed by the Legislature March 14, 1889, authorizing executors, administrators, guardians and trustees and others holding trust funds to invest such funds in the Stocks or Bonds of the City of New York.

The proposals should be inclosed in a sealed envelope, indorsed "Stocks and Bonds of the Corporation of the City of New York," and such proposal should also be inclosed in a second envelope, addressed to the Comptroller of the City of New York.
