JASPER COURIER.

☞ S. H. PARVIN, Advertising and Collecting Agent, No. 80 West Fourth St., is our agent in Cincinnati.

☞ JACOB HERMASS, Esq., is our agent for this county.

To Contributors.

As our design is to make our paper one that will be of interest to all engaged in the different departments of active industry in every part of the county, we respectfully solicit the co-operation of our intelligent citizens throughout its limits. And being especially desirous of promoting the farming interests of Dubois, items in any department of agriculture are particularly solicited. Please send us all the news, incidents, general information, and mineral discoveries in your respective neighborhoods.

Job Printing.

We are prepared to give prompt attention to all kinds of Job or Book printing. Any description of blanks, receipts, bill heads, store, stallion or jack bills can be forthcoming on the shortest notice, in the most approved style, and on reasonable terms.

GRATIS NOTICES.—We publish notices of marriages, deaths, &c., gratis, and would like to record all which occur in the county. Ministers, or others, who officiate on such occasions, will confer a favor by sending us a notice immediately.

AN OFFER.

Any person sending us five new subscribers, and the money, will receive a copy of the Courier for one year, as a present.

A LIVE PANTHER.—We are informed by Mr. John J. Morgan that on last Saturday night, as he was walking on the Winslow road, near the big pond on the Hobbs farm, he was startled by the wild cry of a panther, or something else. He hadn't time to stop (as his tracks seen in the road next morning fully indicate.) and find the origin of the noise, so we are left in doubt as to the true character of the varmint.

BOAT BUILDING.—Our fellow-citizen, Mr. Geo. Copp, has a fine flat boat on the ways at the upper landing, which will be ready to launch in a few days. We understand he intends taking a load of produce and hoop poles to the sunny South. A portion of his load is already deposited on the wharf, and is being added to daily. We wish him great success.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that as Mr. B. Haddock, was riding through the village of Alfordsville, in Daviess county, on last Saturday, he was thrown from his horse and almost instantly killed. We understand he was under the influence of liquor at the time.

☞ The rains of the past week have brought the Patoka up to a good boating stage again, and quite a brisk business is doing among the raftsmen.—Mr. Wm. Monroe run a raft out on the last rise, and we are glad to learn did very well.

Arthur's Home Magazine.

Edited by T. S. ARTHUR and VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND. For choice and elegant literature, high moral tone, peculiar adaptation to the home circles of our land, freshness, originality and cheapness, this Magazine is acknowledged, on all hands, to be without a rival. It is equal in the beauty of its typography and the richness of its embellishments to the most ambitious and dearest of our Magazines, while it claims to lead all of them in many essential features. For correctness and exquisite beauty, its colored steel fashion plates were unrivalled in 1857. They will maintain this superiority in 1858. Volume XI began in January.

TERMS—$2 a year in advance—Four copies for $5; twelve copies for $15, and one extra to the getter up of the club.

☞ Specimens sent free to all who wish to subscribe or to make up clubs. Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 103, Walnut street, Philadelphia.

DR. MANN'S

AGUE BALSAM.

Unrivalled in the History of Medicine.

This Balsam, that has been so extensively sold and met with such unrivalled success for the past five years, and brought health and happiness to many families throughout the Western Country, is the result of years of study and experiment, by the proprietors of this wonderful compound; and we are happy to state to the world that the object sought for has been gained, which is found in the numerous evidences in favor of this remedy. This Balsam is only recommended for one class of diseases, viz: those produced by malaria, and enters directly into the circulation, and thereby counteracts the poison of malaria in the system; and as a tonic it is particularly recommended. Now for a few evidences:

Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858.

Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents—Having had occasion to use some of your ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most efficient and prompt remedial agent for the certain cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal.

Your obedient servant. S. HENDRY.

Olney, Ill., Sept. 20, 1857.

Messrs S K. Mann & Co—Gents—Your ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have upon our shelves all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered.

Truly Yours, G. W. HAYNE.

Cairo, Ill., May 15, 1858.

Dr. Mann & Co., Galion, Ohio—Gents—Your ague Balsam is the peoples' own remedy, in this part of the country, for the cure of ague and fever. We have never [illegible] it to fail in any case when prop[illegible] is looked upon as a perfect a[illegible] ious diseases. Very tru[illegible]

REED & PETTIBONE.

Saint Louis, June 1st, 1858.

Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—We find the demand for Dr. Mann's ague Balsam daily increasing, and the great demand for it is a sufficient evidence of its great merit. In all places in our travels we find the universal opinion of those selling it, and more particularly those using it, to be, that it has no equal in proprietary remedies, and that it is a certain specific is a fact that cannot be disputed. Truly Yours, O. J. WOOD & Co.
