HAVE YOU GOT THE PRICE?

IT REQUIRES BUT HALF THE USUAL AMOUNT TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW IN THE PURCHASE OF A TAILOR-MADE, STYLISH SUIT OR OVERCOAT AT A. H. KING & CO.'S.

Revelling in reductions. Last 2 days of the great special sale of fine Clothing, purchased by us of the Standard Clothing Co., of Boston, Mass., through the auctioneers WILMERDING, MORRIS & MITCHELL, of 61 and 63 White st. Sale to-day and to-morrow.

The sterling merit of the goods offered and the extremely low prices are the foundation upon which we base our claims to your patronage. No reliable house was ever in a position to offer such excellent high-class clothes at such nominal prices. We purchased this great stock of Clothes for $75,000 cash, simply because they were cheap in price and of a high order in make, style and finish. We offer these goods at these very low prices until Saturday night. Don't delay. This is a regal opportunity of procuring a nobby spring Overcoat or Suit at less than half its actual worth.

Men's Imported Cassimere and Cheviot Suits, manufacturer's price $25, during this sale at $12. Men's Imported Corkscrew and Fancy Worsted Suits, manufacturer's price $35, during this sale at $15. Men's Elegant Suits, Sacks and Cutaways and Double-Breasted, manufacturer's price $35, during this sale at $15. Foreign Plaid Cape Coats, long capes, cassimere lined, manufacturer's prices $36 and $45, during this sale at $18.

Men's very fine Clay Worsted and French Twilled Prince Albert Suits at $15, worth easily $35; most of them are silk and satin lined. Elegant Black Crepe Cloth Full-Dress Suits (sea-long-tails), worth and sold for $35 to $40, now at $18 and $20. A new spring line of gray and light brown Wilscord Suits, very stylish and the latest cut, exquisitely made, at $15, worth $30. An exquisite line of French cassimere suits, new shades, in Sacks and Cutaways, expertly made and trimmed, at $18 and $15, worth double the price we ask.

A great assortment of Fine All-Wool Trousers at $1.75, worth $4.50; better ones at $2.50, worth $5 and $6. Our line of Tailor-Made Pants at $4 breaks all former records for bargains in pants.

Our spring stock of $ suits should interest every good dresser who values the saving of his money in making purchases.
