From Last Night's Sporting Extra:

THE TURF.

Pedestrian's Victory Over Toano, the "King Sprinter."

JOCKEY BUNN CENSURED.

Opening of Bennings' Track—Other Track Gossip.

Just before the third race at Guttenburg yesterday a big, awkward-gaited colt moved through the stretch in a lazy, shiftless manner, looking very much as though he would rather lie down and rest than compete in a race. Opposite the Judge's stand he stumbled and almost fell. The colt was Pedestrian, and the rail birds laughed at Eugene Leigh's presumption in sending this lazy colt in a race against the speedy Toano, who is the acknowledged King of Sprinters at the hilltop track.

The bookies acting upon the reports of their outside men laid as much as 8 to 1 against Pedestrian's chances. Well, the race was run and won by pedestrian in such an easy manner that Toano's backers nearly fell dead with surprise. Then the cry arose: "Bunn pulled Toano." This was repeated until nearly every one believed that the boy had really been guilty of wrong-doing, and that the judges had been lax in not calling up the jockey. This accusation was undoubtedly an injustice. To every close observer of the race it was apparent that Bunn tried all he could to win, but he rode in bad style. Instead of racing Toano out in front, as is generally done with him, Bunn evidently thought that Toano had a walk-over, and for the first three furlongs was content to stay with his field, keeping his mount under a double pull. Pedestrian possesses speed and gameness, and he managed to hang on until the head of the stretch was reached. Bunn then tried to cut loose with Toano, but the horse failed to respond. Pedestrian hung on with bulldog determination and finally beat Toano out on the post in handy fashion.

Bunn rode a very poor race, and his tactics in keeping Toano under a choking pull for half the journey undoubtedly beat the horse. Run the race over again, send Toano out in front, and there would be only one in it at the end. Toe plungers went down with a thump in this race. An unknown man bet Sol Lichtenstein $4,000 against $1,000 on Toano, and Mr. M. F. Dwyer sent $5,000 in the ring, but was only able to place $1,000. The latter is a lucky man, and this incident recalls to mind the day at Jerome Park last Fall when Mr. Dwyer sent $30,000 into the ring to be bet on Kingston to win $3,000. The bookies thought so well of Kingston that the money was refused. Kingston lost, Hamilton, his rider, foolishly pulling up before the real finish was reached. It was an instance of Dwyer luck.

* * *

Jimmy McCormick's bad luck still follows him. Yesterday he entered his Sensation-Ocean Queen filly in the maiden race. Sentiment, as she is called, was made the favorite. At the post she threw Tommy Flynn, ran away a mile and then in the next start got away lengths behind her field. Notwithstanding this she ran through and in the stretch looked all over a winner. Luck seemed to be in McCormick's favor until Ansonia came through on the inside just in time to make a dead heat.

* * *

One of the strange things constantly seen at the race track was the posting of 8 to 1 against Sweetbread in the second race. After this colt's defeat of such a speedy sprinter as Deer Lodge on Saturday it was queer that Duke John should be made an even money favorite over him. Sweetbread won easily, as form demanded that he should.

* * *

The Washington meeting opened yesterday with a good crowd, an excellent card and a track in first-class condition. The quality of the horses competing is above the average and the Washingtonians should see some good racing at the Bennings' track this Spring.

* * *

O. P. B. has been sold to Jockey Martin's brother. He will be taken to Canada.

* * *

The New Orleans track has been leased for the next two Winters to Charles Reich & Co., the firm which so successfully conducted the meeting at that place last ended.

* * *

Capt. S. S. Brown has lost his good opinion of Mobile, Ala., as a wintering place for horses and in future will train his string at his farm near Pittsburg, Pa.

* * *

Mike Lynch rode Stonewall in the steeplechase at Washington yesterday. Before race Lynch could be induced to see friends to pay his mount. All concerned gleefully and waited until the mournful intelligence came over the wire that Stonewall had fallen at the second jump.

As a matter of fact, to-day's market was the nearest approach to absolute stagnation witnessed for a long time.

In the first hour American Sugar declined 1½ and New England ⅝ per cent., but subsequently there was a rally right through the list on light purchases. Chicago Gas scored the greatest rise—1 per cent.

Reading was notably strong and was more active than any other stock.

The Committee on securities met to-day and recommended that there be no deliveries of securities to-morrow. The Exchange will be closed after 12 o'clock.

The Boston Stock Exchange has voted to adjourn at noon to-morrow.

The Trow Directory Printing and Book Binding Co. have declared a dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock for the quarter ended April 15, payable May 16.

Stocks were strong during the afternoon, but closed a shade off in sympathy with a decline in Rock Island to 85⅝.

National Cordage sold to within a fraction of 102.

The Gould people are soliciting Union Pacific proxies in Boston.

A special meeting of the New York & New England stockholders has been called for May 2, when the question of issuing bonds will be decided.

On and after May 2, the Gold & Stock Telegraph Company will charge $50 per month for tickers below Chambers street, $75 from that point to Fifty-ninth street, and $30 north of Fifty-ninth street.

The total sales at the New York Stock Exchange to-day were 136,000 shares of listed stocks and 95,000 ounces of silver.

AGAINST THE EXCISE BOARD.

Decision that the Old Commissioners Must Stand Trial.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALBANY, April 26.—The Court of Appeals to-day affirmed the order in the case of the People vs. Alexander Meakin et. al., Excise Commissioners of New York, appellants.

This was an appeal from the order of the General Term, reversing an order in arrest of judgment in favor of the people upon the trial of the plea of a former acquittal interposed by the defendants.

The defendants were indicted by the New York Grand Jury June 10, 1890, charged with an misdemeanor in having wilfully neglected to decide within a reasonable time the questions arising upon the complaint made before them as Commissioners of Excise by One Welling in behalf of the City Reform Club.

This means that the Excise Commissioners will have to stand trial or plead guilty to the charges contained in the indictment.

The question will, however, have to be taken to the courts to test the effect of the recent enactment in the Legislature, which is claimed to nullify the decision quoted above.

Ex-Judge Holme and Mr. Andrews were sworn in to-day by Acting Mayor J. H. V. Arnold.

THE PRESIDENT ON SILVER.

Will Do All He Can Towards Its Full Use as a Coin Metal.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The President to-day sent the following communication to the Senate: "I have received the resolution of the Senate of April 22d requesting that, if not incompatible with the public interests, I inform the Senate what steps have been taken towards the securing of an international conference to consider the question of the free coinage of silver at the mints of the nations participating in such conference, or as to the enlarged use of silver in the currency system of said countries, and that I transmit to the Senate any correspondence between the United States and other Governments upon the subject; and in response thereto beg respectfully to inform the Senate that in my opinion it would not be compatible with the public interest to lay before the Senate at this time the information requested, but that at the earliest moment after definite information can properly be given, all the facts, and any correspondence that may take place, will be submitted to Congress.

It may not be inappropriate, however, to say here that believing that the full use of silver as a coin metal upon an agreed ratio by the great commercial nations of the world would highly promote the prosperity of their people, I have not, and will not, let any favorable opportunity pass for the promotion of that most desirable result; or, if free international silver coinage is not presently attainable, then to secure the largest practicable use of that metal. HE CALLED RAUM A LIAR.

Enloe Comes Near a Fight With the Pension Commissioner.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—"You are a liar," said Representative Enloe after Commissioner Raum had denied stating to Mr. Enloe something that Mr. Enloe insisted the Commissioner had said to him, during the proceedings of the Pension Office Investigating Committee to-day, and with the utterance of these words he sprang towards the Commissioner, who was seated just across the table, to do Mr. Raum physical violence.

The outbreak came with startling suddenness, and Mr. Enloe had moved a few feet before the other members of the Committee and Mr. Cooper, who were seated around and between Mr. Enloe and the Commissioner, could spring to their feet, seize the Tennessee Representative and prevent blows being exchanged. Commissioner Raum having hastily got on his feet and prepared for an attack.

The members forcibly restrained Mr. Enloe, and there was a scene of disorder, Mr. Enloe endeavoring to break away. Commissioner Raum was excited, and exclaimed that he wanted no personal difficulty, but feared no man, which caused a renewal of Mr. Enloe's attempt to get at him.

The Commissioner in a moment picked up his hat and left the room, while his colleagues finally succeeded in partly calming the prosecutor and getting him to take his seat. After some brief expressions of regret and explanation the Committee, as the best way out of the affair, took a hasty adjournment.

No actual blows were struck.
