FEARS FOR MAY DAY.

Official Words of Assurance Do Not Reassure Paris.

Anarchists Say Explosions Will Begin Again in Two Weeks.

Attempt to Blow Up the Town Hall in Dijon Almost Succeeds.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PARIS, April 29.—The many dynamite outrages of the past few months have caused a feeling that, despite the reiterated assurances of the authorities that no trouble will occur on May Day, the 1st of May will witness rioting and bloodshed not only in Paris, but also in the various labor-employing sections throughout the country.

Though the authorities have repeatedly said that no trouble was anticipated in this city, they are nevertheless taking the most extensive precautions to repress any disorders on May Day.

In addition to the regular force stationed in Paris the garrison has been reinforced by the Third Hussars and the Ninth Dragoons. Six regiments of cavalry stationed near by the city will be held in readiness to start at once for Paris on receipt of signal.

On Sunday, in order that not a moment will be lost if their services are required, the horses of the cavalry will be kept saddled and bridled from daybreak. The men will also be equipped, and as soon as "boots and saddles" is sounded the regiments will be ready to gallop to wherever they are summoned.

After to-night all the troops will be confined in their barracks to await orders. Every man will be ready for instant service. Their arms will be piled, and each soldier will carry thirteen packets of ball cartridges.

All the public buildings and monuments will be guarded by soldiers placed at intervals, while others will be concealed to prevent their direct contact with the crowd until it is necessary.

The police made another raid upon houses occupied by Anarchists to-day, but it has not yet been made public how many men were arrested.

May Day the municipal elections will take place throughout France, except in Paris, and it is feared that the crowds in the towns where elections occur, excited by political feeling, may fall an easy prey to the Anarchist agitators.

The managers of the large English and American shops near the Grand Opera-House have received threatening letters declaring that every house that is not French will be blown up.

The Echo de Paris to-day publishes what purports to be an interview with the Anarchists who caused the explosion at M. Very's restaurant. In this interview the Anarchists are made to say that explosions will begin again in a fortnight.

Considerable excitement has been caused at Dijon, capital of the Department of Cote d'Or, by an attempt that was made to blow up the town hall. It is considered to be a remarkable state of affairs when Anarchists can approach a supposed-to-be carefully guarded public building, arrange their explosives, set the fuses on fire and then make their escape without being seen by the guards, at any part of the proceedings.

Fortunately the explosion did little damage and nobody was injured, but the people of the town say that this was in a measure due to the police.

At Fourmies, the scene last year of the rioting when the soldiers fired upon the crowd, killing many of them, May Day promises to pass off quietly. The working people propose to hold a display at the cemetery in which the victims of last year are buried, but they have postponed their demonstration until Monday, May 2.

Spanish Anarchists Issue a Manifesto and Get Into Jail.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRID, April 29.—The secret plottings of the Anarchists to make trouble on May Day in Barcelona received a severe blow to-day.

A manifesto had just been issued calling upon the workingmen to rise and wipe out capitalists and employers of all kinds.

The police were apprized of its existence, and they acted promptly. Every workingmen's club in the city was surrounded by police, and a raid was then made upon the occupants of the club-rooms. The result was the capture of a large number of Anarchists.

Among the prisoners was Vincente Lorenzo, an intimate friend of Ravachol, the Paris Anarchist and the leader of the Barcelona Anarchists.

MRS. DEACON LEAVES FRANCE.

To Avoid Being Summoned to Testify at Her Husband's Trial.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

GRASSE, April 29.—Mrs. Deacon, wife of Mr. Edward Parker Deacon, whose relations with M. Abeille led to the shooting of the latter by Mr. Deacon at the Hotel Splendide, at Cannes, has left France in order to avoid the possibility of being subpœnaed as a witness at the trial of her husband on the charge of manslaughter, which will begin on May 20.

Mr. Deacon, it will be remembered, is now at liberty on bail. The Court of Arraignment has issued a warrant for his arrest in order to compel his appearance for trial at the Assizes of the Maritime Alps on the day fixed.

In view of his present release, however, he will not be arrested, but he must surrender to the authorities five days before the day set for his trial.

FOR BLACKMAIL.

avenue saloon-keeper named Beckmann, by threatening him with arrest for selling liquor to a minor.

Hayes arrested Hunt and found the $50 in marked bills in his possession. He was taken to Jefferson Market Court, where Justice Kelly discharged him because Beckmann had been induced to withdraw his complaint.

The case aroused considerable comment at the time on account of the apparent failure of justice in the matter, although Agent Hunt was stripped of his authority by Mr. Gerry, and dismissed from the employ of the Society in disgrace. He was never prosecuted for his offense.

MR. GERRY MAINTAINS SILENCE.

Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry, President of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, was seen by an EVENING WORLD reporter as he was about leaving his residence, 8 East Forty-eighth street, to go downtown this morning, and was questioned regarding the arrest of his agents, Becker and Fitz.

"I know nothing whatever about the matter," said the Commodore.

"Has the Society ever received any complaints against these men?"

"I can say nothing at all until I see my Superintendent and learn from him what there is to this affair."

The Superintendent of the Society is E. Fellows Jenkins. He is Agent Becker's father-in-law. Becker having married his adopted daughter. The reporter called at the Society's office, 108 East Twenty-third street, and asked for Mr. Jenkins. When he learned the reporter's errand his face flushed and he haughtily exclaimed, as if talking for a third person:

"Mr. Jenkins has nothing whatever to say in regard to the matter."

"Has Commodore Gerry arrived yet?" asked the reporter.

"No, he has not, and I don't know whether he will be down to-day or not."

After consultation with Supt. Jenkins, shortly after 12 o'clock, President Gerry handed to an EVENING WORLD reporter a typewritten statement remarking: "That's all I have to say about the matter."

The statement reads:

"President Gerry said that the accused officers have been for many years in the employment of the Society, and have hitherto maintained good reputations, no complaint having ever been made against either of them.

"The Society has as yet had no opportunity to investigate the case, but intends to make a most thorough examination, and if satisfied that the officers are guilty will prosecute them to the fullest extent of the law."

MURDERER DEEMING'S TRIAL.

His Last Affianced Bride a Witness Against Him To-Day.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MELBOURNE, April 29.—The trial of Frederick Bailey Deeming, alias Williams, for the murder of his wife at Windsor, a suburb of Melbourne, was continued in the Central Criminal Court here to-day. The prisoner was silent and downcast.

The most interesting witness was Miss Kate Rounsevell, the young lady to whom Deeming, who had then assumed the name of Swanston, was engaged to be married, and who was on the point of joining him in the Southern Cross gold fields when he was arrested.

The court-room, as on every occasion when Deeming has been arraigned, was crowded.

Miss Rounsevell narrated again, as she told it at the inquest, the story of how she met Deeming on a steamer bound for Sydney, and how finally she accepted the proposal of marriage he made to her.

Miss Rounsevell declared that Deeming's manner towards her had always been courteous and kind.

A number of letters written to her by Deeming were handed to her for identification. The letters were most affectionate in tone and full of solicitude for Miss Rounsevell's health. She is called "Dear Katie" and "Dear Topsy." Deeming speaks of her as "my property now, and I expect you to be turned over to me in good condition, as I left you."

He represents himself as the Baron Swanston and in two of the letters urges the girl to join him in Australia, giving her full directions for the trip.

Mr. Hirschfeldt, who accompanied Deeming at the time he was arrested from Perth, West Australia, to Melbourne, was the next witness called. He stated that in his opinion Deeming was perfectly sane, and his testimony was in no wise shaken by the efforts of Deeming's counsel.

SHE STABBED DR. ROSNER.

He Says the Woman Who Caused His Arrest Is Jealous.

Dr. Henry Rosner, of 333 East Eighty-third street, who was arrested yesterday on complaint of his housekeeper, Miss Truesdale, for abandoning a baby on a door-step, expects to be bailed out of the Harlem jail this afternoon.

He made a statement this morning about his case. He said, among other things, that he had been engaged to marry Miss Truesdale and that she was jealous of him. She had read of a baby being abandoned, as described in her complaint, and had trumped up the charge to avenge fancied grievances.

"She had accused me of being too attentive to one of my female patients," said the doctor, "and I had ordered her to kill him.

"As a matter of fact she did stab me with a small dagger which she carried, and she might have killed me had it not been for a coat-of mine which interfered."

Dr. Rosner says that he is a member of the Hebrew Charities Organization and also of the County Medical Society.

His brother-in-law, Mr. Geist, declared that the woman Truesdale had been taken from a disorderly house by Rosner and was living with him as his mistress.

SUES FOR $50,000 DAMAGES.

Driver Patrick Leavy Blames the City for His Hurts.

Patrick Leavy has brought suit against the city for $50,000 damages. He was driving a car, on First avenue, between Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth streets, and one of the wheels slipped into a hole in the street.

He was thrown out and under his cart, the wheels passing over him. He is now in Bellevue Hospital with a compound fracture of the thigh.

Two Young Immigrants Lost.

Katie and James Collins, young immigrants from Castlerea, Roscommon, Ireland, are missing. They arrived at Ellis Island Wednesday, and, it is said, departed for Holyoke, Mass., that night to join their brother, Patrick Collins, who lives there at 330 High street. They have not reached Holyoke yet. Mrs. Kate Blythe, 171 Greenpoint avenue, Greenpoint, L. I., thinks they may be there. They are about sixteen and eighteen respectively.

Paid His Money, but Got No Job.

In the Jefferson Market Police court to-day Harold Jensen, manufacturing chemist, 261 West Thirty-sixth street, was held in $1,000 bail for trial. John Seifforth, bartender, 253 West Twentieth street, said Jensen promised to give him employment at $11 per week if Seifforth would lend him $100. The money was handed over and a receipt given, but Jensen failed to furnish the employment.

HARRISON MEN ARE BLUE.

State Convention's Hostility Imperils His Candidacy.

Barney Rourke for de Ate's Tammany Hall Leader.

President Harrison's adherents in this city protest that they are not alarmed because the Republican State Convention yesterday refused to indorse their candidate for renomination. Mr. Platt, the acknowledged controller of the party in this state, they say, is playing a shrewd, sharp game; but just what he expects to gain by it they are at a loss to tell. They are convinced, however, that the New York delegation will eventually be recorded for the President if the party demands his nomination.

But, says Mr. Platt, with significance or emphasis that cannot be misunderstood, there is no howling demand for Mr. Harrison. As soon as there is, like a good party man, he will be in line and follow the procession.

Some of Mr. Platt's own party critics, however, speak of his conduct towards the President in no uncertain terms. As distributor-in-chief of Federal patronage, they declare, he created the power he is now using against his political benefactors. Others, recalling how Warner Miller was ignored by the President, express very little sympathy for the Chief Executive of the nation.

One well-known Republican, in discussing the situation, tersely summed it up thus:

"Thomas C. Platt's alleged ingratitude to Benjamin Harrison has a parallel in Benjamin Harrison's ingratitude to Warner Miller."

Be that as it may, the consensus of opinion is that Mr. Harrison really had no chance for indorsement for renomination at the Albany Convention. The sentiment of the delegates was decidedly anti-Harrison. Senator Hiscock's timely interference in calling off the well-meaning but misguided Brooklyn contingent, headed by Naval Officer Walts, who had planned to stampede the Convention for Harrison, saved the President's beaulet from hopeless disaster. Senator Hiscock, it is said, proved himself a true friend to Mr. Harrison by preventing a resolution for an instructed delegation from being offered.

Those familiar with the sentiments of the delegates say that if such a resolution had come to a vote it would have been passed under almost unanimously. The statement is made, and from indications it does not appear extravagant, that not more than 50 out of the 777 delegates would have voted for indorsement.

If there be truth, then, in the saying that "as New York goes, so goes the nation," Mr. Harrison has no chance for renomination.

The new State Committee named by the Convention will be called together for organization by Secretary John S. Kenyon in a few days.

Mr. Platt, it is said, is satisfied with William Brookfield, and he will be continued as chairman for another year, with Assemblyman James W. Husted as chairman of the Executive Committee, Alfred C. Chaney as Treasurer and Benjamin A. Ver Ohl Clerk.

After organization the Committee will nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, providing it can find a man willing to make the race. Almost anybody could have had the nomination for the asking in the Convention, but no one wanted it.

Five of the seven judges in the First Division of the Court of Appeals are Democrats. They are Chief-Judge Earl and Judges Gray, Peckham, O'Brien and Maynard. The Republicans are Judges Andrews and Finch.

Senator Hill is in the city to-day. Many politicians called on him this forenoon, but he said his visit had no political significance.

Assemblyman Phillip Wissig is to be relieved of the Tammany leadership in the Eighth District. Barney Rourke, it is said, will attendon the Republican party and join Tammany Hall, taking the leadership of the district. If this be consummated, as so arranged that the hanging-houses will be concentrated in it, as outlined in THE EVENING WORLD some time ago.

Political Potpourri.

The Republican situation in Ohio is that Foraker demands and got two of the four delegates-at-large to Minneapolis, with Auditor Poe as an alternate. Foraker is one of the delegates and goes as a free lance. The delegation is instructed, but will support Harrison.

Missouri delegates-at-large to the Minneapolis Convention will be for Harrison. Major William H. Warner, ex-Commander of the G. A. R., is the Republican candidate for Governor.

Senator Palmer, interviewed at Washington, says he would rather carry Illinois for Cleveland than be President himself.

Alabama Republicans split into two factions, but both indorse Harrison.

NEW WESTCHESTER RAILWAYS.

Five Companies Incorporated at Albany To-Day.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

ALBANY, April 29.—Five street surface railroad companies were incorporated to-day with the Secretary of State, to operate roads from three to seven miles long, forming a system in part of the Annexed District and part of Westchester County.

Directors of each of the five companies: Howard Carroll, Thurlow Weed Barnes, George C. Claussen, James McNaughton, Frank M. Pierson, George H. Lawrence, Frank P. Stutt, William H. Jasper and Charles E. Coddington, all of New York City.

ABANDONED HER BABIES.

Four ragged, dirty little children who had been abandoned by their mother were brought to Harlem Court this morning by agents of the Children's Society. The little ones are named Beatings. They are Manfred, aged nine; Edward, seven; Ida, five, and Adolph, three. Their mother is a trapeze performer, whose stage name is Ray Wilson.

The family lived at 1095 Third avenue. The husband and father, John Beatings, is a sawyer, employed on Fifth street, N. S. Beatings has not been at home for three days. A letter was found in the rooms, written by a convict in a Boston prison, saying he should be out in a few days, and requesting her to meet him.

The children were committed to the Society's care.

NO MORE ALDERMEN.

Apportionment Law Does Not Apply to the Common Council.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Dean, who has been examining the new Apportionment law, says that while it increases the Assembly Districts from twenty-four to thirty it does not entitle the city to six additional Aldermen.

The number of Aldermen will remain twenty-five, and they will not be elected one from each Assembly District as at present, but from the districts as constituted now, so that hereafter there will be a distinction between Aldermanic and Assembly Districts.

SHOT HIMSELF IN ASTORIA.

Egner Went from His Home in This City to Try Suicide.

John Egner, of 102 West One Hundred and Third street this city, visited his sister Mrs. Casper Boos, of 142 Elm street, Astoria, yesterday afternoon.

He had been sick and despondent for some time, and while alone in a room shot himself in the abdomen with a 32-calibre revolver.

He was attended by Dr. Hirsh, who in the doctor's opinion the man had a fatal wound. Coroner Meltzer took his ante-mortem statement. Egner said he was sick and tired of living. He is 34 years of age.

Hanged Himself to a Bedpost.

Frederick Louden, thirty-five years old, a German, committed suicide at his boarding-house, 326 Greenwich street, today by hanging himself from a bedpost in his room. No motive has been assigned for the act.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Cal McCarthy and Bobby Burns to Meet May 30.

Giants Defeated by the Local Club of Buffalo.

There is a fight on the schedule that is liable to attract considerable attention. It is the meeting of Cal McCarthy, the ex-feather-weight champion, and Bobby Burns, of Providence. McCarthy has shown that he has not forgotten how to fight since his defeat by George Dixon. The easy manner in which he whipped Tommy Callaghan recently at New Orleans was a surprise to a great many people. Burns is regarded as a very clever man. Not alone as a fighter, but a matchmaker. The Providence lad will be in the city on Tuesday next to make the final arrangements for the match. The contest is to be decided before the Coney Island Athletic Club. Both men are favorable to May 30 as the day of the battle, and that date will doubtless be decided upon.

The Club has offered a purse of $2,500 for the match. McCarthy expects to go into training the last of next week. Willie Kenny, the excamateur feather-weight champion, who has been McCarthy's sparring partner of late, will train the Jerseyman. McCarthy has expressed a desire to train in Rhode Island, but his training quarters will undoubtedly be at Lakewood, N. J. Burns will train at Coney Island.

If McCarthy is successful in his fight with Burns, and he seems to think that he has a clinch, he will renew his efforts to get on a match with the winner of the Dixon-Johnson match.

The League clubs took a day off yesterday. The Giants played a game with the local club at Buffalo and were snowed under, 14 to 2. The old-time rooters are shaking their heads ominously whenever they think of the Giants. Just what the trouble is it is difficult to find out. Every one who has watched the New York team play ball this season has seen that the whole outfit lacks spirit. There does not seem to be enough pride or other incentive behind the team to spur them on.

Before the season opened it was publicly declared by the directors and manager of the Club that the men would play ball or be scratched from the salary list. The Giants cross bats with the Clevelands to-day, and an improvement is looked for in their playing. Brooklyn is moving right along on its upward journey by playing even ball.

The League schedule for to-day follows:

At Cleveland—New York vs. Cleveland.
At Louisville—Brooklyn vs. Louisville.
At Chicago—Philadelphia vs. Chicago.
At St. Louis—Boston vs. St. Louis.
At Cincinnati—Washington vs. Cincinnati.
At Pittsburg—Baltimore vs. Pittsburg.

Pete Fitzsimmons's manager, Jimmy Carroll, and John Hall's manager, "Parson" Davies, have received the almost dead negotiations for a glove fight between the antipodean, Fitzsimmons and Hall. The men managers have decided to have the fight take place either in November or December. The Olympic Club has been asked if they will give a purse of $12,000 for a match in the months cleared. If they refuse other dates specified a new club will be looked for.

The Arcadia Athletic Association has given out extensively that Frank Conley and Jimmy Larkins would battle for eight rounds at their professional boxing show at the Gymnasium, Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, to-morrow night. Both of these men say they cannot appear at the time stated. It is also rumored that Jack Quinn will not spar Jim MacNamara. Quinn is training Tommy Kelly at Lakewood.

The Committee in charge of the show claim that they will have just as good talent to carry out the programme in every case where one of the advertised stars fails to appear.

Capt. J. R. Flannery, of the New York Athletic Club's lacrosse team, says that the match between the New York and Lehigh teams to-morrow afternoon will be hotly contested.

The Titan Athletic Club will hold a boxing show at the Lyceum, Opera-House to-morrow night. The show is limited to be run under A. U. rules. Tom Lee is to be the referee. The last time Lee acted as referee for the Titan Club he received most of the punching himself. Two wars this were begun and both fell through. The Club has guaranteed protection.

THE CAYUGA FLATS FIRE.
All the Injured Are Doing Very Well To-Day.
The bodies of Mrs. William Alexander and Miss Elizabeth Jones, killed at the fire in the Cayuga Flats yesterday, have been taken charge of by relatives. The injured were reported this morning as progressing favorably.
Dr. James E. Briggs, who is at the New York Hospital, is suffering from severe burns on the face, hands and arms. His only explanation of the explosion is that already given, that it occurred while he was creating a lounge with naphtha. His burns will leave him badly disfigured.
Miss Catherine Moore is at the residence of her nephew, J. Wesley Smith, 700 West Thirteenth street. Her face and hands are completely concealed by an ointment of flour and oil. Miss Moore, who is seventy-three years of age, will probably recover.
Some improvement was noticed to-day in her condition and she related as far as she could remember the particulars of her narrow escape.
She heard the alarm of fire and rushed from her room on the third floor. Some body tried to bar her on the landing before that. It was impossible to get out, and she hastened back only to be overtaken by the smoke and flames.
A party of firemen rescued her from unenviable state. Some of her burns are deep and painful, while her arms are scorched as high as the elbows.
The others who were injured have less serious burns, and will be entirely well in a day or two.

Yesterday afternoon Auerbach called at 83 Orchard street and inquired for Mrs. Rudolph Marks. "Your husband," said he to Mrs. Marks, "sent me for a suit of clothes. He met with an accident. He is a terrible sight. He did not hurt himself, though."
The unsuspecting woman gave Auerbach a $50 suit of clothes. Subsequently she discovered her loss and caused the arrest of the thief.

IN buying real estate you should exercise more caution than in almost anything else you buy. A bad bargain will affect your children in the future, probably more than it will you during your lifetime. Buy it intelligently, as the original Astor did, and your posterity may reap a like reward. Holliswood can be seen any day on free tickets, which can be had by applying at my office, or by writing to me.
Holliswood plots from $75 upwards. Easy monthly payments.
