STORM ON THE VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE RAILROAD.

Twelve Bridges Swept Away—Miles of Road Washed off—Loss $150,000—Stages to be Placed on the Line.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 31.—The storm of the two days has greatly damaged the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad. Twelve bridges were swept away, and numerous land slides occurred. The road bed is washed up and deranged for miles. The full extent of the damage is not known, but the loss cannot be less than $150,000. Some weeks must elapse before it can be repaired sufficiently for the passage of trains, and passengers are now refusing to take other routes. Preparations are making to run a stage line along the railroad route.

SMALL FARM FOR SALE.—Intending to remove from where I now reside, I will offer for sale, privately, my little FARM, on the Brooke Turnpike, 3½ miles distant from the city, containing 17½ ACRES of highly improved land. The property is pleasantly situated for a Market Garden, having at this time a good many FRUIT TREES in full bearing.—The neighborhood is very good, and in a very short distance of two churches. The Buildings are full sufficient for the place, viz: a very good DWELLING-HOUSE with seven or eight rooms, with KITCHEN, BARN, STABLES, &c., besides a BLACKSMITH'S SHOP and SMITH HOUSE, with a good run of custom to the shop, and two wells and a spring of good water on the place. If not disposed of by the 31st of the present month, of which due notice will be given, I will on that day sell it at public auction, to the highest bidder, with all my FARMING IMPLEMENTS, consisting of Fodder, Shucks, Corn, Oats, Hay, &c., all the growing crops of Vegetables, HORSE, WAGON and CARTS, &c.; also, all my HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE. Persons disposed to purchase, will please call on me, on the place, or to Mr. J. H. BEVRIDGE, Richmond, Va.

FOR SALE, MOST VALUABLE PROPERTY IN THE COUNTY OF ELIZABETH CITY—"LITTLE SCOTLAND."—The subscriber having recently purchased a large farm in another county, with a view of devoting his entire attention to agriculture, offers for sale his valuable farm in the county of Elizabeth City, known as "Little Scotland." "Little Scotland" is most beautifully situated at the mouth of Hampton river; its health unsurpassed; the soil high and rich; scenery the most beautiful in tide-water Virginia, commanding a view of Hampton River, Old Point Comfort, the town of Hampton, and the splendid roadstead.—The town of Hampton is most rapidly extending in this direction, and the locality of "Little Scotland" presents every facility for building purposes. From the demand or building lots, the subscriber has seriously contemplated the division of his farm into lots, confident the scheme would prove most profitable. Should he not dispose of "Little Scotland" before the 1st of January next, he will then offer it in small and suitable parcels. Chesapeake College adjoins "Little Scotland" on the other side, and handsome residences connect it on the other with the rapidly growing town of Hampton.—The improvements are all new—new BARN and OUT HOUSES, a large and commodious BRICK RESIDENCE, with all the modern conveniences, one-fourth of a mile from Hampton and two from Old Point. This place offers rare inducements—all the luxuries of the salt water, health, good society, fine schools and churches. "Little Scotland" contains about 65 ACRES, excepting "Mill Point" of six acres, on which there is a new and valuable BRICK STEAM MILL, capable of grinding twenty barrels of flour, or one hundred bushels of meal per day, for all of which there is an active demand. Experience has demonstrated "Mill Point" to be an excellent location for a ship-yard, and the purchaser of the Mill could easily attach a Saw Mill and Railway. The Mill will be sold separately or with the Farm, as the purchaser may desire. Persons desirous of reserving two acres for a summer residence, upon "Mill Point," which he would not dispose of on scarcely any consideration. He would most respectfully invite all who may wish to purchase to visit the premises, as he cannot do justice to the many advantages possessed by "Little Scotland." Its inducements are many and rare either to the capitalist or to one who may desire a beautiful home, combining all that is necessary for pleasure and comfort.
The subscriber would also offer for sale, another valuable FARM, containing one hundred and fifty acres, situated opposite the town of Hampton, on Hampton river, and known as "Oakland" with most superior facilities to the best markets. The soil is highly productive. There is an active demand for everything capable of being produced on a farm. It is one fourth of a mile from Hampton, and three from Old Point.—The beauty and location of this place, the productiveness of the soil, together with its proximity to good schools and churches, render it a most desirable place.
If not sold privately before, the subscribers will offer at public auction, the Mill Property and Oakland, in Hampton, on THURSDAY, the 22d November, 1860.
TERM:—Accommodating.

LAND AND SLAVES IN THE COUNTY OF AMELIA, FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—The devisees of John H. Steger, dec'd, offer for sale privately a valuable TRACT OF LAND, lying on the Appomattox river, in the county of Amelia, five miles from Mattoax Depot, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, containing, by estimation, 1,000 acres. The land is admirably adapted to the production of Corn, Wheat and Tobacco, and the tract is regarded as one of the best in the county. If desired, it will be divided into two tracts. The neighborhood is most excellent. Possession will be delivered at once; the devisees reserving the right to cultivate and gather the growing crops, if a satisfactory arrangement cannot be made with the purchaser to take them. The purchaser of the land, if he desires them for his own use, can also purchase a large number of valuable SLAVES. The terms will be made accommodating. Apply to WILLIAM E. MEADE or JOHN S.
