Four-button cutaway frock and sack, made from Clay and English diagonals in plain colors, broken checks and the new shades of silver grays, browns and a great variety of tans, are the popular favorites this Spring.

You can find the most complete line of these goods to be found in New York at our new store,

B'way, Cor. 9th St.

which is the largest tailoring establishment on earth, consisting of five floors, 57x125.

Our other store,

Bowery, Cor. Spring St.,

is second to none (except our Broadway store), the prices being absolutely the same at both stores.

We are making a special drive this week of the above goods. Edges singly stitched, horn buttons, solid colors, matching exactly with suit, making a very neat and handsome garment, becoming any gentleman to wear.

Suits to order, with a PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED.

$20.00

The identical same material, made up with no better style, trimming or workmanship than ours, will cost from $50 to $60 elsewhere.

Samples and fashion review mailed on application.

OSWEGO'S BIG FIRE.

The Loss Estimated at Between $300,000 and $500,000.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

OSWEGO, May 21.—At 3.20 a. m. today the great fire which started in this city last night was under control.

The loss is between $300,000 and $500,000.

The only elevator left is the Northwestern, on the opposite side of the river from the others. It is owned by Gaylord, Powney & Co.

The fire practically wiped out Oswego's milling and elevator interest.

It started at 11 p. m. in the Washington Mills and elevator. It seemed to burst out over the whole upper part of the building at once, and in forty minutes the entire row of six big elevators were a roaring mass of flames that leaped half way across the river and high into the air.

MRS. HARRISON'S ILLNESS.

She Is Suffering from Nervous Exhaustion, but Is Not in Danger.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Dr. F. A. Gardner, her physician, announces that Mrs. Harrison's condition is not alarming.

She needs rest, and it will be many weeks before she is well.

Complete nervous exhaustion has followed a complication of serious ailments, chief of which were grip, bronchial, pneumonia and malarial fever.

The social duties of the White House overtaxed her constitution.

NEW ELLIS ISLAND REPORT.

Inspector Cluss Found No Evidence of Structural Weakness.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Inspector Cluss, who was sent to Ellis Island, New York harbor, to examine the immigrant station, has reported to Secretary Foster that he made a careful and thorough examination of the building and found a few minor defects and no evidence whatever of any structural weakness.

As indicative of the character of the defects in the construction of the building, he said that the most serious one discovered can be fully repaired at an expense of $4,500.

Secretary Foster will transmit a copy of this report to-morrow to Speaker and Representative Springer, chairman of the joint committee investigating the Ellis Island improvements as a refutation of their statement that the building is in danger of falling down.

SNUG HARBOR BILL SIGNED

The Measure Said to Preserve the 800 Votes of the Inmates.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ALBANY, May 21.—Gov. Flower has signed Assemblyman Yetman's bill providing that the Sailors' Snug Harbor on Staten Island shall pay taxes.

The opponents of the bill having left town yesterday, District-Attorney Fitzgerald, of Richmond County, and Nicholas Muller, jr., called on the Governor at 9 o'clock this morning, and after further arguments the Governor consented to sign the bill.

If this bill had not been signed and the institution had been exempted from taxation its advocates say it would have resulted in a loss of the votes of the inmates, numbering over eight hundred.

CHARGED WITH POISONING.

Jealous Camella Camarbella Accused of Maria Pace's Death.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MAMARONECK, N. Y., May 21.—The investigation which Coroner Maxwell has been making in regard to the death of Mrs. Maria Pace, wife of an Italian boarding-house keeper in this place, last night, resulted in the arrest of an Italian woman named Camella Camarbella, the alleged paramour of the dead woman's husband.

FELL DEAD IN CHURCH.

Carmina Santiano Was Attending Funeral Services There.

Carmina Santianoa, a young Italian woman, fell dead this morning in the Roman Catholic Church of the Resurrection, on Roosevelt street, near Madison street.

Rev. Father A. Vincentini is pastor of the church which is resorted to almost exclusively by Italians.

This morning an Italian funeral was being held there and Rosa Santiano attended the services. She was twenty-three years of age and lived at 70 Mulberry street. It was her friend, Mrs. Nicardo, of a Roosevelt street, whose funeral was being held.

Miss Santiano fell dead as soon as the organ began to play the requiem. She had grieved for Mrs. Nicardo and had felt sick for several days.

MYSTERY OF A PRETTY GIRL.

Ladies Ask the Police About Their Missing Young Sister.

Chief Inspector Storrs told an EVENING WORLD reporter this morning that the visit of three fashionably dressed women at Police Headquarters yesterday had nothing to do with an elopement, as had been rumored.

"One of the ladies thought," said he, "that the police might know the whereabouts of her sixteen-year-old sister, who had gone away—presumably to Europe—with another sister and the latter's husband. The lady did not give any names.

"She said further that the girl went away of her own free will."

One of the women said the girl was very pretty and looked to be nineteen years old.

HER POCKET PICKED IN CHURCH.

Miss Robinson Accused Miss Mary Ryan, Who Ran Away.

Mary Ryan, thirty-four years old, of 34 Gold street, Brooklyn, was arrested this morning, charged with having picked one Mary Robinson's pocket during services at the Church of the Assumption, York and Jay streets, yesterday morning. Miss Robinson says that Mary Ryan took a pocketbook containing $5.85. She followed her out of church and demanded the return of her property. Miss Ryan ran away. The pocketbook was found on the sidewalk.

PARIS ANARCHISTS AGAIN.

Meant to Blow Up the House of Ravachol's Prosecutor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, May 21.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned here by the discovery of a dynamite cartridge at the residence, in the Avenue Kleber, of M. Beaupaire, the Public Prosecutor, who had charge of the case against the notorious Anarchist and criminal Ravachol.

M. Beaupaire was about the only person connected with the prosecution of the fiend Ravachol who did not display any fear of what the consequences of his action might be.

Yale-Princeton Game Postponed.
