Richmond Dispatch.

SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 2, 1875.

General Wheeler.

There appeared in yesterday morning's Dispatch a short sketch, which originated in the Cincinnati Inquirer, giving some account of an individual professing to be General Wheeler, of the late Confederate army.

Mrs. Whitson, of Tennessee, at present in this city—a lady of literary inclinations, who is author of a book on the war—knowing the General Wheeler for whom it is supposed the individual described in the Inquirer meant to pass himself off, has written the following letter, completely contradicting the Cincinnati story so far as General Wheeler is concerned:

RICHMOND, VA., October 1, 1875.

I take great pleasure in correcting a little article going the rounds of newspapers which does great injustice to a gallant ex-Confederate officer. The tall, haggard-looking tramp who claimed to be General Wheeler was mistaken in the name. Our General Wheeler was General Jo. Wheeler, a dashing cavalry officer, and, I think, by birth a Georgian. I have seen him often during the time Bragg was at Murfreesboro'. And General Jo. Wheeler was a small man, of low stature, and something over thirty years old, possibly. To-day he cannot be more than forty-five years of age, if he is that. He married since the war a Virginia wealthy lady, and now lives near Decatur, Alabama, and was never given to dissipation that we ever heard of.

I am glad to be able to correct this report about one of the gallant cavaliers of our lost cause.

MRS. L. D. WHITSON, of Murfreesboro', Tenn.

THE CLOVER HILL RAILROAD COMPANY will continue to furnish COAL to consumers, through coal-dealers, at the following low prices:

Lump Coal, load 1,750 pounds, at.....	$4 75
Lump Coal, short ton, 2,000 pounds, at..	5 40
Lump Coal, long ton, 2 240 pounds, at...	6 00
Nail Coal, load 1,750 pounds, at.....	4 25
Nail Coal, short ton, 2,000 pounds, at....	4 80
Nail Coal, long ton, 2,240 pounds, at.....	5 40

during the month of September; after which time the price will be advanced twenty-five cents per load or ton.

In offering our coal this season we respectfully invite attention to the fact that in purchasing CLOVER HILL COAL the consumer gets 1,750 POUNDS OF COAL AS A CART LOAD. In purchasing West Virginia lump he gets only 1,550 to 1,660 pounds, whilst it is believed that a pound of Clover Hill coal will afford as much heat and last longer than the same quantity of West Virginia coal. The Clover Hill coal is there fore the most economical.

All coal is sold by weight, so that there can be no mistakes as to the quantity delivered.

COKE—$5 PER LOAD.—I am selling one boat-load of LUMP COKE at $5 per cart-load because I fear there may be lumps among it that will pop, but will endeavor to pick out any such. I have an abundance of No. 1 COKE, and also keep every kind of fuel. Persons wishing to lay in supplies for winter please give me a call.
