Stock Market as seen by Bulls & Bears

Reported by H. B. Lake & Co.

New York, Aug. 19.—Stock market today presented a much improved appearance and the list generally advanced in some instances rather sharply. The overnight news from abroad relative to the Polish situation and the reports disclosed during the day were suggestive of a much improved state of affairs in that territory. Naturally this promoted a more confident feeling and was best reflected in the increased demand for stocks. Call money renewed activity today, and rose two to three cents.

The particular feature that stood out in today's dealings was the ease with which prices advanced on a moderate amount of buying. Offerings in practically all departments were very meager and this seems to strongly suggest that the market is in a rather well sold-out condition and will probably be found to be super-sensative to buying induced by constructive occurrences. There has been a large amount of odd-lot buying mainly for investment account of late and the taking of these stocks out of the market places it in an apparently digested condition.

New York Market

FINANCIAL.

New York, Aug. 19.—Sentiment among the professional element on the stock exchange today was more cheerful, the market evincing a distinct inclination to throw off its protracted spell of depression.

The better feeling was not, however, affected by any pronounced accessation of business. Dealings were moderate except in the final hour, when prices were highest, but representative shares, notably standard rails, figured to an unusual extent in the day's operations.

Improvement was popularly attributed by more encouraging aspects of the eastern European situation. The trend in that quarter, however was largely offset by fresh weakness in foreign exchange. British bills were almost 10 cents under last week's highest quotations and concurrent heaviness was shown by remittances to France, Italy, Germany and Scandinavian points.

In the money market conditions affecting time and demand loans were not materially altered. Interior banks offered moderate sums for 30 and 60 days and were buyers of commercial ppaer. Contrary to its course of the two preceding days, call money held throughout at the opening rate of seven per cent.

Outstanding features of the stock market comprised the motors, oils, steel and equipments. The first two named displayed special strength at the close. Among the few consistently weak stocks were the sugar issues. Total sales amounted to 325,000 shares.

Heaviness of Liberty 3½'s and several prominent industrial issues, such as United States Rubber, and American Smelting, contributed to an irregular bond market with sales (par value) aggregated, $10,150,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Chicago Market

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—All grains and provisions suffered a slump here today, corn leading the downward march, although wheat started out higher. The action of corn, led by the September delivery, quickly changed the trend of the markets and all closed near the low point of the day. Wheat was off 1¾ to 2½ cents with December $2.37 and March $2.30. Corn showed a net loss of ⅝ to 4⅝ cents and oats were ⅝ to 1 cent below yesterday's finish, while provisions ranged from 22½ to 60 cents lower.

Although exporters were said to have bought 560,000 bushels of wheat yesterday there was no fresh export business reported during the day. However, the houses with seaboard connections were good buyers of future deliveries, presumably with a view of exchanging them for cash grain to fill old sales abroad.

Corn was under pressure throughout the day and although there was a slight rally about midsession, a reaction set in and the market declined sharply, closing near the lowest point of the day, with September leading the van.

Oats were dull and lower with corn but there was a good class of buying on the break.

Liquidation was on in provisions and prices declined rapidly, with packers the best buyers on the break. At the finish the market showed a net loss of 22½ to 60 cents, with hogs steady to 10 cents lower.

PARK IS PLANNED WHERE WASHINGTON CROSSED DELAWARE

Local Commission Will Restore Old Ferry House and Tavern There.

Philadelphia—The old ferry house and tavern at Washington Crossing, Pa., is being restored and adapted as a central building for park purposes.

All the properties on the Delaware river bank east of the river road as far as the upper end of the island, behind which boats were secreted, ready for the embarkation of George Washington's troops for the attack on Trenton, have been bought by the Washington Crossing Park commission.

This covers a river frontage of over 1,500 feet and includes the point of embarkation and the old ferry road leading to it. The commission also has purchased the island and about 60 acres to the west of River road which includes the ridge behind which the centinental troops were massed and drilled that eventful Christmas day before the battle of Trenton.

The commission has laid out a general scheme covering the territory in which Washington's troops were quartered after having been driven across New Jersey and over the Delaware river on December 8, at Morrisville This included the base of supplies and New Hope ferry, the uppermost ferry guarded to keep the British from crossing.

It covers the headquarters houses of Washington and 11 of his generals. At the graves of the soldiers who died it is proposed to errect monuments. Eventually the National government will be asked to build a memorial bridge over the Delaware at the point where Washington made his never-to-be-forgotten journey across the swollen Delaware amid ice floes and dangers from an unseen foe.

NAVAL DEVELOPMENT FOR PACIFIC COAST, ROOSEVELT PROMISE

Democrats Will Give Greater Shipping Facilities When Elected, Candidate Says.

Missoula, Aug. 19.—Greater naval development on the Pacific coast was promised by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic nominee for vice president, in a rear platform speech he made here Thursday enroute from Helena to Spokane.

"Facilities at present available are not nearly large enough to care for even half the freight business on the Pacific coast," he declared.

Mr. Roosevelt declared that it was "extraordinary" that "in traveling the past 10 days in seven states, we have yet to find the first Democrat who is to vote for Harding, while literally hundreds of progressive Republicans have told us they will vote for Cox."

He predicted a Democratic landslide next November, "with a bigger majority than ever before" on the strength of ratification of the federal suffrage amendment. He said he and Governor Cox are "working on the theory that it is up to us to get out around the country and not sit on our front porches."
