SECURE A HOME IN THE LAND OF FLOWDS

DINSMORE!

One of the growing towns of the South, is situated on both sides of Savannah, Florida & Western Railroad, just twelve miles from Jacksonville, Fla. It is high, dry and level, and a successful horticultural and truck-growing section of the State. Dinsmore can be easily reached from Jacksonville by railroad, by water route, or by an hour and a half drive over an excellent plank and shell road.

Dinsmore is not one of the mooted spots that is only laid out on paper, but a thriving prosperous town that recommends itself to capitalist and laborer, to fathers and wives who are vigilant over their own interests and the welfare of their children, to those who are seeking homes and those who have capital to invest for speculation.

The land can be obtained at remarkably low figures and on terms suitable to the condition of every purchaser. At the present low figures a poor man can make regular payments on a valuable home with less than the aggregate of unnecessary expense or money actually thrown away. It is an investment that one cannot regret and through which you will realize many times the amount invested. The prices are for Front Business Lots one acre, $65, $50, $35. Second choice, $25 $18. Third choice $15. Fourth choice $10. Fifth choice, $5. It must be remembered that these are acre lots.

We also have vegetable and truck farms laid out adjacent to Dinsmore, containing from five to sixteen acres each, which we offer for the benefit of those who wish to farm at $5 acre.

Our terms are one fourth cash and balance in one, two and three years.

The chain of title will be short and strong. It is from the State of Florida to the Railroad and from the Railroad to you.

Truck farming around Dinsmore would be at the door of two of the greatest markets in the South. Let every poor man if with but one dollar, commence to buy a lot in Dinsmore. The fare from Jacksonville and return is only twenty-five cents. Think of it. There are eight passenger trains per day and the round trip will only cost twenty-five cents. Trout creek, a large stream passes right through the vicinity, thus affording pure fresh water for stock, perfect drainage and abundance of fish.

TAKE WARNING NOW, and do not let this grand opportunity slip you. It is the very best chance you will have to secure a good piece of valuable property and such startling prices.

The merchants in Dinsmore are enjoying a good trade and the town is rapidly growing. Saw mills are convenient for securing timber to build, and laborers who desire work can get from a dollar and a half to two dollars per day.

For further information or plats and how to see Dinsmore, call on

THE GREAT Illustrated Colored Newspaper.

THE FREEMAN.

WHAT IT CONTAINS, HOW TO GET IT.

The Freeman, the great and only Illustrated Colored Newspaper published, certainly fills a long felt want in Negro Journalism. The colored people have long needed just such a champion—a pictorial newspaper—one which will "paint them as they are" and not caricature them as is too often done by the white press. The Freeman portrays the Negro as he is—giving each week the portraits and sketches of the representative men and women of the race. Its cartoons and other illustrations are pertinent and neatly drawn. It is printed on fine tinted book paper and is sold at the very low price of 5c. per copy, 75c. for three months, $1.35 for six mos. and $2.40 for one year. Ladies as well as gentlemen, boys as well as girls can make money by handling The Freeman. Send 25c. for TERMS and INSTRUCTIONS, send 10c. (in stamps) for sample copies.

Address all matter to,

63. Julia and Her Romeo. By David Christie Murray. This author has "Julia and Her Romeo" ready to be held to the last in the end of the story.

64. The Lady of Lyons. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. This is the lady as seen in the celebrated play of the same name. It ranks as the prettiest picture of devotion and sincerest expression of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage.

65. The Cricket on the Hearth. By Charles Dickens. One of the sweetest and tenderest things ever written by Dickens. All love it for its beauty and pathos, and it will be preserved and read long after some of his most imaginative works have been forgotten.

66. Stabbed in the Dark. By E. Lynn Lytton. A strong, stirring story of the old Neapolitan days, by an author who invents ingenious plots and handles intricate situations like a master. Part I. 65. Part II.

67. Calderon the Courtier. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. One of the best of the great author's historic stories. Full of graphic situations, quick action, and rare information.

68. She; or Adventures in the Caves of Kor. By H. Rider Haggard. This unique and popular story is a new departure in the field of fiction. Its production has carried the author into fame as a writer and artist. The vigor and variety of the book make it especially charming; its narrative imparts a pleasant thrill as it glides through wonderful scenes and startling events. Part I. 66. Part II. 67. Part III. 68. Part IV. of above.

69. Bulldog and Butterfly. By David Christie Murray. A spicily told story of human character, yet not a bit overdrawn. Bulldogs and Butterflies are all around us.

70. The Coming Race, or New Utopia. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. A thrilling history of life among an ideal people found in the centre of the earth, where the beauties are Arcadian, the form perfect, the thought pure and motive free. A charming book; light, cheerful. Part I. 71. Part II of above.

72. Duty Unto Death, or Life and Work of Rev. George C. Haddock, Apostle of Prohibition in the Northwest. By his brother, John A. Haddock. The murder of this great pulpit and platform orator and eloquent temperance champion sent a thrill of horror through the Northwest and entire country. The work is an ably written review of the man and his career, and contains a graphic account of his assassination. Part I. 72. Part II of above.

74. The Trial of Pickwick. By Charles Dickens. This is the first time the entire story of the gallant Pickwick's adventures with the impressionable Mrs. Bardell has appeared in connected form. It abounds in ludicrous situations and mirth-provoking incidents.

75. Allan Quatermain; the latest and best novel from the pen of the popular H. Rider Haggard. In this story of African adventure, the author surpasses the glowing descriptive vigor, startling situation and thrilling activity that made "She" such a revelation in fiction. No more exciting romance has ever come to the surface in English literature and it must share the popularity of all his other works. Part I. 74. Part II. 75. Part III. 76. Part IV of above.

77. The Knightsbridge Mystery. By Charles Reade. One of those ingeniously devised and thrillingly told stories which immortalized Reade. The plot is a work of art. Concealment is the artist's game, till after breaking through a forest of mysteries, the fearful shock bursts on the reader like an Alpine avalanche or ocean water-spout.
