POISON IN HER WHISKEY.

Mrs. Johnson's Husband Held to Explain How It Got There.

Rebecca Johnson, colored, was complainant in Jefferson Market Court to-day against her second husband, George A. Johnson, of 350 West Thirty-ninth street. She charged that he tried to poison her, and Justice Grady held him in $1,000 for examination.

Mrs. Johnson usually kept a bottle of whiskey in a closet. Yesterday she went to the closet for a nip, when, she says, she discovered that Mr. Johnson had doctored the whiskey with poison. When she attempted to take the substant it burned her mouth, tongue and lips.

Mrs. Johnson repaired to a drug store and asked the druggist what was in the bottle. He advised her to take the bottle to the police, and she hurried to the West Thirty-seventh street station-house. Detectives Busely and Smith took the bottle in turn to Police Surgeon Nesbitt, who stated that there was poison enough in the mixture to kill three people.

A THIEF IN HER PARLOR.

Mrs. Sharkey Robbed of Valuable Diamonds and a Purse.

Detectives of the Bergen street station, Brooklyn, are to-day looking for a thief who stole $250 worth of diamonds from the apartments of John Sharkey, 260 St. James place.

Mr. Sharkey lives in the fifth flat. Mrs. Sharkey was in the dining-room yesterday afternoon, when she heard a disturbance in the parlor. Looking in, she saw the thief rummaging in a bureau-drawer. He saw her at the same time and ran away. Mrs. Sharkey discovered later that in addition to the diamonds her lost a purse containing $17. She is unable to give a description of the robber, and could not identify the man if he was captured.

M'COMB'S DAM BRIDGE.

Contract Awarded for a Temporary Structure to Cost $12,000.

The Park Board to-day opened bids for the construction of a temporary bridge just north of the McComb's Dam bridge, now being rebuilt. There were estimates from four firms, ranging from $12,000 to $27,070. The contract was awarded to the lowest bidder, Thomas A. Walsh, 114 Wall street.

Bids were also opened for the footwalk over the Northern Railroad bridge, one for $4,887, and another for $4,600.

DESPONDENT AND SHOT HERSELF

A Jersey City Woman Cures Earthly Ills with a Pistol-Shot.

Margaret Shumlieth, a German, twenty-seven years of age, committed suicide at her home, 65 South street, Jersey City Heights, shortly after noon to-day. She had been despondent for some time, and this is supposed to have led to her action. She fired a pistol, and death occurred instantly.

SERGT. CULLEN MADE CAPTAIN.

He Is the Commander of the New Brooklyn Precinct.

Five Candidates for the Sergeantcy Which Becomes Vacant.

Police Commissioner Hayden, of Brooklyn, to-day promoted Sergt. Thomas Cullen to the vacant captaincy, and assigned him to the command of the new Twenty-second Precinct.

CAPT. THOMAS CULLEN.

Cullen stood at the head of the eligible list, and received over 90 per cent. in a competitive examination among over thirty candidates. The new station is not quite ready to be occupied, and while the finishing touches are being put upon it Capt. Cullen will get things in shape.

Commissioner Hayden transferred Sergt. Humphreys, of the Twelfth Precinct, to the command of the License Squad, in the place made vacant by the promotion of Capt. Cullen.

Capt. Cullen is a great favorite among his fellow-officers. He was made patrolman Dec. 28, 1870, and was sent to the Third Precinct. July 7, 1881, he was made roundsman, and June 16, 1882, he was promoted to be sergeant. He was made Commanding Sergeant of the License squad Feb. 13, 1891. In politics he is a Democrat, and belongs to the Union Democratic Club of the Sixth Ward.

Commissioner Hayden intends to promote several roundsmen to be sergeants. The men will probably be officially notified to-morrow. The lucky ones are W. T. Downey, of the Ninth Precinct; T. M. Hughes, of the Eighteenth; John L. Zimmerman, of the Sixteenth; Peter Kornman, of the Seventh, and William A. White, of the Nineteenth.

BROOKLYN'S LEGAL GRIST.

Judge Bartlett Denies Mrs. Ramsey's Application for Alimony.

Judge Bartlett in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning denied the motion made by Annie E. Ramsey through her counsel, James McClelland, for alimony and counsel fees pending a suit brought against Mrs. Ramsey by her husband, David H. Ramsey, for absolute divorce. It will be remembered that Ramsey recently received a verdict of $2,000 from George D. Ryerson, postmaster of Ramseys, N. J., for alienating his wife's affections. The motion was originally made for alimony last week. On the request of counsellor McClelland the case was postponed until this morning to give him a chance to examine certain papers that were then presented. Mr. McClelland failed to appear this morning. On the request of Counsellor George Elliott for the defense the motion for alimony was denied.

NO MANDAMUS FOR THE BOARD OF ESTIMATE.

In the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning Judge Bartlett denied the motion of Roswell W. Keane to mandamus the Board of Estimate of Kings County compelling them to place again upon the county budget $25,000 for the erection of a bridge over Newtown Creek. It had been held by Counsellor Keane could not draw that the Supervisors of Kings County had by resolution appropriated money for building the bridge.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS' ADDRESS.

Workingwomen Urged to Aid in the Campaign for Protection.

Colored Delegates Issue a Call for an Afro-American Convention.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ROCHESTER, June 29.—In the Convention of the State League of Republican Clubs this morning Charles A. Hess, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented resolutions congratulating the lovers of good government "on the bright prospects of a continuation of the National administration as now conducted by President Harrison."

Also congratulating the citizens of this State "on an aroused public sentiment, which assures the people of a speedy return to a fair and honest administration of public affairs in this commonwealth."

On the Republican National Platform, the resolutions say:

It is expressed in plain terms and honestly represents the sentiments of the party and that it may of its principles regard "The Republican policy of protection as a trust," opportunity is now afforded them under the platform of the Democratic party, to reverse by their votes the record of three years of unexampled growth, public credit, respect for our flag abroad and prosperity throughout the land.

The following declarations are also made:

Recognizing as we do the fact that a large number of women are employed in the factories of this country, which are shielded by a protective tariff from ruinous competition, and recognizing the great influence which women exert upon moral and political questions, therefore be it

Resolved, That we urge the hearty co-operation of all women in the great conflict in which we are now engaged for the protection of our homes and firesides, and to this end we invite their assistance.

The resolutions hold that the organization of the New York "Senate with a Democratic majority was an outrage against the people, having no parallel in the political history of this or any constitutional government in the world." Also, it is asserted:

That the action of the Democratic majority in the late Democratic Assembly and Senate, by which a census and apportionment bill were passed, and by which congressmen under those statutes by which a census was taken and a pretended apportionment made, were irregular, corrupt, unconstitutional and in violation of law.

By them the right of representation guaranteed by the Constitution of the State has been violated and entirely set aside. By them counties of the State confessedly containing Republican majorities have been robbed of their due number of representatives and the stolen representation added to counties admittedly Democratic.

The census returns were tampered with and altered to make the census report to the legislature meet the plans of the Democratic majority.

All this has been done, and is almost a matter of common history, without one word of protest from any Democrat in any assembly or convention of the Democratic party in the State, although the methods by which such outrages were accomplished have been denounced as infamous and criminal by a committee composed largely of distinguished Democratic lawyers, acting in quasi judicial capacity to investigate the same.

The resolutions conclude with the indorsement of and promise to elect the Republican National candidates.

The colored delegates to the Convention this morning issued a call for an Afro-American Convention, "for the purpose of effecting a thorough and efficient organization of the Afro-American Republicans of the Empire State wherever found, and thereby prevent the apathy which characterized the campaign of last year and which contributed so largely to the crushing defeat that we then sustained at the hands of the common enemy."

The Convention is to be held in the city of Brooklyn on the 18th and 19th of August, and the basis of representation will be five delegates for each regularly organized club throughout the State.

The call says:

Our afflicted brothers in the South must have our warmest sympathy, and it must be our sacred duty to assist State and Federal Government the enforcement of such laws as will secure to all American citizens "the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." We do earnestly submit that life is a common heritage, and that out of one blood God created all the nations of the earth.

Negro domination, the perversion of intelligent will, the wasteful expenditure of common resource nor extravagant expenditure of the fruits of the nation's best endeavor are none of our vision. Our desire speaks for the genius the hopes and the prayers of those who made the Republic.

After the platform had been read T. Thomas Fortune, the colored delegate of New York, started to speak. A Niagara County man arose and shouted: "That man speaks more than any other three men in the convention. He is on his feet all the time."

Mr. Fortune, after the interruption, said the delegates should bear in mind that there are 200,000 colored voters who could be swung into the Democratic party. What he wanted was that the sentiment of the Republican party should be kept up to the spirit of the platform. "While the protective tariff is all right," he said, "still we have feelings for our persecuted brothers."

Mr. Hess called called vigorously for a vote on the platform, which was then adopted without opposition.

J. St. E. O'Grady, of Rochester, presented the report of the Committee on League Work.

A statement that the day of the political striker is over was the portion of the report which caused most enthusiasm.

John F. Laborde, of New York, argued that a German Republican paper should be established in New York.

The banner for the largest increase in membership during the year was awarded the cities Falls and Queensbury Republican clubs.

Col. E. A. McAlpin, of New York, was re-elected President by acclamation amid great enthusiasm, the band playing and the delegates standing on chairs and cheering. Mr. McAlpin returned thanks in a graceful speech.

John N. Scatchard, of Buffalo, was elected First Vice-President by acclamation. Henry Brewster, of Rochester, was unanimously chosen second Vice-President. For Third Vice-President George E. Greene, of Binghamton, was chosen.

Secretary Jon Hedges was re-elected.

The announcement that John W. Foster had been appointed by the President as Secretary of State was met with hearty cheers.

Thomas E. Wentworth, of New York, was chosen as a delegate-at-large to the convention of the National Republican League in 1893. Col. Archie Baxter, of Elmira, was second delegate.

There was a contest between Albany and Utica for the next Convention, in which Utica won. The Convention then adjourned sine die.

NINTH REGIMENT BOYS ANGRY.

They Parade the State Camp With an Effigy of the Colchester's Pilot.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

STATE CAMP, PEEKSKILL, N. Y., June 29.—This morning dawned cool and cloudy, and the soldier boys went about their duties in a more spirited way than any day since coming to camp. The officer of the day was James W. Lester, and the officers of the guards, Lieut. Newfield and Lieut. R. S. Poole.

Some of the Ninth's men last night rigged up a dummy corpse on a stretcher and surrounded it with lights. They then started through the company street, singing "We'll hang that pilot on a sour apple tree," to the tune of John Brown's body. The incident caused lots of fun and served to show the better feeling which the members of the Ninth entertain against the officers of the Colchester.

WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.

Disappointment Over the Richmond Terminal Fiasco.

Reading Boomed a Trifle by the Increase in Coal Prices.

Few Changes of Importance in Other Stocks on the List.

WALL STREET, WEDNESDAY, June 29.—The affairs of the Richmond Terminal Company were much discussed again to-day. The letter of Drexel, Morgan & Co., printed in full by THE EVENING WORLD yesterday, declining to undertaking the work of reorganizing the property because of opposition from certain interests occasioned no little disappointment.

Whether a compromise will be reached remains to be seen. In the mean time, receiverships are in order and matters are much complicated. It is now reported that applications have been made for receivers for the Memphis & Charleston and Mobile & Birmingham companies.

Prices declined fractionally to-day in the early dealings, but subsequently rallied. The Vanderbilts were strong for Lake Shore and Central on the declaration of an extra dividend by the former. The dealings in both stocks, however, were small. The statement of the Reading system is regarded as favorable, but it failed to stimulate business.

There was renewed weakness in Texas Pacific securities on the heavy decrease in the earnings of this road for some time. The 1s's dropped 1¾ to 78¾, and the 2nds sold at 26¾, the lowest yet.

The advance in the prices of anthracite coal, 15 to 35 cents a ton, gave a little "flip" to speculation this afternoon. Some round amounts of Reading were taken up to 60¾, and the rest of the list followed suit. Chicago Gas was a weak spot and sold below 81.

Burlington & Quincy was a shade firmer after the May statement was given out. The decrease in net was smaller than anticipated, the bears having recently circulated rumors of a probable loss of $300,000 to $400,000.

At public auction to-day 1s shares of New York & Middle Coal Field Rr. and Coal Co. sold at 25, 4 Shares Locust Mountain Coal & Iron Co., of Pa., at 52, 20 shares Celluloid Co. at 95 a 95¾, 10 shares Stuyvesant Safe Deposit Co. at 94, 5 shares National City Bank at 474¾, 20 American Exchange National at 157½, 1 United States Trust Co. at 910, 2 shares New York Life Insurance & Trust Co. at 705, 100 shares New York Equitable Gas-light Co. at 153¾, 22 shares National Park Bank at 320, $6,000 United States Book Co. 6 per cent. bonds at 70, 10 shares preferred stock at 20, 10 shares Lawyers Title Insurance Co. at 152 and 11 shares Iron Steamboat Co. at 16.

Judge Bond has authorized the issue of $1,000,000 Richmond & Danville receiver's certificates, to be sold at not less than par, as may be necessary for the payment of vouchers for supplies furnished the road since the appointment of the receivers, in order to straighten out the affairs of the Company and allow the net receipts from earnings to be in future applied to the settlement of interest obligations. The amount of these back supply vouchers is, in round figures, about $570,000, and the receivers hold that for a line of railroad of 3,600 miles in length this is comparatively light.

The May statement of the Burlington & Quincy shows gross earning of $2,822,675, an increase of $204,268, and deficit of $36,117 against a surplus of $236,052 in 1891. For the five months ended May 31, 1892, the surplus was $608,233, an increase of $215,626.

Sterling exchange was steady to firm at 4.87 a 4.87¼ for cankers 60-day bills, 4.88 a 4.88¼ for demand and 4.88½ a 4.88¾ for cables. The rate in London for German gold last week was equivalent to 76 shillings 5½ pence; to-day it was reduced to 76 shillings 4½ pence. This will probably stop gold exports from New York to Germany.
