Drunken Lumbermen's Murderous Deeds With Axes.

General Husted of New York State, Expires at Home.

Fight With Smugglers—General Pope's Remains Sent to St. Louis—An Arkansas Cashier Skips With the Assets.

By the Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Edmund Johnson has been removed from the United States consulate at Kehl, Germany, for false representations and fraudulent practices as consul. Johnson was first appointed in 1872, and was once removed, but afterwards re-entered the service, and maintained his position upon the representation that he had been wounded in various battles of the war, and that his health was thereby impaired. Recent charges of fraudulent accounts, which were substantiated, led to an investigation of his military service, which showed that he did not participate in the battles alleged, and that his claim as to wounds was entirely unfounded.

GEN. HUSTED'S DEATH.

A Prominent Republican Politician of New York Expires.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Gen. James W. Husted died at 8:16 tonight.

General Husted was taken ill on his way to the Republican convention in June last. Some of those aboard the train administered a dose of medicine. It is said that it was an overdose and caused the illness, from which he died tonight.

After the convention the general was brought home to Peekskill in a special car, and taken to his residence where he has since been hovering between life and death. Today the general gradually grew worse, and this evening passed away peacefully. He was conscious to the last.

General Husted was born at Bedford, Westchester county, in 1833. He graduated at Yale in 1844, and was admitted to the bar in 1857. He held many public offices and had the longest legislative service of any man in the history of the State, 18 years. He also had the distinction of having been the speaker of the house six times. For over 30 years he had been in active political life. He became a member of the Republican party in 1859.

He was mortally wounded. Morris Casselman tried to save his brother, and was himself badly cut by another ax in the hands of John Van Amen. Morris then cut Van Amen down to the ground, killing him. The murderer has not yet been apprehended.

General Pope's Remains Are Taken to St Louis.

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 25.—The remains of General John Pope lay in state in the Soldiers' home this morning, and were viewed by all the old veterans and a large concourse of citizens. The deceased general's sons and General Force went along.

STARTLING ALLEGATION.

Is the Prohibition Candidate for Governor Elected in Vermont?

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Bradley B. Smalley, a member of the Democratic national committee, and late candidate for governor of Vermont, announced tonight that he had made a discovery, which, if it is confirmed, gives to Allen, the Prohibitionist candidate, the office of governor of Vermont.

Smalley said that while Allen received 1200 of the 1500 votes, he was the only candidate for the position who is eligible, if the conclusions of Chairman Carter, of the Republican, and Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic national committee, are correct.

By advice of counsel, both chairmen have written a letter advising any person who may have been nominated presidential electors, and who are directors of national banks, or who hold public offices of trust or profit to withdraw for fear that they might prove ineligible.

"The fact is," said Smalley, "that under this construction both Fuller and myself were ineligible, for we are both directors of a national bank. The constitution of the state of Vermont is very rigid on this point. Besides affecting Fuller's election, it will also debar several members of the Vermont legislature from being sworn in."

A Sunday Excursion Fatally Spoiled by a Sea Collision.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A Herald special from Bridgeport, Conn., reports that the steamer Rosedale, on her regular Sunday excursion trip, was in collision with the pleasure yacht Una. The 400 passengers became panic-stricken, and it was only by closing the saloon doors that a number were prevented from jumping overboard.

The Una's bow-sprit tore away the planking of the Rosedale between the two decks from the bow to the paddle box on the starboard side, and also the partitions of the boiler house. Fireman Thomas McCarthy, of the Rosedale, was fatally injured. Two other men were painfully hurt. The Una was towed to Glencove. An unknown man is supposed to have gone overboard and to have been drowned. The passengers of the Rosedale declared that the yacht showed no lights.

By the Associated Press.]

MARSEILLES, Sept. 25.—At the workingmen's congress, today, Liebknecht, a German Socialist, in his address said that between Frenchmen and Germans there is flowing a broad river of blood, but it does not form the frontier of hatred between Socialists. "We protest against the fratricidal war of 1870," he said. "Socialists constitute the great army of which the workingmen of France, Germany and elsewhere form the different corps. We have beaten Bismarck after a struggle of 25 years, and are ready to shed our last drop of blood for socialism." Liebknecht's utterances were greeted with wild applause.

POLITICS AND CHOLERA.

DR. DIXON'S STRICTURES ON THE QUARANTINE SYSTEM.

A Diatribe in Which Tammany and the Steamship Company Are Jointly Accused by the Excitable Divine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Rev. Dr. Thomas Dixon, before his sermon today, spoke of the lesson Americans should learn from the appearance of the cholera.

He said in part: "The sudden appearance of Asiatic cholera carries with it a startling message. We have been taught that pot-house politics is poor training for health officials. We may say what we will about the efficiency of our quarantine; its methods have been a jumble of stupidity and brutality, with scarcely a trace of executive ability.

"Our conduct of this business not only has been a disgrace to the American nation, but a stigma on the history of the Anglo-Saxon race. And for this we must thank our pot-house politicians whose life principle is 'to the victor belongs the spoils.'

"We have learned that there are great steamship companies who don't hesitate to sell the health of 62,000,000 people in America for the price of the steerage passage of a few hundred poverty stricken refugees. Every city in America is at the mercy of New York.

Let our brethren in other cities remember this when they apologize for and excuse the villainies of Tammany hall for the sake of votes to be gained at the polls in the presidential election. Tammany hall is not simply a local disgrace. It may be a national scourge. What is the sense in moving heaven and earth to quarantine a few victims of pest-ridden Hamburg and at the same time open wide our gates to John Most and Bergman?

"Why buy an island to quarantine 500 healthy American citizens, and open the gates to thousands who formed the mobs at Haymarket square, delivered New Orleans to the reign of assassins, and called forth the army in Pennsylvania and New York to restore order?

"Does any thinking man doubt, in view of the recent events, that these steamship companies are in collusion with the prisons and poor-houses of Europe?"

PLEASANT RELATIONS.

Two Men are Shot in a Family Feud in the State of Wyoming.

NEWCASTLE, Wyo., Sept. 25.—A feud between the members of the Freel family, in Western county, finally culminated in bloodshed last night. Jesse Freel missed a number of horses from pasture a short time ago, and found them shot through the head.

He accused his uncle, Hank Freel, and the latter was arrested yesterday and brought here. As the sheriff was conducting him from the county building, Jesse stepped up and fired a bullet into his uncle's head from behind, inflicting what will prove a mortal wound. Hank's brother Jack then fired at Jesse, painfully wounding him. Jack and Jesse are locked up.

OFF FOR SAN PEDRO.

A Former East Side Girl Skips the Tra-la-la-loo.

Police Captain McKeag of the East Los Angeles police station, Monday evening received a telephone message from Riverside announcing the elopement of a couple from that place and asking him to be on the watch and detain them upon their expected arrival here. The girl in the case is a pretty little damsel of 13 years, at one time living on the East Side. Her name is Emma Walker, and she is one of a family formerly residing in the arroyo. The father some time ago skipped out and went to Riverside, leaving his family, which was supported for some time at the expense of the county. Later the three children, including this girl, went to their father, leaving the mother still in Los Angeles. The girl Emma is the youngest daughter, a sister being already married.

The couple arrived in the city on Tuesday, stopping at the St. Elmo, from which place they left the next day for San Pedro, so they stated to one of the guests of the house.

The man in the case is named Pierce and claimed he and Miss Walker were married after leaving Riverside.
