CAUGHT THE SOAP-BOX THIEF.

Henry F. Hardy, Expert Crook, Arrested in Germany.

He Has 27 Years to Serve in America, and Will be Brought Back.

Chief Police Inspector Steers is delighted to-day over the capture of Henry F. Hardy, one of the most desperate and reckless bank robbers this country has ever produced, by the police of Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany.

Hardy escaped from Clinton Prison Dec. 17 last, where, in 1890, he began serving an eighteen years and a fifteen months sentence, and Inspector Steers has lately requested the German authorities to land him.

Hardy is only twenty-seven years old, but he is one of the most accomplished cracksmen and slippery crooks in the business. He was born in "Bull's Kitchen," on the W. side, and began his thieving career as a boy. When arrested he was living in princely style at the most fashionable hotel in Frankfort.

He was talking with a Mr. Greene, of New York, when a policeman passed his cell for arrest. He protested vigorously, and Mr. Greene was certain that a mistake had been made, but a photograph handed to Hardy in "Kansas Carson," the western American mine owner, the "dying man," who, on his return, had deposited with Hardy a package of $24,000, and ran off with it.

The capture was effected by Detective Reinert, 10,188, in charge of the Sixth Avenue Bank, with a warrant, and when he arrived in Frankfort he found Hardy in possession of $2,750 from the stolen money.

Later in the day, while the police were looking for $4,000 in gold in the vault of the Commercial National Bank, on Wall street, with another $4,000 in gold missing, Mr. Greene, President of the Sixth Avenue Bank, and Detective Reinert, left for Frankfort, on the Old Ship of Salvation, carrying a duplicate set of bracelets.

During a brief hardy moment from a window in the General Sessions building, he was recaptured, sent to Ludlow Street Jail, and afterwards transferred to Bellevue. In two weeks he escaped, but was recaptured in Plattsburg by a policeman, who shot him in the leg.

Before he recovered from the wound he had escaped and his whereabouts were unknown until he arrived in Germany. He has thirty-seven years' imprisonment to serve in this country.

The prison at Dauhemer, from which Hardy escaped is the same from which Orchen, the Bunco King, succeeded in getting away a few months ago. Orchen recaptured from a keeper who had taken him to Utica on habeas corpus proceedings in the United States Court. He is supposed to have gotten out of the country, as no trace of him has been found, though he was reported to have been arrested in France and to have again escaped.
