MAN AND GIRL DANCE FIVE MILES IN HOUR

Couple Had to Be Carried From Floor After the "Race."

NEW YORK, April 13.—Joseph Morrissy and Alice Dunn were hailed champion Marathon dancers of the world in Somer's Hall, Brooklyn, early today. They had danced five miles in one hour.

When the race was over the couple had to be carried from the floor.

Seventeen couples started at various intervals throughout the hall at midnight, the prize to be accorded to the dancers who made five miles in the shortest time.

Couples dropped to the floor from exhaustion. Seconds emptied buckets of water on the remaining dancers and urged them on.

The last five minutes was grueling. Only two couple remained on the floor, but Morrissy and Miss Dunn were able to lap their antagonists in the last minute and win.
