FAIR
Weather Indications.

DR. DODD'S SCHOOL,
A STORY FOR BOYS,
BY JAMES L. FORD,
WILL BEGIN IN
NEXT SUNDAY'S WORLD.

The EVENING EDITION World.

PRICE ONE CENT. NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1892. PRICE ONE CENT.

CYNIC FORTUNE.
A NOVEL.
BY DAVID CHRISTIE MURRAY.
PUBLISHED COMPLETE IN
NEXT SUNDAY'S WORLD.
FAIR
Weather Indications.

"Cynic Fortune," by David Christie Murray, in next Sunday's World.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

FRICK'S NEW PERIL.

Another Anarchist Sent to Succeed Where Berkman Failed.

He Is Said to Be a Russian Named Aaronstann.

Pittsburg Police Closely Guarding the Carnegie Offices and the Chairman's Residence.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

PITTSBURG, PA., Aug. 11.—The Post published this morning the story of the newly-discovered anarchistic plot to assassinate Chairman Frick, of the Carnegie Steel Company (limited).

The Post says the plot was hatched in Vienna and was given to the New York police by Vice-Consul Eberhardt, of Austria. The Post says the New York police at once notified the Pittsburg authorities and a close watch for Aronstaum is being kept about all the Anarchist's resorts.

As a result of the disclosures additional guards have been placed about the Carnegie offices and Mr. Frick's residence, and detectives accompany him wherever he goes.

Mr. Frick regards these precautions as unnecessary, but his friends insist upon this precaution.

The Post says the matter has been kept quiet by the police authorities of New York and Pittsburg, in the hope that they might succeed in capturing Aaronstaum.

It is now thought that it can be said that Secretary Lovejoy has been warned that he has to until the Anarchists to live, other officers of the Carnegie company have also received threatening letters. The police are sanguine, however, that they can frustrate the plans of the Anarchists.

It is reported from Pittsburg that the New York Anarchists who hatched the plot to kill H. C. Frick have not been discouraged by the bungling of Berkman and have sent another boy of death to Pittsburg to carry out the project so often repeated in Anarchistic circles that Frick must die.

The second commissioned assassin is said to be Herr Aaronstann, the friend and fellow lodger of Berkman.

Aaronstann is a wiry little man, a Russian, and is between twenty-two and twenty-three years of age. He is a crayon artist by profession and a tailor by occupation. He is brother of Emma Goldman's close friends and alleged husbands.

He went to Pittsburg several days ago, and could to have received his final instructions in the Jersey City depot from the Goldman woman herself.

This second move in the Anarchistic plot is said to have been made known to the police by an agent of the Vienna police through Vice-Consul Otto Eberhard, of Austria.

The Austrian's name is withheld, and all information is said to come through the Vice-Consul.

According to the story, the Viennese called at his residence recently, and after producing letters from Chief Police of the Austrian police, to the Austrian police, to the Austrian police, to