POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Large Fields Should Afford Good Sport at Gattenburg.

A Mile Handicap to Be Decided at Bennings.

The races at Gattenburg to-day will be worth witnessing if the general appearance of the card goes for anything. The quality is very good and the quantity is just about large enough to cause lively speculation and a good price game for winners. Sling Cash, Hanover, Chono and Tilly should furnish an excellent race at a mile, and in the third event such sportsters as Little Fred, Lord Harry, Sandowne, Anne Elizabeth, Ike Demont, Mohammed and Hanover will compete for the money.

Eleanor, Dessaye, Freemason and Tramp should make the fifth race interesting. The opening event will make the public guess hard, for a beautiful lot of all-aged maidens are entered. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Purse of $400; one and a quarter furlongs.
Hebrew Maiden's Sister (3) 122
Ed. D. Brown's Kenwitch 122
Jas. Connolly's Kate 119
Dave Sachs's Lady Sultan 119
Jos. M. Murray's Vera 119
H. Grabham's Gertrude 119
Geo. Mayfield's Sun Vanage 117
Clarion's Colonel O'Connor 117
Dwyer's Philander 117
Ad. M. Disney's Lettie 117
American Stable's Adventuress 114
Anon (3) 114
L. Shea's Nettie Hamilton (3) 114

The opening event may be won by Gaddar, who is a good looking candidate indeed, but who is always ailing. Hetson will have to take the chance of the filly, Gertie May, for the second money and Philander ought to beat the others.

Second Race—Purse of $400; the winner to be sold at auction; six furlongs.
H. A. Dugan's Dorset 122
Kelso Stable's Sheldon 122
J. Dwyer's Sky D 122
Crawford's Geneva 122
Glen Island Stable's Lassie 122
H. Logan's Irregular 122
G. W. Parker's Frank I 122
L. O'Leary's Sweet Bread 122
M. J. Daly's Contest 122

Dimitt looks a good thing in this race and may win. Sweet Bread may be the runner up and Irregular ought to be third.

Third Race—A heavyweight handicap; purse of $400; five furlongs.
W. H. Daniels's Little Fred 132
H. P. Dugan's Lord Harry 124
J. Leavy's Sandowne 124
G. Sanchez's Anne Elizabeth 121
Woodland Stable's Sandowne 118
Dr. Bigelow's Ike Demont 118
Bigelow Stable's Mohammed 118
J. Dwyer's El San Luis 118

Little Fred ought to win this race despite his heavy impost, and Anne Elizabeth should secure second money. Third place will probably be filled by Sandowne, whose defeat yesterday was due to miserable riding.

Fourth Race—A handicap; purse of $400; one mile.
W. H. Daniels's King Crab 132
H. P. Dugan's Hanover 130
H. A. Disney's Chono 124
J. O'Leary's Tilly 114

King Crab ought to win this race easily, with Hanover, Chono and Tilly next in the order named.

Fifth Race—Purse of $400; for two-year-olds; the winner to be sold at auction; five furlongs.
C. F. Saunders's Cleanse 123
W. Keegan & Son's Freemason 123
Ohio Stable's Magnolia 120
E. Lewis's Eleanor 117
F. Harper's Helen 115
M. Gradner's Tramp 108
J. H. McCormack's Sagamore 108

Eleanor looks a real good thing in this event, and the writer will expect to see her score an easy win. Tramp has a great chance for the place, and Helen may beat the others.

Sixth Race—Purse of $400; the winner to be sold at auction; weight 10 lbs. below the usual allowances.
Sachs Stable's Sir George 130
F. Hawkins's Hawthorne 124
Diamond Stable's The Shaft 124
H. Campbell's Harmon 124
E. Lewis's Lucy Johnson 124
A. Thompson's Fredigon 124
W. H. Daniels's Lucy Dye 124
W. H. Daniels's Gaspar 124
Chenoweth Stable's Highway 124

Hazelhurst should win the racing cast hands down. Sir George may be second, and Lucy Johnson should have no difficulty in disposing of the others.

WAS IT ASIATIC CHOLERA?

Jersey City Heights Excited Over a Suspicious Death.

County Physician Disagrees with Those Calling It a True Case.

There was considerable excitement in the northern portion of Jersey City Heights this morning in consequence of a reported case of cholera.

William Bonner, a carpenter, aged twenty-eight, of 11 Franklin street, went home from work at the dinner of noon yesterday in apparent good health. He was soon afterwards taken ill and died in great agony at 1.30 o'clock this morning.

Dr. Joseph Bonner, of 41 Smith street, who attended Bonner, pronounced it a genuine case of Asiatic cholera.

City Physician John H. Geary, of 118 Congress street, was summoned for consultation, but did not arrive until twenty minutes after Bonner had died. He however, agreed with Dr. Bonner that death had resulted from cholera.

County Physician Lowrie was also summoned. After making inquiries he pronounced it a very bad case of cholera morbus.

Mr. Bonner was seen this morning and made the following statement:

"I was out of work last session, but began to attend at the time did not arrive at the house as I thought. I was diagnosing the case I found that the symptoms tended to show that it was a genuine case of Asiatic cholera.

"Bonner was coaching and moving. He had violent cramps, convulsions and vomiting of the bowels, and the symptoms presented a clearly operative. There no doubt that it was a case of genuine Asiatic cholera.

"I notified the police, and had the house in which another family lived quarantined."

County Physician Lowrie took away a quantity of vomiting to be analyzed, and when the investigation is over the real cause of death will be a matter of dispute.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Describes Remarkable Results in Pennsylvania.

"Years ago I received a severe injury to my left side. Mr. Williams, of the Gilsum House, Gilsum, Cheshire County, Lynn, Mass.

"I was in consequence very lame, some days so that I could not walk at all. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and found it just what I needed. I was able to work when I had taken two bottles, and I have been able to do my work ever since. I have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to many others, and shall always do so."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best in fact as well as in name, and to be certain of benefit you should buy it. Mrs. G. C. Williams.

BOYCOTTING THE WILLIS MAN.

Republicans Refuse to Go on the Ticket with Reynolds.

Election Fight in Brooklyn That Will Hurt Harrison and Reid.

Brooklyn Republicans who are particularly interested in the election of the national ticket, are in not water over the fight between the Nathan and Willis factions, and the leaders feel that this bitter contest will result in the loss of many hundreds of voters, unless some high authority interferes to behalf of Mr. Harrison and settles the difficulty.

The fight is for nominee in the Fifteenth Assembly district, which includes Internal Revenue Collector Nathan's look upon as his own particular territory, and resents interference on the part of outsiders. The regular nominee for assembly in this district is Arnold H. Wagner, a prominent German man. When William H. Berdan, who brought in the Willis crowd, was nominated as an independent candidate, the Nathan men declared war, and alleged that they would "turn" Reynolds at any cost.

Collector Nathan has made a move in this fight which he hopes will link it a masterstroke. He has succeeded in getting the other Republican city and county nominees to join an alliance with the county clerk, against Reynolds using their names with his own on his official cards. The fair Republican who helped the case was Andrew Hill, the nominee for City Comptroller. Like other men, he has not failed to have his name on any independent ticket.

Mr. Nathan is working the fight against Willis men all along the line. Throughout Greenpoint Nathan's adherents have succeeded in persuading the Republican residents of Greenpoint to cut Willis tickets in favor of their candidate, Reynolds.

The German adherents are defiant to-day over their latest move. They look upon it as Reynolds's political death blow.

The party man will vote for Reynolds this Republicans this morning. It seems to be generally supposed that a man voting for a candidate with only his name printed on it, like a ballot, only twice as big, is doing his duty as a regular voter, and he thinks that he is doing the right thing. Nothing is further from the truth. Reynolds is doing the same, but it makes no difference, because he cannot be elected anyway.

Friends of Mr. Reynolds do not look at it that way. They declare that he has been by Nathan has taken the United more bitter than ever, and they will show their leader in the end.

Should the National ticket suffer, the blame will be on Nathan, and the Republicans will be responsible for the Democratic victory. Nathan and his friends have been trying to make the Republican voters believe that by preventing their votes from being cast for Willis, they will be helping Harrison, but the Harrison leaders have offered no help to the Willis men.

The Republicans claim that he is in the race to stay, and he will get more votes than Nathan, because he is very popular and he commands very much more influence among the people.

Nathan's friends claim that he is the regular Republican candidate, and that he will be elected by the Republicans, while there are others who will prevent them.

Democrats are planning for a coup. While the fight is going on in the Republican camp they are quietly working for Wagner, the Democratic nominee, and they say they will win.

NO TRIPLE WEDDING TO-NIGHT.

But the Homans' Neighbors Have Set a Watch.

The neighborhood of Hooper street and Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, is in a state of excitement and expectancy.

A triple marriage is looked for, but there is no certainty as to when the three links will be tied.

To-night was the time set for the marriage of Col. Kennedy Stout, of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Ida Homan, of 85 Hooper street; of Mr. George Talbot and Miss Carrie Homan, and of Miss Nellie Homan and Mr. Lord Lonergan.

The publicity given the romantic affair has caused the family to make a secret of the hour of the ceremony.

Mrs. Homan, the mother of the three [illegible] says:

"Mr. Talbot's 18 will be married next Monday evening. There will present none but a crowd to witness the names of my other daughters.

"Yes, it is the general belief the couples will be married at the window in the neighborhood and the minister of anybody living near Hooper is expected to be around by midnight.
