charged that Seiler did not live at the address given.

Samuel Davidson, of 10 Suffolk street, an oilman, was next discharged, the charge of illegal registration in the Twenty-third Election District of the Fourth Assembly District not being substantiated.

Dornati Saziordi, of 250 Mott street, was discharged also, as it could not be shown that he had broken the law.

Charles J. Steele, 196 South street; Thomas Scallon, 53 Bowery; James Lorretto, 250 Mott street; Herman Satter, 262 Stanton street; August E. Pacot, 201 Bleecker street; Edward Flynn, 147 West Fourteenth street, were all discharged before Commissioner Shields. Nothing was proven against them.

Michael Hosset, James C. Clayton, James Callaghan were arrested for registering from the City Hospital. All three were held in $1,000 bail each, which was furnished, for examination Nov. 15.

Edward Krug said when arraigned that he had been arrested at the instigation of his father, who had a grudge against him. He was arrested before he had voted. He was held for examination Thursday under $500 bail, which was furnished.

Abraham Dennison, of 121 Forsyth street, was held in $1,000 bail by Commissioner Deuel on the charge of bribing a voter.

Commissioners Shields and Deuel stopped their examinations of prisoners at 12.30 o'clock and went out to lunch. They returned at 1.30 and started the mill to grinding again.

About 1 o'clock Inspector Williams visited the Federal Building and had a consultation with Marshal Jacobus.

Chief Federal Supervisor of Elections John I. Davenport was at his uptown office, 501 Fifth avenue, all day and did not appear at the Federal Building.

William Muldoon, of 39 Bowery, and Chas. W. Blake, of 340 Water street, were both held in $1,000 bail for illegal registration.

The following cases were disposed of in short order by Commissioner Shields:

Michael Hinds, illegal registration, discharged.

Rosenwerg, 113 Delancey street, illegal registration, $500 bail for examination on the 10th.

Henry Bachman, City Hospital, illegal registration; $500 bail.

Edward Fox, 206 West street, illegal registration; discharged.

George A. Hecko, 121 West Twenty-ninth street, illegal registration; discharged.

Joseph Birenbaum, 24 Suffolk street, illegal registration; $500 bail.

Edward King, 222 Seventh street; $500 bail for same offense.

Jeremiah Donovan went into a booth to help a crippled voter fold his ballot. He was arrested by a deputy marshal, but was discharged by Commissioner Deuel.

George Lehr, of 391 Seventh avenue, refused to give information and was held in $1,000.

Edward Oberle, Matthew Duregan, Charles Zeltman and George Knocker all swore that they had lived for six months in a stable at 60 First street. They were discharged.

The cases of alleged false registration from the City Hospital were all treated alike. Each man was held in $1,000 bail for examination on November 15.

Bail was furnished in every case. Some of the men arrested were Patrick Donohue, Charles Featherstone, Adrian Brinckerhoff, Henry Johr and William Delaney.

These were some of the other cases disposed of:

John Carrick, 43 Renwick street, illegal registration; discharged.

William Weiu, 649 West Fifty-second street, illegal registration; discharged, as was also Thomas Lynch, of 354 Bowery.

John M. Powers, arrested for refusing to answer questions; discharged.

William Pollard, 196 South street; Philip Brady, 153 East Twenty-third street; Jacob Starter, 41 Bowery, and Joseph Davis, 82 Varick street, arrested for illegal registration; all discharged except Davis, who furnished $500 bail for examination.

Patrick McKenna, 261 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street; Joseph Biggs, 216 Thompson street; Harry Nash, 153 Spring street; John Powers, charged with illegal registration, were discharged.

James Denning, Bowery, charged with illegal registration; bailed.

Hermann Fiam, 74 Suffolk street, illegal registration; bailed.

About noon Lawyer David Leventritt received a telegram from Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan to the effect that Mr. Berlingsham, a Democratic committeeman of Westchester County, had been arrested by one of Davenport's deputy marshals.

Mr. Sheehan asked Mr Leventritt to look out for Berlingsham, so as to furnish bail when he was arraigned. Up to 1 o'clock the prisoner had not been brought to the Federal Building.

CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT.

Four Justices Kept Busy Granting Orders from an Early Hour.

Justices O'Brien and Ingraham, of the Supreme Court, entered their chambers at the court-house a few minutes before 6 o'clock this morning and were joined by Justices Andrews and Barnett at 10.30.

Lawyer Charles D. Olendorf obtained an order requiring the inspectors of the Forty-ninth Election District in the Eighth Assembly District, to show cause why a mandamus should compelling them to enter upon their books the name of William F. Hull, a Democrat, living at 62 Clinton place.

Barker Jerry, Republican, of 41 West Sixteenth street, claims that he reported from that district, but that when he offered his vote it was refused because his address appeared on the books as 41 West Sixty-first street, and an order to show cause was issued to him.

Ex-Judge Arnoux obtained an order to the inspectors in the Eighteenth Election District of the Second Assembly District, to show cause why they should not admit E. D. Ludwig, a Republican watcher, behind the railing. Judge Arnoux said there was no quarrel over the matter, the inspectors simply doubting their right to admit the watcher behind the rail.

Henry H. Whitman, a Democrat, living at 34 West Thirty-third street, obtained an order, his case being similar to that of Hull, although the inspectors do not concede his statement.

Michael A. Murray, a Democrat who registered from 715 East Ninth street, in the Twenty-eighth Election District of the Sixth Assembly District, got an order to show cause from Justice Barrett, because when he offered to vote he found that the inspectors had registered him as Michael A. Leary.

Similar orders were also given to James Duffy, in the Thirty-fourth Election District of the Second Assembly District, whose name was not on the register, though he swore it in; to Joseph A. Wetzinger, in the Eighth of the Thirteenth; Thomas Leavy, in the Thirteenth of the Eighth; William F. Young, in the Fourteenth of the Nineteenth; Charles Langan, in the Tenth of the Third, and a large number of other persons.

Hearing Complaints Against John.

Congressmen Fitch and Geisenhainer, of the Davenport Investigating Committee, were in the Federal Building to-day to hear any complaints that might be made against John I. Davenport and his men. Gustavus H. Robinson, of 61 East Houston street, said he had been intimidated, but that when he went to the polls no attempt was made to prevent his voting.

Patrick McKenna, of 261 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street, Tammany captain of his election district, said he was arrested when he went to vote this morning where he had voted for years. Commissioner Shields discharged him.

LARGE POLL IN NEW JERSEY.

Harrison Apparently Running Behind the State Ticket.

TRENTON, Nov. 8.—Reports from the twenty-one counties in the State indicate that a heavy vote is being polled.

At Republican Headquarters it is said that Kean, for Governor, is running ahead of Harrison, and stands a very good chance of being elected on a close vote. Republicans generally concede that Cleveland will carry the State.

At Democratic Headquarters reports were that Cleveland's plurality would exceed 7,149, that of 1888, and that Judge Werts will be elected Governor.

War Department Clerk Arrested.

Capt. Wm. Ryde Smith, aged seventy, a clerk in the first grade in the War Department at Washington, was arrested at 11 o'clock this morning in the Second district of the Third ward for having illegally registered from 276 Atlantic avenue. He has been absent from Brooklyn for many years, although he claims he never gave up his residence.

He says he has always voted from 276 Atlantic avenue at Presidential elections.

BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS.

and four arrests were made before 8 o'clock. "Tim" Campbell claims the district for Cleveland by several thousand.

Fourth Assembly District.

Workers had little to do this morning in the Fourth Assembly District. The Democrats simply came out and voted without any fuss, and the straight ticket went everywhere. There is no doubt about how the Fourth will go, and those who know things say that Cleveland and Stevenson are ahead of the local ticket.

Fifth Assembly District.

Captains at work in the Fifth Assembly District said that the early vote was heavy, and a full Democratic vote was being polled. The district will give a good majority for the National Democratic candidates as well as for the local ticket.

In the Sixth District.

Up to 10 o'clock no arrests had been reported in the Sixth Assembly District, where voting was going on quietly and the full Democratic strength was being brought out. Cleveland is said to be running ahead of his ticket in this district.

Seventh Assembly District.

Voting began early in the Seventh Assembly District, and the Democratic workers did not have to hustle much to get their friends out. The district is stanchly Democratic, and it looks as if it would poll a full vote for both the local and National tickets. Two arrests were made early in the morning by Davenport's marshals and the prisoners were hauled off to the "cage" before they could vote.

Arrests in the Eighth.

There were a good many arrests made early this morning in the reconstructed Eighth Assembly District, especially in the vicinity of Bleecker and Carmine streets and South Fifth avenue. Deputy marshals hovered around like vultures and swooped down every now and then to carry off a victim. Outside of these arrests the voting was quiet, and Democrats predict a good-sized majority for the ticket.

In the Ninth.

The vote in the Ninth Assembly District promises to be close, and both sides are claiming a bare majority for their ticket. There were rumors this morning that Cleveland was being scratched or traded for votes for local candidates. Gilroy is running ahead of the ticket.

Tenth Assembly District.

In the Tenth Assembly District, which takes in practically the old Fourteenth and includes a good slice of the east-side tenement-house section, voters were out early. In many districts crowds were waiting on the sidewalk before 6 o'clock. The Democrats have everything their own way here, and are piling up a big majority for Cleveland and Stevenson and the entire local ticket. Everything is going on in a quiet and orderly manner, and no fights have been reported.

Eleventh Assembly District.

The Republicans did fair to carry the Eleventh Assembly District, as they have in times past. The voting began leisurely, and the brown-stone-front people did not begin to get to the polls before 9 o'clock. In several of the Republican Elections District it was reported that Harrison was running ahead of his ticket. Percival Farquhar is running for Assembly on the Tammany ticket, and is making a strong fight.

Twelfth Assembly District.

The Twelfth Assembly District comprises the old "Gas-House" District, and is overwhelmingly Democratic. "Eddie" Hagan and his lieutenants were out in the rain long before 6 o'clock, and had voters at the polls before they went to work. The Republicans were also working energetically, and good feeling seemed to prevail everywhere. A full vote is promised and the National ticket is not running behind.

Thirteenth Assembly District.

In the Thirteenth Assembly District voting was rather slow until after 7 o'clock, when the polling-places began to look lively. The Democrats are counting on 1,300 majority in this district, though Republicans have hopes of carrying it. Reapportionment has somewhat upset calculations. Ferdinand S. Levy, for Register, is a favorite here. Davenport's marshals are abundant, seven or eight being stationed at each polling-place.

Fifteenth Assembly District.

The vote promises to be close on the National ticket in the Fifteenth Assembly District. There is apparently no cutting on the local ticket in this district, but the early vote was not as full as was anticipated, but a good Democratic majority is promised. United States marshals are thick, but they do not show themselves inside the railing at the polling places. The voting proceeds quietly.

Sixteenth Assembly District.

This is a strong Democratic district and the voting was heavy during the early hours. According to the workers at the polls, Cleveland is running away ahead of the local ticket, and is receiving many Republican votes. No disturbance is reported in the Sixteenth District.

Seventeenth Assembly District.

Voting in the Seventeenth Assembly District opened up lively, and a large portion of the residents had voted before 8 o'clock in many of the election districts. There is a local fight between Kerrigan Tammany, and Fay, County Democracy and Republican, for Assembly, but it does not seem to affect the National ticket. The Tammany men expect to elect Kerrigan and predict 2,800 majority for Cleveland in the district. There are 7,750 registered voters.

In the Eighteenth.

Tammany claims 3,000 majority for Cleveland in the Eighteenth Assembly District, but there is a bitter fight over the Assemblyman, McManus, the County Democrat, having received Republican indorsement. No arrests were made for illegal voting.

In the Nineteenth.

Voting in the Nineteenth Assembly District to-day is very heavy, the Tammany leaders putting it at about 9,500, with a majority of 1,000 for Cleveland. The Republicans claim that this is too large. No disorder is reported from any part of the district.

In the Twentieth.

A strong Democratic vote is being brought out in the Twentieth Assembly District, and Cleveland, it is declared, is running ahead of the local ticket. There is a hot fight going on over the candidates for Alderman, the Republicans and County Democrats working against Tammany.

In the Twenty-first.

Everything was quiet and orderly this morning in the "brown-stone" Twenty-first Assembly District and the fashionable clubmen and millionaires took their time about voting. The district is Republican, but Democratic workers say that they were surprised at the large number of Cleveland pasters called for in some of the most famous Republican strongholds.

In the Twenty-second.

Tammany is reported to getting in an unusually large vote in the Twenty-second Assembly District, which means a big majority for the head of the National Democratic ticket. Deputy marshals are plentiful but do not interfere with the voting.

In the Twenty-third.

A big vote is coming out to-day from the Twenty-third Assembly District, and a quiet fight is going on. This is Mayor Grant's district. At 8 o'clock there were long lines of voters in some of the polling places. Many Republicans in the district are not voting for Mayor at all.

In the Twenty-fourth.

The Democrats started off with a good lead in the Twenty-fourth Assembly District this morning, which was increased during the day. Straight tickets were the rule, and Cleveland is said to be running ahead on Republican support.

In the Twenty-fifth.

The early vote in the Twenty-fifth Assembly District was rather heavy, and by 9 o'clock nearly two-fifths of the registered voters had cast their ballots. The Democrats control the district, but in several Republican precincts it was claimed that Harrison was more than holding his own.

In the Twenty-sixth.

The vote in the Twenty-sixth Assembly District had been rather slack up to 9 o'clock. The Democrats lead here by about 3 to 2, but there was also a considerable call for Cleveland pasters by Republicans and by Mugwumps opposed to the local Tammany ticket.

The Twenty-seventh District.

There was a great call for both Republican and Democratic pasters this morning in the Twenty-seventh Assembly District, and the Democrats seemed to be in the lead in most of the precincts. In one district 200 Democratic to 27 Republican pasters were distributed. There is no report of trouble in any part of the district.

In the Twenty-eighth.

The Twenty-eighth (Harlem) District got out its vote early to-day. In many districts two-thirds of the registered voters had cast their ballots before 9 o'clock. The strong fight is on the Assembly candidates.

Democrats Lead in the Twenty-ninth.

In the Twenty-ninth Assembly District voting has been going on slowly and quietly, with the Democrats in the lead at the polls, judging from the number of paster ballots given out, the ratio being about three Democratic pasters to one Republican.

Thirtieth Assembly District.

In the Thirtieth Assembly District voting proceeded slowly. Thirty Democratic full ticket pasters and only three Republican had been given out in the Eleventh Election District up to 9 o'clock. Democratic pasters were in demand all over the district, and these straws showed which way the wind was blowing.

FRAUDULENT BALLOTS.

Alleged Republican Trick to Deceive and Defraud Voters.

A paster ballot has been issued containing the names of Richard Croker and William Steinway only of the Democratic Electors, and with all the remainder of the names of the Republican Electors.

The fraudulent ballot is being widely circulated inclosed in a circular purporting to be issued by Tammany Hall.

Voters are cautioned to examine closely the entire list of Democratic Electors, whose names are as follows on this, which is the genuine ticket:

For Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

William Steinway,	Joe and Croker,
Frederick Rachmann,	Rain-on-Davis,

Voters must be sure to compare the names and vote no ticket that does not contain all of the Electors appearing on the above list.

CATS ATE UP FALK'S BODY.

The Old Man Lay Dead in His Squalid Garret.

His Body Terribly Mutilated by His Starving Pets.

John Falk, eighty-one years old, was found dead in the garret which he occupied in the tenement-house at 29 Vandewater street at 7 o'clock this morning.

His body presented a horrifying sight. Evers of flesh on the face and forehead had been eaten away by three pet cats, the only companions of the old man in his squalid, heirless home.

Last Saturday morning Falk was heard to go up and down the stairs leading to his apartments so many times that Mrs. Lizzie Glennan, who lives on the top floor, was prompted to inquire if anything had gone wrong with him.

"Nothing, only I'm sick," was the feeble octogenarian's response.

He was not seen again by any of the other tenants until his mutilated body was found.

Falk was a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars and drew a pension of $12 per month. He was a widower and formerly lived at 18 Roosevelt street.

BIG FIRE IN WILLIAMSBURG.

Damage of $130,000 Done to a Wallabout Street Factory.

Fire broke out on the third floor of the four-story brick building, 171 to 187 Wallabout street, Williamsburg, at 11.35 this forenoon.

Three alarms were sent out, and after a fight of an hour the flames were subdued.

The cause of the fire is unknown and the damage to stock in the building will amount to about $130,000; fully insured.

The first floor was occupied by the New York Steel and Copper Plate Company, the second by Jacob, manufacturer of silk ribbons; the third by Charles B. Covel, manufacturer of shoes, and the fourth by Frank Weilbacker, manufacturer of ribbons.

Usually about 1,000 men are employed in the building, but they were not at work today.

Mr. Weilbacker and his clerk, William C. Gray, were at work when Mr. Gray discovered the fire coming up through the floor.

Both got away by the fire-escape. The entire third story was gutted and the goods an machinery in the other portions of the building were soaked. Covel claims to be damaged $35,000; Jacob, $35,000, Weilbrecker, $35,000, and New York Steel and Company, $15,000, and the building, $20,000.

The building is owned by Gus Hurlemann, of 215 Penn street. No lives were lost.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Nov. 8.—Little trouble at the polls here has been reported. The voting is heavy.

John Shea, an inspector in the Sixth District of the First Ward, was arrested early this morning on a warrant sworn out by James Courtney, of Seventh street, charging that Shea had threatened to take Courtney's life a day or two ago.

Shea was bailed in the police court.

Mayor Gleason has appointed 500 special deputies for the various polling places.

Supt. Byrnes remained at headquarters. Inspectors Williams, Conlin, McAvoy and McLaughlin made hourly tours of their city districts in cabs.

ODDS GIVEN ON CLEVELAND.

Confidence of the West Reflected in the Betting at Chicago.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The latest betting on the election here is as follows:

RAILROADS IN JERSEY'S FIGHT.

Individual Bosses Advise Men to Vote for Kean.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 7.—So far as can be learned here there is little foundation for the report that the New Jersey railroads have ordered their employees to vote for Harrison and Kean.

Individual bosses, however, have gone among their men and told them it would be a good thing for the railroads if Kean was elected, but no instructions were given the men to cast their ballots for him. Nothing further than a suggestion that it would please the Pennsylvania and Central Companies to see Mr. Kean win, was made.

REPUBLICAN MAYOR IN TROUBLE.

Found in the Booth with a Hornellsville Man Who Loses His Vote.

HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Republican Mayor of this city was discovered today in a booth with an elector, who had not asked for nor needed assistance.

He was ordered out, and the voter, as he would not swear he had not been influenced by the Mayor, went away without voting.

The Mayor may be arrested.

He stopped to play with the boys, and missing the money, charged his companions with stealing it.

Quarantine Order May Be Repealed.

In view of the possible long detention of their steamships at Quarantine under the recent orders, agents of the big lines have obtained from eminent lawyers the opinion that the detention is a flagrant violation of the "favored nation" clause in treaties with foreign countries. The agents were preparing to fight the order in court when news came from Washington from a private, though authentic source, they say, that no more vessels would be detained.

Mr. Reid Votes in Westchester.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Whitelaw Reid arrived here from New York on the 11 o'clock train and at once proceeded to the polls in the First District of Harrison, where he voted. He then drove to his home at Ophir Farm. He said he intended to remain home during the day with his family, and this evening will receive the returns over the telephone in his library.

There was only one election case in Yorkville Police Court up to 11 o'clock this morning. It was that of Frank J. Denny, of 146 East Thirty-sixth street. He was discharged.

Claims in Queens County.

JAMAICA, L. I., Nov. 8.—Democrats are claiming Queens County by 2,200. The Republicans concede 1,800.

A Miscalculation.

[From Texas Siftings.]

Teacher—Johnny, how many Presidents has the country had?

Johnny Knowitall—Twelve.

"You must be thinking of the twelve apostles. Now, let me hear you count the Presidents. Begin!

"One, two, three, four."

Whack! Whack! Whack!

Got Too Affectionate.

[From the New York Weekly.]

Edith—Why did you dismiss Mr. Goodheart?

Blanche—Oh, he got so he'd rather sit at home and hold my hand than take me to the theatre.

POWDER ROYAL BAKING

ABSOLUTELY PURE

ROYAL BAKING POWDER imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness, and flavor noticed in the finest food, and which expert pastry cooks declare is not obtainable by the use of any other raising agent.

Royal Baking Powder is superior in purity, strength and wholesomeness to any other powder which I have examined.

SIGNALS BY LIGHT.

"The World" Will Tell You the Result of the Election.

A Presidential Ladder at the Pulitzer Building.

Special Wires from All Parts of the Country.

To-night, in front of the Pulitzer Building there will be several thousand anxious New Yorkers waiting to read the election returns. Rain or shine, they will stand just as they have stood during many former elections waiting for THE WORLD to give them the first news of victory or defeat. And THE WORLD will fulfil its part of the contract to the letter, or, rather, to the figure. Special wires will buzz with the latest information, and a few seconds after the receipt of each bulletin it will be chronicled on the great white squares in front of the building. Of course there will be cheers and groans with each bit of news, but THE WORLD will give all political creeds a chance to exercise their lungs without discrimination.

THE WORLD'S bulletin service has been thoroughly organized for the occasion, and perfect in every department.

In the first place, through the courtesy of Supt. W. C. Humstone, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, THE WORLD has been furnished with several special wires to Harlem, Brooklyn and THE WORLD uptown office. These wires are merely for local bulletins. In addition to these wires Supts. Hibbard and A. S. Hovey, of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company, have placed at the disposal of THE WORLD a direct wire from the editorial rooms to Chicago. Another private line will run into the Boston Globe office, and still others to Hartford, Indianapolis, Detroit and St. Louis. Thus it will be seen the events in the doubtful States will be chronicled on the big bulletin boards within a few seconds after their occurrence.

In THE WORLD offices will be a local circuit, over which will come bulletins from all parts of the country and be sent to bulletin headquarters on the twelfth floor in THE EVENING WORLD rooms. From there they will be distributed as occasion may require. From this point the wires run to room 185, which is the office of the Boston Globe, thence to the auditing department, where city returns are received. The bulletins for display will be gathered in room 8, the offices of the Home Life Insurance Company. THE WORLD has left no effort untried to give the people of New York the very earliest returns from the election.

The big squares of canvas in front of the building will be made as light as day by electric lights, and even on the outskirts of the crowd the people will have no difficulty in reading the latest news.

In addition to all this THE WORLD will inaugurate an interesting departure in bulletin work. Running from the first to the eighth floor of the Pulitzer Building will be two big pine ladders. In the window at the eighth floor will be a gorgeous Presidential chair, on the back of which an American eagle sits with outspread wings. On one ladder will be the painted figure of Grover Cleveland, wearing blue trousers and a smile, and on the other benjamin Harrison will be displayed in all the grandeur of his grandfather's hat. Both candidates will start on even terms at the bottom. There will be no jockeying. Although THE WORLD has been honestly Democratic in this campaign, it will allow no tilting with Mr. Harrison's chances of getting up that ladder. Of course he will be handicapped by his hat, but according to his enemies he is somewhat accustomed to going it blind. On the other hand Mr. Cleveland is popularly supposed to be somewhat slow in getting up a ladder. At any rate, the race will be a great one, from the firing of the opening gun until the last figures are in. The candidate that reaches the top first will, of course, take the chair. Then the lucky one will have a chance to kick the other down eighty feet of ladder. All this will furnish information as well as amusement to the great crowd. Those who become bewildered at the array of figures displayed on the bulletins can look up at the climbing figures and tell just how matters stand. Even those whose eyesight is bad can readily tell the difference between a big bell-hat and a modern silk hat.

Late at night THE WORLD bulletin service as well as THE WORLD Building will be crowned with the final information of success or defeat.

Everybody within a radius of many miles of the Pulitzer Building has seen the big circle of lights on the very pinnacle of the dome. This circle of lights represents New York. If they are red the Democrats may weep, for it will mean that Harrison has carried the State. If they are white the State has gone Democratic. These lights are marked "A" and "H" in the picture. The dome lights represent the country at large. If they are red Harrison is elected; if white the Presidency has fallen to Cleveland.

In Jefferson Market.

Capt. Creeden, of the Mercer street station, had four or five dozen prisoners in Jefferson Market Court this morning all charged with violations of the election laws. Among the prisoners were Rev. James M. Pringle, a missionary clergyman, who registered from the Judson apartment house, 53 South Washington square. He was discharged.

Voting in Connecticut.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MERIDEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—Meriden will poll to-day the biggest vote in its history, reaching between 5,000 and 6,000. At 10 o'clock this morning 2,300 votes had been polled. Indications at this hour are that the Democratic plurality will be largely reduced.

All women who are overworked, "run-down," or debilitated, need just one medicine—and that is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a broad statement, but facts bear it out. These are the facts:

If you're a weak and delicate woman, then the "Favorite Prescription" builds you up; if you suffer from any of the painful disorders and derangements peculiar to your sex, it relieves and cures. It invigorates the system, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. All the chronic weaknesses, irregularities, and disturbances known as "female complaints" are permanently cured by it.

These are facts, and they're strong enough to warrant the makers in guaranteeing their remedy. If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms. That proves that nothing else can be "just as good."

HER SECRET.

Wonderful Complexion Which No One Could Explain.

All Women Were Envious of Her for Many Years.

Now They Know All About It and Follow Her Example.

A lady well known in our social circles has for years been at once the envy and admiration of all the ladies hereabouts, on account of the wonderful preservation of her health and beauty, and particularly because of her clear and dazzling complexion.

She has been many times urged by her acquaintances and friends to disclose the secret of her marvellously youthful appearance. Last evening she grew confidential to a little knot of friends, among whom the writer was present, and her secret is now a secret no longer.

"Why it is really no secret at all," she said. "A perfect complexion depends upon just two things, strong nerves and a good digestion.

"Most women are excessively nervous, weak and languid, and as a result their complexions are sallow and their
