Harrison vs. Cleveland.

Who wins?.....Fair Trade or Protection?.....High Tariff or Tariff for Revenue?.....Here is merchandise bought under present conditions that ought to suit both parties.....One will claim that prices of labor must be very much depressed — the other, with equal justice, argue that if such values can be given, why change?

Both Arguments Are Good.

BUT THE PRICES ARE VERY, VERY LOW.

THE BURKHALTER HEARING.

Adjourned by a New Order of Court Till Nov. 17.

There was another hitch this morning in the settlement of the affairs of the failed firm of C. Burkhalter & Co. About fifteen witnesses and half a dozen lawyers, representing the various parties in the case, met in the office of Attorney B. W. Franklin, 2 Wall street, who was appointed referee in the case by Judge Bookstaver, of the Court of Common Pleas.

Just as the proceedings were about to begin, Attorney Rushmore, representing Assignee Charles H. Fancher, entered the office and said:

"Mr. Referee, I hold in my hand an order issued this morning by Judge Bookstaver for the plaintiffs in this case to appear before him Nov. 16 and show cause why the order appointing a referee should not be set aside.

"The grounds of this proceeding are that the order was granted Friday, which was fifteen days before this receiver was required to file his schedules and inventories and within twenty-five days of the time he should file his bond. The order was, furthermore, obtained ex parte and without notice upon us. We were not notified until Saturday, and but one business day has intervened since then."

Attorney James B. Dill then asked the referee to set Nov. 17, the day after this morning's order is returnable, for the hearing. This was done, and the witnesses were instructed to be present then.

ENOUGH TO OVERCOME HIM.

Smith Voted the Republican Ticket and Remembers No More.

"I voted the Republican ticket yesterday, your Honor, and then I remembered no more," said Andrew Smith, charged with intoxication in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, this morning.

"Well, that's enough to remember. Go home; you have suffered," said the Justice.

THIRTY-TWO HORSES ROASTED.

The Riverside Stables Completely Gutted Early This Morning.

Thirty-two horses were burned to death in a fire that completely gutted John S. Conabeer's Riverside Stables at 305 and 307 West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street shortly after midnight this morning.

The fire spread to Romaine & Co.'s stables at 303, where eleven horses were gotten out in safety. Two upper floors of the Riverside Stables building known as the Riverside Storage Warehouse, were completely filled with furniture which was entirely destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $60,000.

FIRE ENGINE UPSETS.

Small Blaze in a White Street Shirt Factory.

A fire broke out in J. Sternglanz & Co.'s shirt and overall manufactory on the third floor of 24 and 26 White street, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning and did about $100 damage.

Engine 31 in going to the fire tipped over in turning into White street from Broadway and was badly damaged.

Driver Edward Kilblock jumped in time to save himself and to prevent the horses from getting away. No one was injured.

REV. DR. BRIGGS'S TRIAL.

Begins This Afternoon in the Scotch Presbyterian Church.

The trial of the famous Briggs heresy case before the Presbytery of New York begins this afternoon in the Scotch Presbyterian Church in West Fourteenth street.

It has taken the Committee which is engaged in prosecuting the case more than a year and a half to prepare the necessary papers and specifications. In November last two charges were brought forward against Dr. Briggs, but the Presbytery refused to take up the matter and dismissed the case by a vote of 94 to 30.

An appeal was taken to the General Assembly and the case was remanded to the Presbytery for a new trial.

The charge against Dr. Briggs accuses him of teaching doctrines to the students of the Union Theological Seminary which are in conflict with the Bible and contrary to the Presbyterian standard, both as regards the authority of the Scriptures and the sanctification of believers after death.

At a meeting of the directors of the Union Theological Seminary yesterday afternoon the resignations of Rev. Drs. John Hall and Robert Russell Booth were accepted with expressions of regret, and the resignations of Drs. White, Dickey and Johnson were also accepted.

No directors of the Seminary will take no active part in the trial of Dr. Briggs this afternoon.
