FOOLISH PREJUDICE.

How Some People Allow a Word, Against which They have a Prejudice, to stand in the way of their own well-being.

The old lady who would not allow her son to have a fiddle, but was willing he should have a violin, is a fair example of the foolish prejudice which very many people have against certain words. Many persons might refuse to take Chloride of Sodium, but would use salt, which is the same thing. Now it is this class of people who usually have a deep prejudice against the words alcohol or whiskey. They know that somebody has abused the use of these articles and hence they denounce them altogether, in spite of the fact that the best scientists and the leading physicians of the present day advocate and use them constantly.

Prof. Austin Flint, of Bellevue (New York) College, says: "The judicious use of alcoholic stimulants is one of the striking characteristics of progress in the practice of medicine during the last half century."

Prof Joseph Parrish, the distinguished author, says: "We know that alcohol will steady the heart, slow the pulse, warm the skin, calm excitement, and we ought to use it."

Prof. M. G. Greenleaf, the well-known author, says: "An intelligent comprehension of the action of alcohol and whiskey, will have a greater influence in promoting temperance than adhesion to a dogma."

Such high scientific authorities show that pure whiskey should be used as a household remedy. No father or mother need hesitate for a moment to administer Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to the children, and it is simply bigotry to allow the word whiskey, which is the name of this medicine, to stand in the way of the wonderful benefits to be derived from its use. It should be remembered, however, that these effects are only to be secured by the use of a pure medicinal whiskey like Duffy's and care should be taken to use no other. se 7 TU

"A Priceless Blessing."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, and all the sudden Throat and Lung Troubles to which young people are subject. Keep this medicine in the house. Hon. C. Edwards Lester, late U. S. Consul to Italy, and author of various popular works, writes:—

"With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral within 24 hours. Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to a vast number of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light and frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is a priceless blessing in any house."

A Letter from Home Says:—

I have used your Extract of Red Clover in my family for the past year with great success, more particularly as regards my wife, who has derived greater and permanent relief by its use, after suffering and being treated by many physicians for years. I consider it my family medicine. As a tonic and spring and fall medicine it is without equal. For Constipation, Dyspepsia and Stomach trouble it is without doubt the very best medicine on the market to-day. You are at liberty to use this as you see fit, and I shall be glad at any time to give my experience with your Extract of Red Clover to any who may write or enquire of me.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancer grew worse under the prescribed treatment, and the toes and one side of the foot were at length eaten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and it cured her sound well. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's Specific a most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison.

CANCER OF THE TONGUE.

For three or four years I had an eating sore on my tongue that made a considerable hole in it. I became alarmed at its progress, and went to Atlanta for treatment. The result was that I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and the sore was soon gone, without a trace of it left. Thomaston, Ga., Mar. 14, '89. A. LEWIS.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Features of the Money and Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Money on call tight, ranging from 6 to 12 per cent; last loan closed offered at 5 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 5½@7 per cent. Sterling Exchange quiet and weak at $4 81¾@4 85½. The total sales of stocks to-day were 256,859 shares.

The stock market was more active, undecidedly weak to-day, and the declines were very material, reaching all portions of the list, although that both trusts, Grangers and stocks, are the principal sufferers, a party of a variety of causes contributed to this end, though the persistent attacks of the bears, under cover, the high rates for money were most effectual in bringing about the downward movement. To aid them this morning there were not only decided opposition to the sugar trust, by Spreckles, but the publication of the statistics of the coal trade for the expired portion of the year, and the late decreases in the earnings of the Grangers. New cuts in rates by the Burlington & Northern and some opposition to the Atchison plan which has developed in London, were also favorable factors. The opening of the market was tame and heavy, and the bears immediately began the attack, paying special attention to sugar, cotton oil, Lackawanna, Rock Island and Chicago gas. The traders lent their influence to the bears, and there was undoubtedly considerable long stock dislodged, while the uncovering of several stop orders accelerated the drop. The close was steady: Delaware & Hudson 2⅝; Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & St. Louis and Burlington, each 1¼; Lackawanna, 1¾; Trans Continental, 1¾; Northern Pacific preferred and Lake Erie & Western preferred, 1⅛ each; Missouri Pacific, 1⅝; Northwestern and Lake Shore, each 1¼; Reading, St. Paul and Chesapeake & Ohio second preferred, each 1⅛; Rock Island and Union Pacific, each 1 per cent, and others fractional amounts.

Railroad bonds dull as usual; the sales of all issues aggregating $810,000.

Government and State bonds dull and steady.
