LOCAL ITEMS.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1867.

We are requested to announce a meeting of the Board of Commissioners to Approve Pub-Securities, at Orangeburg Court House, on Tuesday next, 25th inst., at 9 o'clock A. M. The Boad consists of the following gentlemen: Col. D. R. BARTON, J. G. WANNAMAKER, JAMES STOKES, ADAM SMOKE, Col. A. D. FREDERICK.

DR. B. M. SHULER, at the Southern Drug Store, has on hand a quantity of excellent chewing and smoking tobacco, in fact, the very best in Town.

The Court of Bankruptcy.

The General Orders and Forms of proceeding in the United States Courts in Bankruptcy cases are now published, as well as the names of the Registers appointed for the various Congressional Districts. We understand that JAMES M. RUTLAND Esq., of Fairfield District, has been nominated as Register; but the appointment has not yet been announced by Judge BRYAN, of the United States District Court, who has the appointing power for this State.

$250 Reward.

Governor Orr offers a reward of $250 for the arrest of Vandry Bolin, who is charged with having murdered James Johnson, on the night of the 3rd instant, near 110 mile Station of the South Carolina Railroad, in Barnwell District.

Bolin is a native of this District, and has relatives residing here. He is six feet high, broad-shouldered, high and broad forehead, dark hair, heavy eyebrows, with a down look; weighs about 200 pounds, and is about twenty-two years old.

We publish in another column the full particulars of the murder, from the Charleston Mercury.

—:o:—

☞ We invite attention to the advertisement by Messrs. POHL & MYERS, Proprietors of Branchville Hotel, of a number of fine lots in the growing Town of Branchville. In these times, there is no better investment in Real Estate than Town lots; and Branchville, the centre where three lines of Railroad converge, is going ahead with the times. See the advertisement in another column.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers'
Jewelry Association

Calls your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German war, and recent disastrous financial crisis in Europe, has caused the failure of a large number of Jewelry houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these Bankrupt Goods, at such extremely low prices that we can afford to send away Finer Goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes than any other establishment doing a similar business. Our AIM is to PLEASE, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no Blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Jewelry Association, and have kindly allowed use of their names:

Frederick V. Browne, Esq., Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Piano, value, $150; Miss Anna L.
