Selph. S. Teeme.

BY URIAH SLIPSKIN.

Oh, a wonderful man is Selph. S. Teeme,
For his life is a splendid life;
And time flows by like a pleasant dream,
As calm as his own calm I!
Nor house nor land has Selph. S. Teeme,
Yet he never gets sad or weary;
And railroad bonds are but dross to him,
All the stocks and bonds of Erie.

What a gallant soldier is Selph. S. Teeme!
The imminent deadly breaches
Are naught to the pompous proud extreme
His glorious philosophy teaches;
He rushes in where angels would fear
To tread, and whatever the sequel,
He can place his hand on his heart and say:
"He!
Here never was this man's equal!"

You may dress him in rags and let him go;
He thinks it the richest caparison;
If his head is a gourd, and you tell him so,
'Tis envy that prompts the comparison!
To pierce his hide no barb can be found;
Of the ills that harass every other,
There is scarcely one of the whole that can wound
This wonderful son of his mother.

There are no dark places in life for him,
And none in the life to come;
The birds sing only for Selph. S. Teeme,
And for him all the daisies bloom—
He stands on the corner of 4th each day;
And his soul is full to the brim,
To gaze at the beauty that passes! Nay—nay—
But that beauty may gaze at him!

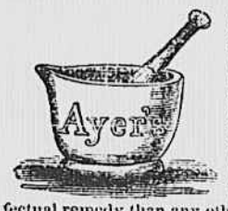
What Solomon says of the man who sets
His face in the glass is a quiz
As to Selph. S. Teeme, for he never forgets
What manner of man he is!
Dame Nature provideth him nothing scant;
It is bountiful, be what it may;
He pompously snappeth his fingers at want,
And sneers in his own proud way.

Let him be who he may, he is Beauty and wealth;
Intelligence—honor—and all—
He is happiness, self-satisfaction and health,
Untainted by Adam's fall!
It is, oh, for a home with Selph. S. Teeme!
To be one short month—him!
To dream but a single golden dream,
That filleth his soul to the brim!

A gentleman in his eagerness at the table to answer a call for some apple-pie, owing to the knife slipping on the bottom of the dish, found his knuckles buried in the crust, when a wag who sat opposite him very gravely observed, whilst he held his plate: "Sir, I'll trouble you for a bit while your hand is in."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use in every country and among all classes as this mild but efficacious purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends; and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but a mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Triumphs of Science.

THE first bottle of Stanley's celebrated COUGH SYRUP was prepared by Mr. Heinitsh, in 1848, for our distinguished fellow-citizen, Captain W. B. Stanley, then on his way to Mexico. The marked success which followed its use, in curing a troublesome cough, with weakness of the lungs, has also marked it as a preparation worth having, for the cure of all affections of the lungs. Thousands now attest its worth, and to-day "Stanley's Cough Syrup" enjoys a higher reputation than any other cough medicine known. Prepared only by E. H. HEINITSH,

Mr. John H. Holmes.

DEAR SIR: The GYPSUM submitted by you for analysis is the most remarkable I have ever seen for its freedom from impurities of every kind, containing as it does but one-third of one per cent. of insoluble matter. If it can be supplied of similar quality, it cannot fail to prove a great boon to Southern agriculture, as there is no crop to which it is not beneficial, whether applied alone or in conjunction with other manures. Very respectfully, your obedient servant. (Signed)
