LOVE, ROMANCE, AND DEATH IN CUBA—THE TRAGEDY OF ROMEO AND JULIET ONCE MORE ENACTED.—A correspondent of the New York Express writes from Cienfuegos, Cuba, in a recent letter, of the following dramatic occurrence:

Quite a romantic and melancholy affair took place here last night. A young man, Carlos Bonfanti, of good family and possessed of considerable means, has for some time been under marriage engagement to a young lady by the name of Carr, who is said to be the most beautiful girl in Cienfuegos. The couple were anxious to consumate the marriage tie, but, in consequence of the opposition of the gentleman's friends, it was deferred, although the parties had proceeded so far as to have a house furnished and the lady's wedding dress prepared; but, finding their wishes frustrated, they determined, as they were denied the happiness of living together in this world, to seek that desirable favor in another, and, in pursuit of this object, each took a dose of strychnine in coffee last night. The poor girl died after having written a long letter to her friends, explaining the cause of taking this sad step. She was buried this afternoon, arrayed in what was to have been her wedding apparel. Her father and sisters are almost crazy under their terrible affliction. The young man is still alive, but his death is looked for every hour, and he declares, positively, that if the present attempt does not succeed, he will adopt such means as will.

NEW YORK HOSPITALITY—INVITING A MAN TO ONE'S HOUSE AND THEN SHOOTING HIM.—A shooting affair occurred recently in Williamsburg, N. Y., of which the circumstances are as follows:

Mr. Hendrickson rents a house from Mr. Lockwood, and the lease having expired a few days ago he was anxious to have it renewed. He spoke to Mr. Lockwood about it, and was refused. An altercation ensued between them, which did not result in any violence. Afterward Mr. Hendrickson spoke to Mr. Lockwood on the subject again, and was told to come to his (Lockwood's) house in the evening, for that purpose. Mr. Hendrickson went about eight o'clock, and was met at the gate by Lockwood, who, on seeing him, cried out: "God d—n you, go out of here," and running into the house procured a rifle, with which he fired at Mr. Hendrickson from a window, the ball passing over his head. Mr. Hendrickson retreated, and as he was going out of the gate Lockwood fired another shot at him with a fowling-piece, heavily loaded with buck shot, nine of them taking effect in the right thigh, groin and abdomen of Mr. Hendrickson.

FREE LOVE OPERATIONS—DUPLEX RESULTS OF THE ERATIC PASSION.—The Utica (N. Y.) Herald records the recent operations of a quartette of "free lovers," in that city, as follows: It seems that Mr. F. Skinner, who has been a somewhat prominent spiritualist, and who is a married man, was siezed with a sudden attraction for a young and blooming damsel named Kate Beardsley, whom he brought home with him. Straightway, Mrs. Skinner was taken with an affinity for a certain Dr. Bentley, a clairvoyant physician, who has recently lectured at the spiritual meeting in Morgan Hall, on the subject of "Conjugal Relations." Dr. Bently has a wife and three children, but he illustrated his faith in the doctrines advanced in his lectures by taking Mrs. Skinner according to the laws of mutual affinity. Rumor has it that this double pair, mated but not married, are now living in the same house, by mutual consent.

AN AMERICAN FIGURING AT THE ITALIAN CARNIVAL.—Letters from Florence state that no Carnival season in that city was ever more gayly celebrated than the one just closed. For a time the tide of American and English visitors setting toward Rome was stayed at Florence by fear of political disturbances, and none enter more delightedly into the vortex of Carnival pleasures than our countrymen, to whom they have the additional piquancy of novelty. At the Corso, on the last day of the festival, Mr. Livingston, who has been many years a resident of Florence, nursing a love for fast horses and an ambition to be considered the best whip in Tuscany, appeared in a barouche, driving twelve in hand. Last year he drove ten horses, and was burlesqued by a mask who drove ten donkeys attached to a cart, directly in the rear of the American's splendid coach.

PROFITABLE SWINDLING OF THE JAPANESE According to advice from the East, the European trade with Japan has been stopped, in consequence of the manner in which the trafic for gold has been carried on. Some Indian capitalists are reported to have made large profits through the ignorance of the population of the relative value of gold and silver. The people, it is said, were induced to exchange their gold for silver, weight for weight, and the practice was not even checked until they found the Europeans would not, when occasion required, barter the gold back on similar terms. A gradual appreciation of the gold then took place, but even at the date of last accounts a gain of forty per cent. was being realized by such purchases as could be effected.

TELEGRAPHIC DECEPTION—A FEATHERY JOKE.—The Lockport Journal reports a practical joke perpetrated by one of the operators in the telegraph office in this city on those engaged in the Lockport office. The following message was sent by the former to the latter:

To J. Bird—Do you want any feathers? Will sell cheap. Answer. Bob. O. Link.

The Journal says the messenger boy was despatched to find J. Bird, and after making a circuit of the town found a man by that name, a cartman residing south of High-street. He did not want any feathers, however, and knew nothing about it! The operator at this place began to be enlightened when asked by the Rochester joker how jay birds and bobolinks were.

NEW NOZZLE FOR A HOSE PIPE.—A man in New York has invented a new nozzle for hose pipe. The invention consists of three nozzles of different sizes fastened to a revolving plate eccentric to the the end of the pipe, so that by simply turning the plate, either of the nozzles can be brought to the end of the pipe. The advantage is that when it is necessary to change from a small to a large stream, the reverse during the progress of a fire, instead of having to unscrew the pipe, the change can be made by simply pushing upon a spring.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—Brigham Young, it is said, has obtained possession of deeds of half the farms in Utah, and apostacy is followed by beggary, and perhaps by death. Considering it as an established fact that the mass of the people are religious fanatics, acknowledging but one spiritual and temporal head, holding it a religious duty, and bound by every interest to obey the decrees of the Church, it becomes an important question to ascertain the purposes and pretensions of the Church.

A SABLE DAUGHTER PINING TO DEATH.—The Rochester, (N. Y.) Express records the death of a daughter of Frederick Douglass. Since her father's absence she had lost her appetite and interest in her occupation, and had gradually sunk away and died. She had gotten the idea firmly fixed in her mind that her father would never come back, and that if he did return he would have to go to prison and execution.

A LAW SUIT INVOLVING AN ENTIRE CITY.—A suit, involving the title to the whole city of San Francisco, is to be commenced in the Supreme Court at Washington, on the first Monday in April next. The claim is made under a Mexican grant to a Catholic priest, and the case rests upon the question of the genuineness of the grant. There is a formidable army of eminent lawyers on the side of the claimants.

THE ALBANY FORGERIES.—The investigation now in progress at Albany, N. Y., in the forgery case of John H. Zeh, has disclosed notes alleged to have been forged to the amount of over $20,000. The number of notes thus far produced is thirty-eight.
