The True Beauty---Theodosia Burr.

THE following interesting article, the suggestions contained in which are well worthy of regard, is from the Independent:

The influence of beauty is universal, and an influence to which every one will confess himself susceptible, whether it be the beautiful in nature or in art. But the beauty of the human face is perhaps the most impressive, and yet there are few who think it depends at all on cultivation. The commonly received idea is that one is born good or ill looking, and can not help himself—which is a very false and injurious notion.

There may be cultivated upon every face an enchanting beauty—an expression which will enkindle admiration in every one who looks upon it, which will attract attention and win love far more than any mere physical combination—any perfection of form or coloring.

The physiognomist insists that the character is indelibly stamped upon the face—that what one uniformly thinks and feels traces itself in unmistakeable lines upon the brow and cheek. This I fully believe; though there may be so many variations that it requires long and skillful practice to read correctly what is written.

Aaron Burr is known to every American as a heartless, unprincipled man, but well versed in the knowledge of the world and the workings of the human heart. He had an only daughter, of whom he was very proud, and of whom he was determined to make a noble, high-minded woman. Yes, he said, when she was a child, if I thought she would grow up a mere fashionable worldling, I would prefer to see her in an early grave. He well knew the shoals and quicksands on which women were in danger of being wrecked, and very carefully he guarded his daughter that evils he knew so well should not come upon her.

He began in earliest childhood to cultivate and store her mind. He wished her to be an elegant and accomplished woman, but he did not fear that knowledge, however profound or abstruse, would destroy her true womanly qualities, and he knew it would be one of the best safe-guards in the midst of temptation, disappointment and sorrow. She was familiar with several languages, and was instructed in all the learning of the schools which is usually thought only necessary for boys, while the accomplishments considered exclusively adapted to woman were not neglected.

But bad, and wholly irreligious and immoral as he was himself, the father was scrupulously careful that his daughter should grow up with very different sentiments. She was not beautiful, was not even handsome; but he told her that beauty was a thing of cultivation; and if at any time she was moody or impatient or irritable, she was counselled to look in the mirror, and see the effect it had upon her countenance, and the habitual indulgence of these tempers, she was told, would make any face repulsive. She was not commanded to be cheerful, good-tempered and benevolent, for these would have been sure to increase the evil he was trying to remedy, but a motive was given her that would be almost sure to influence a child and a woman, besides setting forth the importance of the virtues themselves, he was inculcating. It was so thoroughly impressed upon her that kindness, disinterestedness, and charity to all would cause her brow to beam with a spiritual beauty more desirable than any nature alone could confer, that it was a continual suggestion to the cultivation of right feelings, and the restraining of bad ones.

The wicked man, too, understood the necessity of appearing good in the eyes of his child, and so well did he succeed that she honored him as almost superhuman, and loved him with the most earnest affection. When he was from home he wrote her every day, and every day expected her to write to him, thus accustoming her to the expression of her thoughts and opinions, keeping himself informed of her progress in her studies and the development of her mind, and creating the strongest chain to bind him to her heart.

Theodosia was the idol and object of unceasing care and attention of the man whose life was devoted to schemes of ambition and debasing self-gratification, and it is strange that he did not attempt to be what he was continually attempting to seem in her eyes.

When she became a young lady, she was called handsome, and pronounced by many Europeans the most accomplished American woman of her day. Her manners, as well as the expression of her countenance, were characterized by a dignity and sweetness which won the love as well as the admiration of all who saw her.

It may seem a foolish motive to present to a child, the desire to be beautiful, and it might very easily be misconstrued and misapplied. To attempt to cultivate the expression without the qualities of heart on which alone it depends, would be very likely to stamp upon the face a meaningless simper or a hypocritical smile, which would be anything but pleasing. Our first impressions of a person are derived from the expression of the face and manners. We every day hear the expression, "That is a good face," "I like that countenance," or "What pleasing manners," and these are generally very true indications of character. And a face which is repulsive, an external appearance from which we shrink involuntarily, will be almost sure to belong to a character from which we should shrink too.

THERE was considerable excitement in the New York Court of Sessions on Saturday afternoon. The Grand Jury came into court with their presentment and budget of indictments. When it was reported about that several officials had been presented for malfeasance in office, there was a profound sensation. No less than three Aldermen, three Councilmen and two police Justces have been indicted.

A writer in the New York Evening Post estimates the expense of a gentleman and lady boarding at one of the hotels at Newport for ten weeks, with the extra charges for washing, bathing, rides, concerts at the most economical rate, at two thousand dollars! Hundreds spend that amount in half the time.

Dr. W. H. FREEMAN, writing from the plague stricken city of Norfolk, says: "I have seen several epidemics, but none which can be compared in its sweeping virulence to this. Last year, I was one of the physicians in Barbadoes—employed by the executive of that island—during the prevalence of epidemic cholera, when, out of 135,000 souls, upwards of 22,000 were swept off in about six or seven weeks. This was one in every six. Here, I fear, the mortality will exceed one in five of the inhabitants remaining during the visitation. Unparalleled in the annals of history.

THE Philidelphia Times, of late date, contains the following pungent paragraph: "We saw two hogs lying side by side yesterday, in the gutter, with a remarkable resemblance to each other. One had a ring in his nose, and the other had a ring on his finger; one was a beast by nature, the other was a beast from inclination."

An Editor Killed.

THE Memphis News of the 24th says:—"We learn in a private note to the editor from the postmaster at Helena, Arkansas—who is a reliable gentleman—that an affray occurred in that place, on Saturday last, between James M. Cleveland, Esq., editor of the "Star," and Q. K. Underwood, Esq., editor of the "Shield." They fought with pistols and knives. Mr. Underwood was mortally, and Mr. Cleveland dangerously wounded. The difficulty grew out of a newspaper controversy. When the note was written Mr. U. was thought to be dying. We have no further particulars."

Cincinnati Market.

FRIDAY EVENING, October 12.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—The Flour market was dull and heavy to day, and the sales were confined to 148 brls, at $7 75. The unfavorable advices from New York have a depressing influence, and sales couldnot have been made to any extent at close, except at material decline. The receipts continue light, comprising only 2,043 brls; during the last twenty four hours. Oats are dull at 27 a 28c.

WHISKEY—The market was again better today, and the sales comprising 660 brls, from canal and river at 33½c, and 150 do. from wagon at [illegible]

CHEESE—The market is firm with a continued good demand. The sales comprise 700 boxes at 3 3½c.

BUTTER—A sale of 35 firkins common summer packed at 15½c.

OIL—The demand for Linseed is quite active. The sales to-day comprise 99 brls. at 91c; 16do. at 93c., and 28 do. at 93c., cash.

MOLASSES—Sales of 83 brls. at 40c. Market dull.

COFFEE—The sales comprise 160 bags at 11¾a12¼c. for fair and prime red. The market is less buoyant.

SEED—A sale of 25 bushels at $3,25

SUGAR—Nothing doing worthy of report.—The market continues dull.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS a certain Remedy for indigestion and Liver Complaint.—Maria Armstrong (47.) of Edgartown, New Jersey, suffered more than most people from indigestion, accompanied by liver complaint, several very clever medical men told her she was in a consumption, and her friends despaired of her ever recovering, as she had tried everything they thought likely to benefit her, without success. At last she tried Holloway's Pills, which quietly assimilated with the blood, removed the obnoxious matter, and thoroughly cleansed and renovated the system. The result is, that she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health. These Pills are also a certain cure for all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

LUMBER-MEN, BOAT-BUILDER AND ALL OTHERS INTERESTED IN SAW MILLS.
We, the undersigned, having become sole Agents of the right of RALSTON'S PATENT PORTABLE SAW MILLS, in the following Territory, viz: All that part of Southern Ohio not sold, embracing Lawrence, Scioto, Jackson Vinton, Gallia, and several other counties, the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, California, and all the Territories of the United States and the South half of Illinois.
We have fully tested the practicability of said Mill, and having done so we confidently claim for it the following advantages over any other saw mill now in use:
1st. Its cheapness and durability.
2d. We can move the mill to timber, instead of timber to mill.
3d. The carriage runs level with the ground, and is in sections so that the timber can be sawed of any length, without stump shot as the saw cuts both ways.
4th. The saw runs horizontally and begins on the top of the log, which prevents all springing and is peculiarly adapted to the sawing of Ship Plank, Floor Timbers, &c.
5th. It can be attached to any Steam or Water Power, and will not require more than half of the power that is used in the ordinary Saw Mills, and will do as good work and more of it than those with the vertical saw.
PROOF.
Two of these mills are now in operation at Wheeling, Va., one in Columbus, O., one at Warren, Trumbull county, O., and hundreds in other places, all constantly running, as a sample for inspection to all. The saw is driven by a six-horse engine, and placed upon a frame that is also portable.
We are prepared to manufacture the above described Portable Horizontal Saw Mills, with or without Engines, at short notice, at reasonable prices—with Township Rights—put them up and give a WARRANTEE, in any of the above described territory, or in any other portion of the United States, not previously disposed of.
This mill is portable, and, capable of transportation wherever there is navigation or roads. Any information wanted, or orders sent by mail address the undersigned, "Ironton, Ohio."—They will promptly ship to order, Mills, to any port or rail road depot in any of the above territory. For further particulars refer to U. B. WHITE, Newton Falls, Trumbull co Ohio, or to any lumber man in use of the mill.

Let us Reason Together.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
WHY ARE WE SICK?
IT has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFIRM, of all climes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines in the United States, and offers them to free and enlightened people, as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.
THESE PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD
These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.
DYSPEPSIA & LIVER COMPLAINTS.
Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.
GENERAL DEBILITY. ILL HEALTH.
Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.
FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
No Female, young or old, should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint; consequently no family should be without it.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:
Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Debility, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Headaches, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Piles, Stone and Gravel, Secondary Symptoms, Venereal affections Worms of all kinds.
☞ Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers of Medicines throughout the United States, and the civilized world, in boxes of 25 cents, 62½ cents, and $1 each.
☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the large sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.

A MARVELLOUS REMEDY!
For a Marvellous Age!!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
THE GRAND EXTERNAL REMEDY.
BY the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, disorders of the Liver, affections of the heart, inflammation of the Lungs, Asthma, Coughs, and Colds are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes freely through bone or meat of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.
ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM, AND SCORBUTIC HUMORS.
No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Scrofula or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.
SORE LEGS, SORE BREASTS, WOUNDS AND ULCERS.
Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Professor Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, dispatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.
PILES AND FISTULAS.
