MAY COST HIM AN EYE.

Walter Morganthaler Injured at Edward L. Hall's Dinner.

His Accession to Fortune and Majority Celebrated at the N. Y. A. C.

A Glass Hurled by One of the Diners Cut the Attendant's Eye.

Theodore Morganthaler, a well-known [illegible] at the New York Athletic Club, celebrated his 21st birthday last night at his home, 253 West Forty-second street, with a badly bruised eye.

The festivities were [illegible] given at the Club-house, Seventh avenue and Thirty-fourth street, by Edward L. Hall, [illegible] and his [illegible] of $100,000 [illegible].

It was intended [illegible] Hall's fortune [illegible] he has begun to speculate [illegible] time a goodly [illegible] the loss of the stake of [illegible] may result.

While it is generally [illegible] that Morganthaler's [illegible] fact alone is [illegible] any his sporty [illegible].

Hall is a member of Assembly District [illegible] well-known [illegible] and lives with his mother, Mrs. [illegible] Park and 11 West Thirty-[illegible] street.

He was [illegible] Evening World [illegible] the story of the night's [illegible] gantlet.

From the [illegible] it was evidently [illegible] rather [illegible] Hall [illegible] several other [illegible] college [illegible] Hall's story [illegible] the [illegible] in the [illegible] dinner [illegible] to the [illegible] Acting under the [illegible] expense [illegible] caterer [illegible] young [illegible] things from [illegible] At the suggestion [illegible] went up to the [illegible] Hall [illegible] boxing [illegible] [illegible] amused with [illegible] shifty, and [illegible] as [illegible] boxing [illegible].

If the [illegible] Morganthaler would probably [illegible] both eyes [illegible] and [illegible] most exhilarating [illegible].

For [illegible] finally [illegible] they had [illegible] began boxing [illegible].

Naturally [illegible] and as the [illegible] revived to [illegible] covers off [illegible] throwing [illegible] every thing they could lay hands on at each other.

The waiters were [illegible] pressed to move, for as the [illegible] location more than [illegible].

It was about [illegible] Morganthaler [illegible] slipped in a [illegible] Harry, whom [illegible] Hall in the right eye.

Blood flowed freely from the [illegible] the spectacle [illegible] sufficiently for the [illegible] Morganthaler had [illegible] Hall [illegible] carriage, for he [illegible] said:

"I am very sorry, [illegible] and I have [illegible] handed him a $20 bill.

Dr. [illegible] who was in the house [illegible] Morganthaler [illegible] through the crowd, [illegible] home.

[illegible] Manhattan [illegible] avenue and [illegible].

Not [illegible] Hall [illegible] Bellevue [illegible] Hall [illegible] Morganthaler [illegible] Hall [illegible] Morganthaler [illegible] Hall [illegible] Morganthaler