The Republican County Convention at Caldwell a Tame Affair.

HARRISON'S GOOD FRIENDS

They Were Not Conspicuous at the Meeting—The Kind of Timber the Party is Composed of.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BOISE, Idaho, April 21.—The republican county convention held yesterday at Caldwell to send delegates to Pocatello to name delegates to the presidential nominating convention at Minneapolis, is said to have been a very quiet affair. Resolutions endorsing the Harrison administration; the efforts of Idaho's representatives in congress to secure free coinage of silver were adopted. A resolution favoring Hon. Fred T. Dubois, and expressing thanks to the senators who supported him in the recent Dubois-Clagett contest was also adopted. If the report that has reached this city is true, this was all done with little or no enthusiasm. The men who are drinking at the fountain of federal patronage were on deck, and it is said had the thing practically in their own hands. When a motion was made by S. L. Tipton of Boise City to have the delegates to Pocatello instructed to work for a Harrison delegation to Minneapolis, the little crowd snowed it under so deep that it took Mr. Tipton fully 20 minutes to shovel it out and warm it back into life. Tipton rallied and offered this motion the second time only to see it snowed about 75 feet deeper than before. Mr. Harrison will no doubt feel disappointed and heartbroken when he hears how that part of his family who met at Caldwell yesterday led by his special favorites left him in the cold.

It is strange that the gallant United States marshal, Joe Pinkham, and Assistant United States Attorney Edgar Wilson, the "Chesterfield" of the Ada county republicans, both on the grounds early and late, had to wait for Mr. Tipton to spring this motion in favor of "Uncle Ben," and it is stranger still that they did not pull off their hats and work like beavers to have it passed. "Uncle Ben" possibly may institute an inquiry into this reckless way of not having him "in it." One thing the convention did do, however, is commendable, and that was to instruct for Montie B. Gwinn as one of the delegates to Minneapolis. Gwinn is a level-headed business man who has risen from obscurity and poverty by his own efforts to be one of the leading hardware men of Idaho.

The people's party has issued a call for a state convention to meet in Boise City May 26. Just what this convention may decide upon no one here ventures to say. It is the general opinion of all parties that this third party movement is going to have a bad effect on one or the other of the old parties—perhaps the republican party, as most of the converts to the movement seem to be from that party.

A Lumberman's Rendezvous.

This term might be applied to Stevens Point, located on the Wisconsin Central lines, at the gateway to the vast forest region which extends north to Lake Superior, a distance of 200 miles without a break, on account of its vast lumber interests. The Wisconsin river, to which the lumbermen have given the familiar and somewhat affectionate title of "Old Wiscons," not alone acts as a lumber feeder to the city by furnishing through its numerous tributaries an outlet for thousands of acres of pine in the upper country, but it furnishes a water power that is second to that only of Neenah and Menasha, which cities are also located on the "Central." Millions of feet of lumber are cut every year, giving employment to hundreds of men. In addition to the lumber trade, it has numerous other manufactories; it is here where the large car shops of the Wisconsin Central lines are located.

For tickets, maps, pamphlets and full information apply to G. F. McNeill, G. P. & T. A., Minneapolis, Minn., or to James C. Pond, G. P. & T. A., Chicago, Ill.
