POINTERS ON THE RACES.

No High Class Entries, but an Interesting Card at the Hilltop.

The Mile Event Should Furnish the Best Sport of the Day.

The entries at Guttenburg to-day are not as high class as those of yesterday or on preceding days of the week. Nevertheless, the card looks interesting, and as the fields are quite large some excellent racing may be seen.

The handicap is absent to-day, but in its place there is a mile event that should furnish a good contest. Rambler, Westchester, Allan Bane, Kirkover, Theirs L. and Even Weight should go well together.

The opening event, a dash of four and a half furlongs, has fifteen entries, and among the probable starters are several sprinters of considerable ability. April Fool, Detroit, Guard, Capulin, Brooklyn and Irregular should make a pretty race. A good field of two-year-olds are named to go in the second event, and Prince Howard, Mary S., Mulatto, Polydora and Vocalite will make the third event worth looking at. The track will be in good shape. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race.—Purse $400, selling allowances, four and a half furlongs.

	Ft.
M. J. Daly's Detroit	118
W. H. Dodd's April Fool	117
Bennett & Warn's Addie B	111

D. Johnson's Alarm Bee	104
M. Hogan's Tammany Hall	104
Excelsior Stable's Onyx	101
W. H. Thorpe's Moonstone	100
J. Shields's Brooklyn	98
Phoenix Stock Farm's High	96
H. Bradley's Kitty N	94
M. J. Garrigan's Panitzen	88

Brooklyn ought to win this event without any difficulty. Detroit may be the runner up and April Fool ought to beat the others.

Second Race.—Purse $400, for two-year-olds, four furlongs.

L. E. Myers's Lonsdale	106
M. J. Daly's Come Home	104
J. Shields's Ellen H	101
Baden Stable's Tody Smith	98
W. E. Cotton's Dudina	98
F. Leigh's Bow Knot	98
J. H. McCormick's Violetta	98
J. Wilson's Unfaithful	98

Tody Smith looks the likely winner of this event. Helen S.'s last race will improve her and she may be second. Vocalite ought to beat the others.

Third Race.—Purse $400, selling allowances, six furlongs.

M. Daly's Amos A	112
J. A. Mahony's Prince Howard	110
D. Higgins' Polydora	107
J. H. McCormick's Vocalite	106
Auburn Stable's Double Cross	106
W. Carroll's Mulatto	103
J. Shields's Mary S	98

Mary S. and Polydora seem to have this race between them, and they may finish as named. Mulatto may be third.

Fourth Race.—Purse, $500, selling allowances, one mile.

F. Leigh's Rambler	113
J. H. McCormick's Westchester	109
M. J. Daly's Allan Bane	104
C. J. Kelly's Kirkover	101
Chesapeake Stable's Theirs L	97
H. Bradley's Even Weight	97

Westchester should capture this event, and Allan Bane, who is very good just now, may be the runner up. Theirs L. ought to beat the others.

Fifth Race.—Purse $400, selling allowances, six furlongs.

P. H. Ryan's Capulin	110
J. Shields's Skadi	107
Crescent Stable's Rightaway	104
M. T. Donovan's Mary	104
Camden Stable's Rear Guard	92
Clifton Stable's Perchance	92
L. Thompson's Lady Mary	90

Skadi, Rightaway and Rear Guard look to be the pick of this lot, and they are preferred in the order named.

Sixth Race.—Purse $400, selling allowances, seven furlongs.

M. Daly's Richal	124
T. Welch's Climax	124
Rock City Stable's Silver Prince	122
W. Gallagher's Dago	117

ALLEGED HORSE THIEVES HELD.

Jersey Policemen Recover Fahey's Handsome Chestnut.

Policemen Meiurk and Maxwell, of the Second Precinct, Jersey City, this morning arrested two men who were driving a handsome chestnut colored horse. The men gave their names as Hugh Gallagher, of Seventy-fourth street, New York, and Charles Sherman, of 529 West Thirty-sixth street, New York.

Gallagher told the policemen that they had taken the horse from the sales-stable of Michael Haley, at Seventy-fourth street and the Boulevard, to be delivered to a party in Hackensack, who had purchased him. It was found that no man named Haley had a sale-stable at Seventy-fourth street and the boulevard, but subsequently the police of the Twenty-fifth Precinct reported to Police Headquarters that a horse answering the description and a harness with the letters "W. B. H." had been stolen from the sales-stable of Michael Haley, at Seventy-fourth street and Avenue A.

Mr. Haley went to Jersey City this morning and identified the horse and harness as having been stolen from his stable late last night. Police Justice O'Donnell committed the prisoners to the county jail.

Accused of Keeping Insurance Fees.

Detective Sergt. Price, of the Brooklyn Central Office, to-day arrested Bernard Toner, of 89 South Fourth street, on a charge of collecting $75 from policy-holders in the Prudential Life Insurance Company and keeping it.

HACKMEN WILL NOT SHAVE.

Preparing to Resist the Order from the Hotel Keepers.

Faces Without Whiskers Will Bring Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption.

The hack-drivers of Gotham are up in arms because some of the hotels have issued an edict that whiskers and moustaches must go or the drivers will lose the patronage of those establishments.

The new record has, it is said, tyranny and oppression and hints that they will never submit to it. They have many grievances against their employers as it is, and this last order is the straw which breaks the camel's back, in other words, they draw the line at a clean shave.

The Liberty Dawn Association, which is a local associate of the Knights of Labor, to which most of the hackmen belong, has taken up the matter and a mass-meeting will be held to-morrow night at 58 East Forty-second street at which resolutions protesting against the edict and other grievances will be adopted and the whole system of employment which, it is claimed, they are in some way affected by their employers will be thoroughly exposed.

Secretary John McCormack said: "Let the new order go into effect and all the men who have worn whiskers for years will catch their death cold, and the tanks of the hospitals will therefore be repaid, I imagine.

"Whiskers, we all know, are good for the lungs, which is the reason why we are more particularly exposed to the elements than any other class of men in the community.

"With a full frame of whiskers I can go through the hottest kitchen and come out perfectly cool, and with the room at extreme cold the same thing will strike me full in the marrow, and grip, pneumonia and consumption will be the result.

"The situation is undoubtedly a critical one, and the hackmen feel that the time has come when they must strike a strong blow for personal liberty and deliver themselves from the hands of the oppressor.

"Why the edict against whiskers should be issued I do not think, for the hotel people have not thought it necessary to explain their motives. It is believed, however, that it is merely for the purpose of conforming to a fashionable fad which has obtained a foothold in important household circuits so we are informed, under any circumstances, and that society is trying to regulate the personal appearance of the servants of public houses as well.

"This makes the hackmen mad, and they are determined to resist to the last this encroachment upon their rights. They say that District Assembly 49 has offered to assist them in their fight against this unjust and tyrannical edict.

PUZZLES THE OLD PEOPLE.

Guesses About the Mysterious Skeleton Found Near Babylon, L. I.

BABYLON, L. I., April 7.—The skeleton which was unearthed by laborers on the Fox estate yesterday is supposed to date back to Capt. Kidd's time.

The bones are now on exhibition at the village undertaker's, where they have been viewed by many persons. They crumble when handled.

Some of the good old country folks are willing to believe that the remains are those of a victim of Capt. Kidd, while others say that the most sensible conclusion is that the skeleton is that of an Indian, as the place where the bones were dug up was at one time an Indian burying ground.

"Gentlemen: It is from sheer force of circumstances I write you a few lines to let you know what I think of your Hood's Sarsaparilla. Some three years ago I was taken down with a malarial and mercurial poisoning, rheumatism and neuralgia, &c. I was in a very bad condition, and was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am happy to say it did me a great deal of good. I have since then recommended it to many others, and shall do so at every opportunity I get, as I know it to be a good medicine. Yours truly, J. H. STILLMAN, Cincinnati, O."

ANDOVER WANTS DR. VAN DYKE.

Rev. Dr. Briggs's Supporter Offered a Professorship.

No Objection Will Be Made to His Liberal Presbyterianism.

New York clergymen seem to be in great demand for positions of honor and responsibility outside the state. Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, of the Brick Presbyterian Church, on Fifth avenue, has just received an invitation to accept the Bartlett Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric at the Andover Theological Seminary, until recently filled by Prof. W. J. Tagger, who left it to become President of Dartmouth College.

REV. DR. HENRY VAN DYKE.

The Board of Trustees at Andover are very anxious to get Dr. Van Dyke, and the call was signed by them unanimously. It is a congregational seminary, but the Trustees say they have no concern as to allowing Dr. Van Dyke to remain in the Presbyterian Church, which is the denomination of the Seminary also and Presbyterian in name and fact.

The Brick Church congregation would be very sorry to lose Dr. Van Dyke, and they will use every effort to induce him to remain in New York. He has not yet decided what he will do and this is the matter under consideration, however.

Dr. Van Dyke believes in the progressive and liberal wing of the Presbyterian church and has a strong show in Andover and supporter in Dr. Briggs, during his prosecution on the charge of heresy. Dr. Briggs's friends in Andover have offered to give him a lectureship at Andover if he should be tried and found guilty of heresy by the Presbyterian General Assembly, which is now in session at Detroit. Dr. Briggs's friends say that this offer is a very remarkable one, and that it shows how much the Andover people think of Dr. Briggs.

TROLLEY ACROSS THE PLAZA.

Horses Must Be Used During Certain Hours.

Commissioner Brower and Brooklyn Railroads Compromise.

The long and bitter fight between the Brooklyn Trolley Roads and the Park Commissioner has at last been settled by a compromise.

The Brooklyn City and Brooklyn and Coney Island Railroad Companies have been trying for months to get permission to string trolley wires across the Prospect Park plaza. Even the courts were invoked in behalf of the railroads.

Commissioner Brower has decided to allow the companies to string their wires under certain conditions. Horses must be used on the cars crossing the plaza between 4 and 7 P. M. in Winter, and 3 to 8 P. M. in Summer. Flagmen must be posted at frequent intervals along the track during the hours when the cars are run by electric power.

TURNED OUT IN THE NIGHT.

Six Italian Families Move Their Belongings to the Sidewalk

Fire Marshal Lewis, of Brooklyn, is to-day investigating the fire which destroyed a large quantity of wool in the wool packing-house adjoining the slaughter-house of Aaron Levy, 260 and 262 Hudson avenue, Brooklyn, last night.

Mr. Levy is unable to account for the origin of the fire except on the theory that a spark from an engine on the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, which passes the door, was blown into the building and started the blaze.

The building is a four-story structure, strongly built. The upper floors were stored with wool and the lower floor with hides. The entire stock is valued at $60,000. The flames were discovered at 11 o'clock.

When the firemen reached the scene the entire third floor was ablaze. The firemen had hard work to get the water on the blaze on account of the high pressure of the water. They were compelled to stop the trains and streams of water were directed through the windows from the railroad track.

In the rear of the building there is a tenement-house occupied by Italians. Many of them moved their belongings into the sidewalk and refused to return to their homes until long after the fire was out.

There actually brought a fresh engine, hose, hook and ladder, or a new number of hand-hose, to the entire [illegible] After an hour's work, however, the flames were subjected.

The loss of the building is [illegible] $20,000, principally by water.

Another Letter to Women.

May 25, '92, Syracuse, N. Y.

"Dear Madam:

"I want to tell you what your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done for me.

"I was so bad with falling of the womb and Leucorrhœa that I could not stand.

"I had doctored so much without benefit I was entirely discouraged. I expected to die.

"One evening I read in the 'Herald' about your medicine. I got some and took 2 bottles of the Compound and a box of the Sanative Wash.

"I am now well and strong, and never troubled with either of the complaints. If more women would use your Compound, there would be less suffering and misery in the world."
