BROOKLYN NEWS.

WHAT IS IN THIS SAFE?

More Jewels May Come to Light in Giesman's Place.

Capt. Short Expects Developments in the Diamond Robbery Case.

Capt. Short, of the Fifth Precenct, Williamsburg, told an "Evening World" reporter this morning that it was only a question of a little time before the mystery regarding the ownership of the diamonds now in his custody would be solved.

"We are making progress all the time," he said, "and several clues which have not yet been made public are panning out very nicely. I am going uptown now to show this circular to the Superintendent."

At this point Capt. Short exhibited a bit of paper printed in French, which had been found wrapped around one of the smaller uncut diamonds.

The circular translated is to the effect that Alexandre Volkinger has enlarged his jewelry shop, which would be moved to 218 Rue du Faubourg, St. Antoine, Paris. This information was telegraphed to Paris today, and the French detectives are already at work on the case. Capt. Short expects that some very important developments will result from the discovery of this circular.

The inventory of the stock of jewels has not yet been completed, as work was stopped yesterday when the circular was found. Jeweller Jacob Morch was on hand again this morning, and said that he expects the work to be concluded by nightfall.

An interesting phase of the case, from the standpoint of the detectives, is the whereabouts of Louis Giesman, who kept a saloon at 158 Bedford avenue. The police know that he was a friend of the woman Dolle, and have also discovered that a few days ago he bought a large new safe.

When Leroux and Jeanne Dolle, his wife, were arrested, Giesman disappeared. The police have been looking for him without success, and Capt. Short intimated to-day that the safe would probably be broken open this afternoon, as it was thought that more diamonds would be found in it.

Crap-Shooters Not Sent to Jail.

Six little boys who were arrested for shooting craps at corner of Wythe avenue and South First street, Williamsburg, yesterday, were arraigned before Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Court to-day. Sentence was suspended.

SIX POINTS out of many, where Doctor Pierce's Pellets are better than other pills:

1. They're the smallest, and easiest to take—little, sugar-coated granules that every child takes readily.
2. They're perfectly easy in their action—no griping, no disturbance.
3. Their effects last. There's no reaction afterwards. They regulate or cleanse the system, according to size of dose.
4. They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.
5. Put up in glass—are always fresh.
6. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

LINEMEN FEEL ENCOURAGED.

They Get Word from Jersey that Their Friends There Are Out.

They Hope To Win the Strike Before the Week Is Ended.

The striking electrical linemen in Brooklyn were jubilant this morning, when a despatch was received from Jersey City, stating that the linemen over there had been granted an advance in wages from $2.50 to $3 a day, and had quit work at 9 o'clock.

The men now feel confident that the crisis of the strike will occur before the end of the week, and that it will end in their favor.

Few of them were about Brooklyn this morning, as a number had left for Johnstown, N. Y., in answer to a telegram, calling for thirty-five men at the union price of $3 a day.

The only men in Brooklyn who are out now are a few from the Telephone Company and the employees of the Citizens' Electric Light and Brooklyn City Railroad Companies. All the other companies have given in.

The Brooklyn City Railroad Company's offer to compensate by an advance to $2.75 a day has been refused by the Union. The men say they expect the Company to call back the men before Wednesday.

The strike is practically at an end so far as the linemen of the Citizens' Electric Light Company are concerned, as Electrical Superintendent Peck sent word to Chief Miller, President of the National Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, that the directors were anxious to have him and the committee from the men, with a view to arbitrating matters, as quickly as possible.

If the Electric Light company does not agree to the request of the strikers, Chief Miller, it is said, will go at once to Jersey City to arrange for a general strike of all the linemen employed throughout the State.

FIRE IN THE BARGE OFFICE.

An Employee Strikes a Match to Search for a Gas Leak.

There was quite a lively little blaze in the Barge Office at the Battery this morning, and for a time it looked as if the long shed recently used for the landing of immigrants might go up in smoke.

Shortly after 9 o'clock an employee in the baggage department lighted a match to find out where a gas raised in the baggage room under the main staircase. There was a loud explosion and the pine stairs ascending flew.

Roundsman Fallon and the other officers on duty at the Barge Office, besides the men of the revenue cutter Manhattan, Washington and Chandler, lying at their docks, put out the fire in about half an hour.

PURCELL SENTENCED.

Eleven Years and One Month for Killing Farrell.

Saloon-Keeper William Purcell, convicted of killing John P. Farrell last New Year's night, was sentenced this forenoon to eleven years and one month in Sing Sing by Justice Ingraham in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

Purcell's conviction was for manslaughter in the first degree.

The Judge said he would have imposed the highest penalty (twenty years) but for the fact that the jurors had signed a petition recommending mercy, and he has received letters from several persons speaking highly of Purcell's character.

Mrs. Mulligan Has Religious Mania.

The young woman who was found kneeling and praying aloud on East Eighty-first street yesterday morning, and who was afterwards committed to Bellevue for examination as to her sanity, gave her name to-day as Mrs. Maggie Mulligan, twenty-four years old, a housekeeper. She would not reveal her address. House-Physician Douglas said that she is suffering from religious mania.

TO ESCAPE PERSECUTION.

Miss Munsell Asks to Be Committed to Jail.

Lillian Munsell, a pretty brunette, eighteen years old, was a prisoner by her own choice in the Raymond Street Jail, Brooklyn, this morning waiting to be tried for a technical charge of vagrancy.

She said she wanted to be committed to the penitentiary in order to evade the alleged persecution of her aunt, who she says tried to coerce her into marrying her cousin.

Miss Munsell says she was already betrothed to William Priestly, of Greenpoint, and that when her aunt heard of her engagement she beat her and turned her out of the house.

She wandered about the streets for several hours, and finally approached a policeman and asked to be arrested.

SOME ONE'S LITTLE GIRL FOUND.

Five-Year-Old Child Picked Up on the Street in Brooklyn.

The police of Second Precinct, Brooklyn, are this morning looking for the parents of a pretty little five-year-old girl who was found lost in the streets last evening.

She wears a light gray dress, a blue sailor jacket, a brown straw hat, trimmed with brown ribbons and yellow roses, black stockings and button shoes.

She is at the Second Precinct Station-House.

Dead Woman Was Rose O'Connor.

Mary O'Connor, a domestic employed by Dr. Kretchmar, of 402 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, this morning, identified the woman who died on the steps of the building at 100 Greene avenue, as her mother, Rose O'Connor. Mrs. O'Connor was fifty-eight years old, a widow, and had been employed for years in the family of Dr. Kretchmar.

SEARCH FOR MRS. HAMILTON-COX

No Clue Found to the Whereabouts of the Missing Actress.

The Brooklyn police are taking more than an ordinary interest in the search for Mrs. Nellie Hamilton-Cox, who was formerly well known on the comic opera stage as Nellie Hamilton. She mysteriously disappeared from her home at 302 Dean street on Tuesday last.

John F. Cox, her husband, has visited all the hospitals in New York and Brooklyn and communicated with her friends in various cities, but as yet he has not received the slightest clue to her whereabouts.

Mr. Cox believes that she met with an accident and has been taken to a hospital.

Two years ago Nellie Hamilton was seriously burned on the lips by the exploding of a kerosene lamp and her life was saved by grafting 200 pieces of skin taken from her arm.

ARRESTED GEN. EARLE'S SON.

Policeman Muldoon Charged with Treating Him Roughly.

Gen. Earle, proprietor of the Hotel Normandie, whe is on Gov. Flower's staff, has preferred charges against Patrolman Patrick J. Muldoon, of the East Fifty-first street station.

On April 28 Muldoon arrested Ferdinand P. Earle, the fourteen-year-old son of Gen. Earle, for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk in Fifth avenue, near Fifty-eighth street.

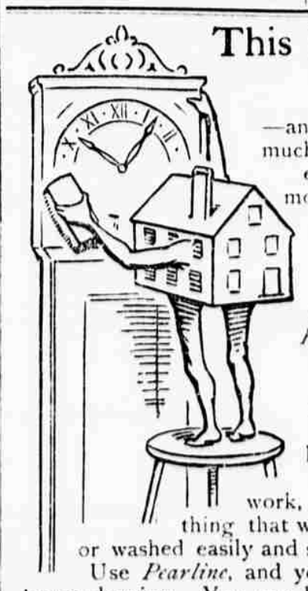
The boy says that the officer abused him on the way to the station-house and treated him in a rough manner. Gen. Earle and the matter before Supt. Byrnes, who ordered charges drawn up against the policeman.

Lawyer Tallmadge Sues for Fees.

Lawyer Hiram E. Tallmadge, of Brooklyn, has commenced an action against the New York and Long Island Ferry Company and others for $13,000. He claims this amount is due him for counsel fees. The defendants demurred and Judge Pratt has overruled the demurrer.

Driver Held for the Coroner.

Driver James Carey, of 191 Gold street, Jersey City was held at Essex Market Court to-day to await the action of the Coroner in regard to the case of Esther Lappin, who was run over and killed in front of her home by a wagon he was driving.



This is (a) House Cleaning Time

—and it's a time of trouble and much work for unbelieving women. Because their grandmothers worked hard then and made things uncomfortable, they can't believe that there's any better way.

Other women can—millions of them. They use Pearline, and "take it easy." They're spared the hard work, get through in half the time, and save the wear and tear that's made by useless scouring and scrubbing. Paint, glass, marble, woodwork, carpets, hangings, everything that will "wash" at all, is cleaned or washed easily and safely with Pearline.

Use Pearline, and you won't mind the trials of house-cleaning. You can laugh at them. But if you don't use Pearline, wiser women will laugh at you.

Send it Back — Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never imitated, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing send it back. 299 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.

MANY SAILORS MISSING.

Gotham's Attractions Too Much for the Visiting Warships' Men.

Beginning Wednesday the Fleet Will Gradually Leave Us.

With hardly an exception, nearly every warship of the foreign fleet now in this harbor has lost men through some cause since their arrival in this port on April 25.

In this respect, the English vessels have sustained the greatest loss, nearly seventy bluejackets being on the missing lists of the four vessels. Of these, the flagship Blake lost nearly forty. Men are also missing from the German, Russian, French and Brazilian men-of-war.

Neither the officers of the vessels nor the consuls, however, believe that the men have willingly deserted their ships. Sailors, as a general thing, are extremely convivial in their habits, and as the men had all been on long cruises before reaching this port, they are no doubt making the most of their opportunities ashore.

The next break in the column of warships now in this port will occur Wednesday next, when the English fleet will heave anchor and put to sea. The Blake, Tartar and Magicienne will proceed to Bermuda. After remaining there a fortnight they will go to Halifax. The Australia will go direct to Halifax from this port on May 30.

On the same day the French ship Jean Bart will leave, bound for Rochefort, France. The Hussard will leave on May 20 for Bermuda, and two days later the Arethuse will start for the East Indies.

The German warship Kaiserin Augusta will leave for home in a fortnight, and the Seeadler will start on a cruise around the world on the same day.

The Dutch vessel, Van Speyk, leaves for Bermuda on May 20, and the Nouvo de Julio will leave for South American waters on June 1.

The Brazilian and Italian fleets have not yet received orders to sail. The Russian gunboats will remain here for a month, awaiting the arrival of the three other Russian warships now imprisoned in the ice in the Gulf of Finland.

Swearer Van Blarcom Out of Jail.

HACKENSACK, N. J., May 8.—Colonel Egbert Bogert breathed easier this morning when James Van Blarcom, the wealthy hide and leather, of Lodi, and expressman and distiller, was released from Bergen county jail after thirty days' imprisonment for swearing on the witness stand in a suit against his employer, Colonel Bogert. He got four days off for good behavior.

Warner Wins His Case.

Judge Gildersleeve of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day gave a decision for the plaintiff in the suit of Oscar Warner against Hess Bros. & Co. The action was brought to recover damages for injuries received by the plaintiff while employed by the defendants, and which were assigned to Liberty Bonds & Dietz.
