YALE OR HARVARD, WHICH?

Great Competition Expected in the Mott Haven Games.

New England Records Broken in Worcester Yesterday.

All the little kinks which have arisen in the big athletic meeting of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America on Manhattan Field next Saturday, will be smoothed out at an Executive Committee meeting to-morrow at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. There always numerous protests against certain entries, and these command the earliest attention of the Committee. A number of the members of the 'Varsity of Pennsylvania team, have been objected to as ineligible, the latest to come under the ban being Leslie, Coates and Ramsdell. Saturday's contests are sure to attract a veritable throng of lovers of field and track sports, and the list of entries is very large. That the competitions in almost every event will be of the most spirited character is admitted, and careful statisticians in collegiate athletics are now figuring that it isn't such a cinch for Harvard after all in the race for the Mott Haven trophy. The absence from her team of several men who piled up the points in royal fashion last year is the reason advanced by the analysts why Yale should hustle along in the van in lively shape next Saturday.

Uncommonly clever work was done in the meeting of the New England Intercollegiate Athletics at Worcester yesterday, and several records—i. e., in the meets of the N. E. I. A. A.—were broken, as follows:

100-Yard Dash—Won by H. S. Patterson (Williams), 10 1-4s.

120-Yard Hurdle—S. Chase (Dartmouth), 16 3-5s.

One-Mile Run—G. O. Jarvis (Wesleyan), 4m. 32 1-2s.

Two-Mile Bicycle—E. W. Bliss (Amherst), 5m. 50 3-5s.

One-Mile Walk—H. F. Houghton (Amherst), junior, 19 4-5s.

Two-Mile Run—G. O. Jarvis (Wesleyan), 10m. 8 2-5s.

Throwing the Hammer (16 lb.)—G. S. Ellis (Brown), 98 feet 3 1-2 inches.

Dartmouth College won the first prize in the meeting, with Amherst second, and Brown third.

"King" Kelly is expected to play his first game of ball this afternoon on the New York team when they meet the Phillies at the Polo Grounds. Perhaps the Giants may then win a game. They managed to do so in Baltimore, getting away with the Orioles 10 to 11. Crane pitched three innings, and was then supplanted by Rusie. It looks as if the obese Eddie would have to shake his New York uniform. Other games resulted: Brooklyn, 7, Washington, 1. Boston, 15; Philadelphia, 4. Chicago, 13; Cleveland, 5. Pittsburg, 8; St. Louis, 7.

The percentage record is:

| | Won. | Lost. | Aver. | | Won. | Lost. | Aver. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cleveland | 10 | 5 | .667 | Cincinnati | 11 | 12 | .478 |
| Brooklyn | 13 | 7 | .650 | Baltimore | 10 | 12 | .455 |
| Pittsburg | 18 | 7 | .630 | New York | 9 | 13 | .410 |
| Philadelp'a | 9 | 5 | .550 | Chicago | 9 | 13 | .409 |
| St. Louis | 12 | 10 | .545 | Washington | 9 | 13 | .409 |
| Boston | 12 | 10 | .545 | Louisville | 3 | 11 | .214 |

The Yale Navy elected these officers in New Haven Tuesday: President, Philip H. McMillan, of Detroit, Mich.; Vice-President, E. B. Folger, of Oakland, Cal., and Secretary, George A. Adee, of New York.

Johnny Van Heest was on hand yesterday in R. K. Fox's office to sign articles for his mill with Paddy McBride in the Crescent City A. C., New Orleans, but Charley Noel had not mailed them. Van Heest is now willing that the winner shall take the entire purse of $1,500, and in addition, he says he will make an outside bet of $2,500 a side.

• • •

Frank Ives has begun his practice work in London for his game with the English champion, Roberts, and those who saw him criticise him for his unsteadiness. He didn't seem to fancy the pockets in the English game, and Roberts is slated for a winner, sure.

The National Cycling Association of America will meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on June 1, and the entire schedule of races will then be adopted.

• • •

The fight between Sol Smith and Johnny Griffen will take place in Chicago the first week in July. The purse is $6,000. The date is somewhat misty and reminds one of the fashion of setting a date for an execution in this State, for instance, "during the week beginning on such and such a day."

• • •

The Atlantic Yacht Club, of Brooklyn, opens the season to-day, and from now on there will be a general air of activity in the vicinity of Fifty-fifth street and the Atlantic Basin.

• • •

Ike Weir sniffs at Billy Murphy's anxiety to take on light-weights, and tells Murphy that he (Ike) is big enough to accommodate him. The Australian sniffs back and says, "Let me at Weir in a room, and I will fight him for the paper on the wall." They ought to know each other, for they met once.

• • •

David N. Harburger, of 122 Second avenue, accompanied by Thomas H. Donlon, of 223 Fifth street, will on next Tuesday morning start for Philadelphia on bicycles. They expect to make the trip in twelve hours. Each is only seventeen years old, and they have ridden long distances before. The ride, if accomplished, will be the longest ever ridden by boys so young.

NO WORKINGMAN'S CONGRESS.

General Master Workman Powderly Thinks It Impracticable.

General Master Workman Powderly in today's issue of the official journal of the Knights of Labor comments adversely upon a proposition made by Eugene V. Debs, President of the American Railway Union, to call a workingman's congress for the purpose of making general laws and rules for the guidance of the American labor movement, and in opposition to the Congress of the United States.

Mr. Powderly thinks "that a workingman's congress would not be practicable or fruitful of good results, since such legislation as would be enacted could not be made operative or of any valid effect. That it would be better to elect the judges from among the people, and elect only such men as were in touch with the people. That it would be better to take, what the people of the United States never had, the power to enact legislation, or defeat it, out of the hands of a few aristocrats who are enabled, under our Constitution, to buy their way into the Senate. That to do these things Constitutional Conventions, or Parliaments of the people, in the various States would be better, wiser, more effective, and be the means of spreading the truth concerning our wretched system of enacting legislation to all the people. That while we are holding these Constitutional Conventions we vote on a provision, for insertion in the Constitution, to adopt the initiative and referendum in legislation."

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Furniture-Workers' Union No. 20 has elected Edward Handford to be its Secretary.

Seventy-five members of Ale and Porter Union No. 1 have procured citizens' papers.

Confectioners' Union No. 7 expelled thirty-three members for non-payment of dues during the last three months.

Bakers' Union No. 1 has called a special meeting for Saturday, June 3, to discuss a proposition to withdraw from the Central Labor Union.

The Hebrew Upholsterers' Union has now nearly 180 members. They have call'd an agitation meeting at 56 Orchard street for May 28.

Boss Weinstein's tailors in Varet street, Brooklyn, won their strike for higher wages yesterday, and the shop has been organized.

The Independent Bakers' Union reports that its membership is now nearly 400. Its Labor Bureau work was given to forty-nine members last week.

Members of the Picture-Frame Workers' Union went on strike at the shop of Simon Cohen, 28 Catharine street, yesterday because he employed a non-union man.

Philip Leistner, of Machinists' Union No. 2, died after a protracted illness last Tuesday at his residence, 1520 Avenue A. His body will be cremated at Fresh Pond this afternoon.

The General Council of the Shoemakers' of Brooklyn, New York and vicinity, will hold the annual reunion picnic and games, at Deckelman's Ridgewood Park, Brooklyn, to-morrow.

Miss Belle Pierson reports to the general office of the American Federation of Labor that she succeeded in organizing the sewing girls, laundry girls and hotel waitresses at Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union yesterday refused to accept the resignation of Delegate Lawrence J. Brown as a member of the Organization Committee.

The Building Trades of the Central Labor Union received credentials yesterday from Local Union No. 3, of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, F. Maklin and F. Costello.

During the last few months twelve new unions joined the central body of the United Hebrew Trades Union, which is now composed of representatives of twenty-eight different trades organizations.

John W. Smeed, Superintendent of Duke's Cigar Factory on Grand street, was held for trial yesterday at the East Market Police Court by Judge Koch for violation of the Factory law by making nine girls work overtime.

The shirtmakers of Levy Bros., Thirty-seventh street, about fifty in number, have struck to aid their fellow-workers who are on strike at the shop of Loul & Son, 477 Broadway, from whom Levy Bros. had large orders.

Cabinet-Makers' Union No. 7 yesterday imposed a fine of $50 upon a member for working at Gray's shops in Greenpoint. The same amount will have to be paid by a man who resumed work at the shop of Pottier & Stymus.

Organizer Andrew Mathers, of the National Association of Saddle and Harness Makers, is in this city, about to make an extended trip through Europe for the purpose of gathering statistics regarding his trade and the methods of organization and agitation employed by European workmen.

Twelve new members were enrolled by Cigar-Makers' Union No. 90 this week. By a general vote of the shops it was decided to give $100 to the campaign fund of the Social Democracy in Germany. On Memorial Day the office will be closed. The Union has at present about 2,200 members.

The electrical wiremen will have to fight, as the contractors' combine resolved yesterday to no longer discriminate between union and non-union men, although they had an agreement with the union to employ only union members.

Work has been resumed by Julius Stein & Co.'s cloakmakers, the firm having agreed to discharge men only for causes satisfactory to the union, to reinstate men discharged previous to the strike, and to raise wages to the standard of the Cloakmakers' Union's rates.

Judge Ryan, before whom the case of the United Garment Workers against the Clothing Manufacturers' Association, for alleged conspiracy, was tried at the Tombs Police Court yesterday afternoon, has sent the case before the Grand Jury, and every one of the seven defendants, all members and officers of the Manufacturers' Association, had to give $1,000 bail.

No delegate will be sent by the organized waiters of this country to the International Labor Congress in Zurich, as decided by the Convention of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' National Alliance yesterday. Resolutions denouncing the Convention of the Hotel Proprietors' Association for blacklisting union men, which is considered to be an attempt to deprive union men of their rights as American citizens, were adopted.

Harry E. Gamble, of New York; M. J. Carroll, of Chicago; H. M. Ives, of Topeka; J. L. Robinette, of Sacramento, and A. W. Kunts, of Seattle, have been appointed by President Prescott members of the Committee on Laws for the coming Convention of the International Typographical Union. Delegates should notify George W. Day, Chairman of the Reception Committee, of the time and route when and by which they are to arrive in Chicago. Mr. Day's address is at the office of the Inter-Ocean. The receipts of Secretary-Treasurer Wines last month were $2,030.58, and $4,855.56 has been expended. The balance on hand amounts to $24,704.35.

The Arbitration Committee of the Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union reported yesterday, in regard to inducing Proprietor Hall, of the Terra-Cotta Works at Perth Amboy, N. J., to recognize the Union which the Organization Committee of the Central Labor Union had organized among his employees. The Committee stated that Hall absolutely refuses to recognize the Terra-Cotta Workers' Union as such, although he has no objection to his men being members of a union as long as they do the work expected of them.

Upon the request of Chief Contract Labor Inspector John J. Quinlan, Delegate Holmes, of the Wood-Carvers' Association, stated to the Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union yesterday that Inspector Quinlan desires the co-operation of the labor organizations of this city in furnishing information regarding the importation of contract labor. Inspector Quinlan states that if the labor organizations will notify him promptly of any movements on the part of employers to import contract labor, they will render most efficient service in accomplishing the proper enforcement of the Contract Labor law.
