THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 10.

FRENCH SCENES.—A letter from Paris says: Our Parisians were engaged last week in celebrating the mi-carême, or the middle day of Lent, when an interval takes place in the suppose austerities of the season, and it is lawful to eat other things besides pates de saumon. The masked balls also re-open afresh; a few masks appear even in the streets, and men and boys blow French horns and cow horns for twenty-four hours, uninterrupted by the police. Then, too, is the washerwomen's fete, when all the sisterhood roll along in gaily decorated cars, escorting the lady who has been elected queen, for the year by universal suffrage, and without being a candidat du Gouvernment. On this day, too, only in Lent, people marry in Catholic countries, and I cannot help mentioning a portion of one of their latter ceremonies, which I witnessed. It would, I think, have greatly amused such of your fair readers as are not habituated to European customs. I happened to be spending the day in a little country town, about a couple of hours from Paris by rail. In one of the narrow, dirty streets I met a long procession. At the head of it were two drums, beating vigorously. Behind them three or four men with horns, relieved, occasionally, the drums. Next followed two immense trays of pain beni (answering perhaps to brides' cake) stuck all over with little flags, and each borne by four men. And then came the bride and bridegroom, for it was, of course, a wedding. The farmers marched along the rough road her poor feet shod in nothing stronger than thin white satin slippers. Her thin muslin dress trailed on the dirty stones, and the orange flowers in her cap shook to the chill March wind. But the whole party looked quite jolly, and determined to enjoy themselves for that day at least. The drums beat, the horns played, the neighbors came to the doors to see the procession pass, and behind followed a long train of friends and relatives, all invited to the banquet at an adjoining restaurant.

AUCTION SALES.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A VALUABLE AND MOST ELIGIBLE FARM, IN CULPEPER COUNTY, WITHIN A FEW MILES OF BRANDY STATION AND CULPEPER C. H., VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a deed of trust, executed by John Taylor and wife to the undersigned, as Trustee, dated on February 11, 1861, and duly recorded in Culpeper County Court, being thereto required by the beneficiary, and with the consent of the parties interested, I shall proceed to sell, at public auction, on the premises, to the highest bidder, on WEDNESDAY, the 3rd day of June, 1868, if fair, or, if not, the next fair day thereafter, at the hour of 4½ p. m., the property conveyed in said deed, being a certain TRACT OF LAND, in the county of Culpeper, Virginia, containing SEVEN HUNDRED ACRES, the same that was bought by John Taylor, esq., of Jeremiah Morton, esq., and the larger part of the very valuable farm known as "STILLMORE," formerly owned by John Taylor, esq., and at present occupied by Messrs. John F. Lewis, M. Blackburn, James W. Crawford and Francis M. Young.

This very desirable estate lies in one of the most healthy and attractive regions of Virginia, within about six miles of Brandy Station, and about the same distance from Culpeper C. H., on the O. & A. R. R., and in a fine and delightful neighborhood. The land is highly adapted for agricultural or grazing purposes. The improvements consist of a COMMODIOUS DWELLING, with other building, all of them substantial and in good condition. It is rare that so eligible a farm is offered in market, and the attention of capitalists or parties desiring to settle in Virginia is called to this favorable opportunity for investment.

The debt secured by the deed is $8,000, with interest thereon from February 11, 1861, to the day of sale, and the deed requires the sale to be for cash sufficient to pay the same; but by an agreement between the parties, the sale will be only for cash sufficient to defray the expenses of sale and interest in arrear from the 11th day of February, 1861, to the day of sale, amounting to $2,326.66, and for the remainder of the debt, secured on a credit of one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, the purchaser giving his negotiable notes, satisfactorily endorsed, with interest added, and secured by a trust deed upon the land; the residue will be upon terms which will be announced at the day of sale. The purchaser to pay taxes for 1868.

In execution of a decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered at the June term, 1867, in the suits of Turner Dixon's Administratrix vs. Austin L. Adams, I will sell, at public auction, in front of the Court House of Fairfax county, on MONDAY, the 18th day of May next, Court day, a TRACT OF LAND, in the said county of Fairfax, upon which the said Austin L. TERMS—One third of the purchase-money to be paid in cash at the time of sale; the residue in two equal payments, at 6 and 12 months; the deferred payments to bear interest, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser, with approved security, and a retention of the title until said payments are made. The costs of all deeds, including revenue stamps, &c., to be borne by the purchaser.
