$20 FISH GUANO. $20
PER TON OF 2000 LBS.

I am now prepared to furnish the above valuable fertilizer at the low price of $20 per ton of 2000 lbs, delivered on cars or boats. It is in its crude state, and farmers in want had better order early, so they can prepare it for fall seeding. There is nothing in this guano but the pure fish with the oil extracted (which is said by all chemists to be no fertilizer.) I can refer to those I sold it to last spring, most of whom have already sent in their orders for more to use on their wheat.

MEDICINAL.

are extracted from Vegetable products, combining in them the Mandrake or May Apple, which is recognized by physicians as a substitute for calomel, possessing all the virtues of that mineral, without its bad after effects.

As an Anti-Bilious Medicine

They are incomparable. They stimulate TORPID LIVER, invigorate the NERVOUS SYSTEM, and give tone to the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, creating perfect digestion and thorough assimilation of food. They exert a powerful influence on the KIDNEYS and LIVER, and through these organs remove all impurities, thus vitalizing the tissues of the body and causing a healthy condition of the system.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL REMEDY

They have no equal; and as a result act as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the Stomach depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

DYSPEPSIA IS THE BANE of the present generation. It is for the cure of this disease and its attendants, SICK HEADACHE, NERVOUSNESS, DESPONDENCY, CONSTIPATION, PILES, &c., that have gained such a wide spread reputation. No remedy has ever been discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digestive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This being accomplished, of course the NERVOUS SYSTEM IS BRACED, THE BRAIN IS NOURISHED, AND THE BODY ROBUST.

Being composed of the juices of plants extracted by powerful chemical agencies, and prepared in a concentrated form, they are guaranteed free from anything that can injure the most delicate person.

A noted chemist, who has analyzed them, says: "THERE IS MORE VIRTUE IN ONE OF TUTT'S PILLS THAN CAN BE FOUND IN A PINT OF ANY OTHER."

We, therefore, say to the afflicted try this remedy fairly; it will not harm you; you have nothing to lose, but will surely gain a vigorous body, pure blood, strong nerves and a cheerful mind.

The First Church in Alaska.

It is but little that the public know of the characteristics and capabilities of our northernmost territory in the Arctic regions. That it was purchased from Russia for seven millions of dollars, that it is the seat of a valuable fur trade, that it is sparsely inhabited and that by ignorant and degraded Indians, made still more so by unhappy contact with the whites, is the staple of information many of us have about Alaska.

Those, however, who are the most intelligently informed are not disposed to turn off our new possessions with a sneer. They tell us the almost incredible fact of the salubrity of the climate of Sitka, in the latitude indeed of Labrador, but even in its Arctic winter with the temperature of Georgia, of the immense revenues that must come from its fisheries and furs, of its mineral wealth yet to be developed, but above and better than all, of the hopeful field for missionary work among its 50,000 natives who are ready to receive the Gospel.

We noticed a few weeks since the organization, at Fort Wrangel, of the first Presbyterian Church in the Territory. While it was in the possession of the Russians there was a Lutheran Church at Sitka, but it long since ceased to live. The Presbyterian Home Missionary Society, at the initiation of Rev. Dr. Sheldon Jackson, well styled "the indefatigable apostle of the Rocky Mountains," stretched out its fostering care to this extreme boundary of our home field. It took under its charge the little enterprise started by Philip McKay, a converted Indian, who self-impelled had labored for the spiritual good of his countrymen. In August, 1877, it sent Mrs. A. R. McFarland to that field, where by teaching and training the women in better domestic habits, she has done a noble work for civilization as well as Christianity, and in her industrial school a large number of girls have been taught to read and write, and have been brought under the daily influence of a cultivated Christian woman.

Rev. S. H. Young joined the mission a year later, and in June last Rev. W. H. R. Corlies, M. D., and his wife were added to the band of workers there. Dr. Corlies, we learn, first heard of the need of these Indians through the interesting descriptive articles upon Alaska by Dr. Jackson, in the Illustrated Christian Weekly last year, and was thus led to devote his energy and time to missionary labor there.

In the organization of the new church, August 3 Dr. Leadsley, of Portland, Oregon, Rev. Messrs. Young and Corlies, Dr. Sheldon Jackson, and Dr. Henry Kendall, Secretary of the Home Missionary Society, participated. Of the 28 members comprising the church, 22 are Indians whom Mr. Young has for months been specially instructing in the nature and duties of church membership.

The visit of Dr. Kendall and his personal supervision greatly encouraged those engaged in that most distant field of his Society's work. His commanding personal presence and his genial sympathetic nature also favorably impressed the Indians. The chiefs and leading men expressed their pleasure at his visit, and one remarked with earnestness that he had not slept all night for joy. Dr. Kendall will deserve the title of the Great American Traveller by his repeated visitations of the outlying posts of the great missionary fields of his aggressive church, but no official tour can call him so far away from his desk as did this to the organization of the first Protestant church now existing in the great territory of Alaska.

"PIANOFORTETER IN RE."—The annoyance caused by Lord Burleigh's suggestion that farmers' daughters should no longer learn the piano, &c., has not subsided:

When next his lordship may advice impart,
More suaviter in modo it should be;
Since his last hints, though doubtless from the heart,
Were too pianoforte-ter in re!

—London Truth.

Mrs. Seymour Talmadge, of Still Water, N. Y., blew out a kerosene-lamp Tuesday night, which exploded, setting fire to her dress. She was so badly burned that she died in a few hours.

A people who can't keep faith with foreigners can't keep faith with one another; and a faithless people are incapable of maintaining the body politic, but are doomed to dissolution.
