Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 15.

THE LATEST PARIS STYLES.—In the matter of dress the Medicis bodices are revived; open, square in front, with high chureze collar. The skirts behind are all shirred lengthwise, elaborate tabliers are worn in front puffed en queue de loup. They are made to imitate foxglove petals. Casquins are retained, also vests.—Seamless bodice and tunique front are cut in one.

Sleeves are made very flat and wide in the armhole, tapering at the waist. Tournures are indispensable for round skirts, not gored. No skirt should be less than two metres or twenty centimetres at lowest in circumference. Folds and draperies are put on full, which gives the effect of full skirts without the weight.

Mantles for receptions or formal calls are long and comfortlined; the sleeves are made to turn back. For informal visits, Shetland gauze Kashmir silk caps. The sleeves and back are cut in one to avoid armholes and to deceive the form underneath. The fur neck cut has four points to the collars trimmed with bird work. Short furs are the only proper wear for the street.

There is not much change in the way of wearing the hair. Smoothness is still the reasonable fashion. Loose coils, not plaits, are the most worn. There are always some who prefer an elaborate style of hair dressing, for them are the bands of hair worn down the back, fastened and looped in place by shell combs, or waved like single locks. This mode of hair is frequently formed like the figure 8.

In lingerie fine chemises Anglaises are popular. Muslin ladies are embroidered on the edge in colors and piped with lace. A new collar is made of gold tissue on muslin and Venetian lace. A collar from the Compagnie des Indes, called point d'orge, is made of plaited frills of soft twilled silk. A great feature in lingerie is the chalbonne effect, which is got by not using starch.

AUCTION SALES.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND R. R.

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION

By virtue of and in obedience to a decree rendered by the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria in the chancery cause of John C. Graham vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Rail Road Company and others on the 13th day of February, 1880, I shall, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at twelve (12) o'clock m., on THURSDAY, the 13th day of May, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described property:

The entire line of railroad known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Rail Road, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, on the aforesaid main line, to the town of Harrisonburg, in the county of Rockingham, together with all the branches thereof as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipment, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works to the said railroad and branches respectively belonging, or in anywise appertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and roadbed, side tracks, bridges, viaducts, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops, and all other buildings and structures, docks and wharves, sand and gravel pits and deposits of materials and all other things belonging to, or used, or designed to be used, for or in connection with the said railroad or branch railroads respectively, together with all locomotives and tenders, freight and passenger cars, and all other cars, and all other rolling stock or equipment whatsoever, machinery, tools, and all materials for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property thereunto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any such nature or description as is above mentioned. The said line of railway and branches extends a total distance of 316 miles.

The purchaser of said road and property above described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said defendant company under a contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, dated on the 20th day of August, 1878, whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company leases from said defendant company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg, and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property subject to the contracts made under orders of the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapidan Rail Road Company, and the Franklin and Pittsylvania Rail Road Company—and subject to all other contracts of the Receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Court or not, and will assume all his liabilities thereunder. Should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his costs and risk.

Terms: The terms upon which said Commissioner shall sell said property as set forth in the said decree are, cash as to a sum of money equal to the principal and interest of all bonds secured by deeds of trust on said property or any part thereof, except those secured by the deed of trust of the defendant corporation, dated on the 1st of May, 1853, in which D. H. Miller, Robert Garrett and John W. Burke, are Trustees, and for a further amount of cash equal to the past due interest on the debt secured by that deed; as to a sum equal to the principal of the debt which has been heretofore ascertained to be due under said deed, on such credits as will meet the amount of said debt at maturity, taking care that as to such deferred payments provision be made for the purchaser to so pay interest on the purchase money in instalments that the interest to be paid by him shall meet the coupons for interest yet to fall due on said principal—as to residue of the purchase money on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest from date of sale.

For the deferred payments as above provided the Commissioner shall take the obligations of the purchaser and return them with his report of sale, when the Court will direct how the payment of the same shall be secured by some satisfactory lien on the premises sold.

Of the cash, which it is herein provided shall be required on the sale of said property, two hundred thousand dollars [$200,000] shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue shall be paid by the purchaser upon the confirmation of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.

JOHN S. BARBOUR,
mh11-w2m Commissioner of Sale

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE FOR 1880

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great families of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as last experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid exhibition of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest to both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent and results; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call to record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend affluence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously chronicled.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c, which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum in advance.
