TOOK THE RIG FOR A JOKE.

All the Same Robinson Is Held for Horse-Stealing.

James Robinson, aged thirty-four, of 233 East Twenty-third street, was held in $1,000 bail by Justice Ryan, in the Yorkville Police Court, this morning on a charge of horse stealing.

Detective Killilea, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, caught Robinson trying to dispose of a horse and buggy valued at $500 for $25 yesterday and arrested him.

The property was identified by Frank Lugar, of 32 Lexington avenue. Lugar said he left the rig in front of 49 Irving place for a few minutes, and when he returned it was gone.

In court this morning Robinson said he did not mean to steal the rig, but took it for a joke.

It Is Fortunate

That we are able, by reason of changes that we are making, to offer our immense stock of Furniture and Carpets at such low prices—just such prices as meet these uncertain times, when people are anxious to do as much service as possible with the dollar that they spend.

No matter how hard the times, people will get married, and those that are married must live—and they must live in a flat or a house. They must have beds to sleep in, chairs to sit on, tables to eat on, carpets or matting to walk on, &c.

Where do you buy these necessary articles? Where have you thought of buying them? Won't it be wise for you to see our stock before you buy elsewhere? We are selling everything in our store at 50 cts. on the dollar, and the stock includes the finest and largest assortment of FURNITURE AND CARPETS in the world.

A Word About the Annual School Sale.

The annual school sale was originated by ourselves many years ago. It has been constantly growing in character and importance, and in recent years other houses have found it advisable to follow our lead. Having been first in the field, however, we have been able to secure many advantages. We are extensive importers of all foreign goods; home goods are made to our special order in the biggest kind of lots.

This sale has now become a characteristic feature of the year's trade. We are determined to conduct it not so much for profit as for prestige. The prices will astonish every one. Take item for item and you will find that they are very much lower than usual wholesale prices.

Winter Jackets.

225 of them to be sold at special prices—in most cases one-third and one-quarter real values.

It's a little early to talk about Winter goods, but these garments are of such superior value that we have decided to offer them now.

They are in Heavy Beavers, Clay's Diagonals, Whipcords, Kerseys, Tweeds, Cheviots, Vicogne, Unfinished Worsteds, &c. Regular selling prices have been $10.95 to $37.50. We offer them at $3.95 to $14.95

Where the saving is so large and manifest, and the number of garments limited, we suggest an early inspection.

Mattresses.

Main Floor—Annex.

We want every person in this city and suburbs to know that we sell Mattresses at about half other stores' prices. We have already demonstrated this to the satisfaction of thousands—a fact proved by the large business we have built up in so short a time.

As a special inducement for a short time only, we offer to furnish a slip cover to fit same. This is a great protection to the mattress and ought to be a big inducement to housekeepers.

We would add that, if desired, Mattresses purchased will be held until wanted only a small deposit required.
