Alexandria Gazette

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 29.

Loves.

"Now tell me, dear, of all the Loves
Have lived within your breast,
Of all the loves of your whole life,
Which have you loved the best?

"The first, that came when the young heart
Was strong with youth's desire,
The passion that was pain in part,
Quick change of frost and fire;
Or the swift fancy somewhere caught
In crowded city's street;
Or land of palm or pine, in wrought
With dreams both great and sweet;
A face that followed want before
Is misty light,
Haunting the heart forevermore
By day and night?

"Or do you hold as best the love
Which comes for healing brings,
The quiet folding of the dove
After the restless wings—
The love for sought that yet was near
A home of peace and rest?
Of all your loves, now tell me, dear,
Which have you loved the best?"

He looked into the wasting west,
Across a purple field of sea;
"O all, my loves, I've loved the best
The one that—loved not me—
Ah me!"

JULIET C. MARSH.

CARD DATES.

[All announcements must invariably be paid for in advance. No notice will be taken of orders unless they are accompanied with the cash.]

TO MY FELLOW CITIZENS OF ALEXANDRIA.—I announce myself a candidate for Mayor, subject to the decision of the democratic primary election to be held on the 17th of May. It is useless for me to say, if elected, I will do what I can to advance the interests of the city. I believe it is a recognized fact that I have always taken an active part in all public matters affecting its interests, and it is only necessary for me to say that, if nominated and elected, I will execute faithfully and impartially all the laws appertaining to the office.

ap19-tps J. T. BECKHAM.

I RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for the Mayoralty, subject to the decision of the primary election to be held on the 17th of May next, and promise, if elected, to do everything in my power to promote the welfare of the city.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK.

Macon, Ga., March 31 1879.

From having been intimate with the proprietors of "Swift's Syphilitic Specific," I have known much of its manufacture and use. There are men in this community who were victims in early life to Syphilis, and who have taken the S. S. S. medicine, and are now, to all appearances and in their own belief, as free from taint of disease as the first man, fresh from the hands of his Maker. Delicacy forbids their public recommendations, but I am allowed to refer the skeptic privately to those who will endorse everything that can be said in its favor. Being professionally much opposed to recommending secret remedies, it is with hesitation I attach my name to this article; but I know whereof I speak when I say our science has not made public a combination equal to "Swift's Syphilitic Specific" for the purpose indicated.
