WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 3.

A Cunning Trick.

Jim Elliott, jr., and Michael Cleary, recently had a wagon which somewhat resembled a huckster cart. It was covered with mud. Attached to it was apparently a dilapidated beast, which had a long time ago passed for a horse. The harness was made of rope and the whole rigging did not appear to be worth more than $5 or $10. Two men drove down to the plans of Jacob Brown, on Snyder avenue near Pike Hosser st. There Elliott and Cleary engaged in a game of quoits. Brown, who was acquainted with the men, criticised the team, and, walking up to Elliott, said: "What do you want to do with that?"

"Why," replied Elliott, "I want to sell it."

"I would'n't give you $5 for the whole thing."

"Well," responded Elliott, "there's where you would make a mistake. I wouldn't take $100 for that animal. I'll bet you $100 that he can trot a mile in three minutes."

Brown laughed, and after some more conversation the bet was agreed upon. The horse was taken to the race track close by, and trotted the mile in 2.30. Brown was astonished and forked over the money. Subsequently, however, he went to Magistrate List and took out a warrant for the arrest of Elliott and Cleary.

It is said that William Fails, a butcher in the same neighborhood, was victimized in a similar manner on the previous day. They stopped at his place and asked him if he wanted to buy a horse. Fails took a look at the animal and laughed. Then he said:

"I wouldn't take him for a gift." Elliott appeared to get miffed at the poor opinion of his favorite nag and exclaimed:

"I'll bet you $100 that he can trot in three minutes." Fails jumped at this and put up the money. The result was a trot in 2⅔ and a loss of the money. The disguised animal is supposed to be a celebrated trotting horse from New York.

Cleary and Elliott had a hearing before Magistrate List and were held in $600 bail each for trial on charges of conspiracy to defraud and actually defrauding Brown out of $100.—Philadelphia Evening Post.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK.

Macon, Ga., March 31 1879.
From having been intimate with the proprietors of "Swift's Syphilitic Specific," I have known much of its manufacture and use. There are men in this community who were victims in early life to Syphilis, and who have taken the S. S. S. medicine, and are now, to all appearances and in their own belief, as free from taint of disease as the first man, fresh from the hand of his Maker. Delicacy forbids their public recommendations, but I am allowed to refer the skeptic privately to those who will endorse every thing that can be said in its favor. Being professionally much opposed to recommending secret remedies, it is with hesitation I attach my name to this article; but I know whereof I speak when I say our science has not made public a combination equal to "Swift's Syphilitic Specific" for the purpose indicated.
