Dr. Talmage on Tobacco.

Dr. Talmage's sermon last Sunday morning was on the use of narcotics. The following is a synopsis:

"There sprang up in Yucatan, on this continent, a weed which has bewitched the world. The botanists ascribe it to the genus nicotiana; but you all know it as the inspiring, the elevating, the emparadising, the radiating, the nerve-shattering, the dyspepsia-breeding, the health-destroying tobacco. I shall not be offensively personal while I speak on this subject, because you all use it, or nearly all! Indeed I know from personal experience how it soothes and roseates the world, and kindles sociality, and I know what are its baleful results. I know what it is to be its slave, and thank God I know what it is to be its conqueror. I have no expectation that I will persuade the great masses of you to change your habits upon this subject, but I thought I might help you in some advice to your children. There can be no doubt about its being poisonous. There was a case reported in which a little child lay upon its mother's lap, and a drop from her pipe fell on the child's lip, and it went into convulsions and into death. The medical fraternity of the United States and Great Britain pronounce it the cause of widespread and terrific unhealth. Dr. Agnew, Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Olson, Dr. Barnes, Dr. Woodward, Dr. Rush, Dr. Hosack, Dr. Harvey and Dr. Mott—all the medical fraternity—denounce the habit, and warn the community against it. One distinguished physician says: 'This habit is the cause of seventy different styles of disease.' The late Dr. John C. Warren, of Boston, says: 'For more than thirty years I have been in the habit of inquiring of patients who came to me with cancer of the tongue and lips whether they used tobacco, and if so, whether they chewed or smoked, and if they have sometimes answered in the negative as to the first question, I can truly say that to the best of my knowledge and belief such cases are exceptions to the general rule. When, as is usually the case, one side of the tongue is affected with ulcerated cancer it arises from the habitual retention of the tobacco in contact with this part. Their united testimony is that it depresses the vitals of the system and brings on nervousness and dyspepsia and takes off twenty-five per cent. of the physical vigor of the people of this country, and damaging this generation damages the next, the accumulated curse going on to capture other centuries. Another eminent physician, for a long while superintendent of the Insane Asylum at Northampton, Mass., says: 'Fully half of the patients who have come to our Asylum for treatment are the victims of tobacco.' It was long ago demonstrated that a man cannot permanently reform from strong drink unless he gives up tobacco. The broad avenue leading down to the drunkard's grave and the drunkard's hell is strewn thick with tobacco leaves. One reason why there are so many the victims of this habit is because there are so many ministers of religion who smoke and chew. They smoke until they get the bronchitis, and the dear people have to pay their expenses to Europe! They smoke until the nervous system breaks down. They smoke themselves to death. I could name three eminent clergymen who died of cancer of the mouth, and in every case the physicians said it was tobacco. There has been many a clergyman whose tombstone was all covered up with eulogy, which ought to have had the honest epitaph, 'Killed by too much cavendish!' Some of them smoke until the room is blue, and their spirits are blue, and the world is blue, and everything is blue. Time was when God passed by such sins, but it becomes now the duty of the American clergy who indulge in this narcotic to repent. How can a man preach temperance to the people when he is himself indulging in an appetite like that? I have seen a cuspadore in a pulpit where the minister should drop his cud before he gets up to read 'Blessed are the pure in heart,' and to read about 'rolling sin as a sweet morsel under the tongue!' and in Leviticus to read about the unclean animals that chew the cud. I have known Presbyteries and General Assemblies and General Synods where there was a room set apart for the minister to smoke in. It is a sorry spectacle to see a consecrated man, a holy man of God, looking for some place where he can discharge a mouthful of tobacco juice! It is time we had an anti-tobacco reform. About sixty years ago a young man graduated from Andover Theological Seminary into the ministry. He went straight to the front. He had an eloquence and personal magnatism before which nothing could stand; but he was soon thrown into the insane asylum for twenty years, and the doctor said it was tobacco that sent him there. There are ministers of religion to-day indulging in narcotics, dying by inches, and they do not know what is the matter with them. I might in a word give my own experience. It took ten cigars to make a sermon. I got very nervous. One day I awakened to the outrage I was inflicting upon myself, and there and there, twenty years ago, I quit once and forever. It made a new man of me, and though I have since then done as much hard work as any one, I think I have had the best health God ever blessed a man with. A minister of religion cannot afford to smoke. I stand in the presence of a great multitude of young men who are forming their habits. Between seventeen and twenty-three there are tens of thousands of young men damaging themselves irretrievably by tobacco. You either use very good tobacco or cheap tobacco. If you use cheap tobacco, I want to tell you why it is cheap. It is a mixture of burdock, lampblack, sawdust, coltsfoot, plaintain-leaves, fuller's earth, lime, salt, alum, and a little tobacco. You cannot afford, my young brother, to take such a mess as that between your lips. If, on the other hand, you use costly tobacco, let me say, I do not think you can afford it. You take that which you expend and will expend, if you keep the habit all your life, and put it aside, and it will buy you a farm to make you comfortable in the afternoon of life."

IF YOU want a Cheap or a Fine Overcoat, Ulsterette, or Reversible Overcoat we have the best assortment and the lowest prices in the city. S. WATERMAN & SON.

OFFICIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE TO CITY TAX PAYERS.

The attention of those interested and who have not paid their corporation taxes for 1881, is called to the following extract from the revenue bill for that year:

"On all bills not paid on the 2d day of December, 1881, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of 5 per cent upon the amount of said bills, and upon all bills remaining unpaid June 1st, 1882, damages at the rate of 12 per cent per annum shall be paid."

This provision has been rigidly enforced, and without a single exception during the last two years. It is hoped all will avail themselves of the opportunity to pay before December 2, 1881, and save this 5 per cent, for after that time we shall be compelled to force collections.
