ANTI-SNAPPERS OUT.

Ell Men Will Get Half of Their Seats in the Convention.

The Machine Likely to Make Raines Chairman.

Little Doubt in Saratoga of Mayor's Nomination.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 4. The Democratic State Convention will be no brass band affair, but the machine is quietly in operation at the Adelphi, where the headquarters of the State Committee are, and where the bosses are fixing up the slate and preparing the orders for the delegates to carry out. Senator Murphy and Richard Croker are expected this afternoon and then the wheels of the machine will be set in full motion.

Clerk Charles R. Defrest, of the State Committee, has prepared a list of the delegates. It shows that contested and uncontested, the Anti-Snappers will claim between eighty and ninety votes in the Convention. The seats of about one-half of this number will be given to Hill men. This, it is said, will be done to save some of Senator Hill's lieutenants from the humiliation of admitting their defeat by the Anti-Snappers.

Everything is in readiness for the meeting of the Convention at noon tomorrow. The Convention hall is one of the prettiest places of its kind. It is not a big barn. Like most convention halls in the country are, but was built for a convention hall, with proper acoustic effects and arrangements for light and ventilation. For the present occasion the hall is decorated with patriotic colors.

To the right of the stage is a picture of President Cleveland and on the left is a likeness of Vice President Stevenson. Corporation Counsel Clark, who with Mayor Gilroy, County Clerk Purroy and Fire Commissioner Scannell is here, is authority for a statement that is important in the light of current events. Asked who will be chairman of the Convention, he replied:

"Possibly George Raines."

Raines, who is a venerable paralytic from Rochester, was said to have been beaten in a fair and square fight by the Anti-Snappers four to one in the Third Rochester district. The fact that Raines is talked of for Chairman indicates that the Anti-Snappers up at least the Third Monroe District is settled before the Committee on Credentials has been appointed.

If Isaac H. Maynard is nominated for Judge of the Court of Appeals, and there seems to be no doubt that he will be, his nomination will be against the wishes not only of the Anti-Snappers, but of many of those who have been elected as Hill delegates.

From conversation with Hill delegates who have arrived here, it appears that the orders of Senator Hill to nominate Maynard will be obeyed entirely too narrow. It is likely that not the delegates would vote for Maynard from choice. Personally he is unpopular and has no political following.

The bosses in various parts of the State are anxious to suppose that in going to the Hill delegates for nomination at Albany, Everett P. Wheeler, when denouncing Senator Hill for his schemes is only tempting treasons which he believes to be a violation of honor by forcing Maynard on the party.

The machine will be supreme in everything. The delegates will not even be permitted to have a voice in the selection of their State Committeemen. The new State Committee, which will date to be nominated on the State ticket, the fifteen delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention and the officers of the Convention to be held tomorrow, will be selected for the Convention by the State Committee at a meeting tonight.

There may be several changes of New York members on the State Committee. E. S. Fitzgerald and Burrows Fitz Gerald will be probably let off the list. The bosses will try to fix it that some tried and trusted Hill men get on the Committee, excepting in the First, Twenty-first, Twenty-third and possibly the Thirteenth Districts, where the Hill Democrats have apparently won.

The Cleveland men will be in a minority on the State Committee, having at the most only four votes out of thirty-four, but it will be a mistake to think the only Anti-Snapper on the present Committee being H. Gaby Herrick, of Albany.

Gleason Prepared to Fight.

Ex-Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, leader of the Gleason delegation to the Saratoga Convention, left for Saratoga to-day. He said he proposed to make a fight for recognition in the State Democratic Convention, raising the claim that his party was the only regular Democracy in Queens County. Gleason's opponents will probably oppose any recognition to either Gleason or his followers.

INSPECTOR LAMB DISMISSED.

Neglect of Duty and Irregularities Charged.

The Board of Health of Long Island City dismissed James W. Lamb as Inspector of Vital Statistics last night. He was removed on charges of having received the mail of the Health Department at his home, and of neglecting his duties.

Lamb was formerly a supervisor of ex-Mayor Gleason. The ex-Mayor had him appointed on the Brooklyn police force, where he became a sergeant. Afterwards returned to Long Island City to accept a position as inspector in the Health Department. When Gleason went out of office Lamb became a supporter of Mayor Gilroy, and retained his position up to the present time.

Held for Picking a Pocket.

Tipsy Hogan was held for trial in Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of pocket picking. Two weeks ago Hogan, it is alleged, picked the pocket of Mrs. Fisher of 329 Greenwich street, where she stopped to buy a hat, and got her pocketbook containing a small amount of money. Hogan is sixteen and lives at 329 Greenwich street.

MRS. FITZGERALD RESTS WELL

Visited in Jail This Morning by Her Husband.

Her Victim's Funeral Will Take Place To-Morrow.

John J. Fitzgerald, husband of the woman who shot and killed Mrs. Carrie Pearsall at 93 East Eighty-sixth street Monday afternoon, called on his wife in jail this morning. He found her resting easily.

Ever since the tragedy, which was caused by Mrs. Fitzgerald's jealousy of her husband's alleged attentions to Mrs. Pearsall, he has manifested affection for his wife. Beyond denying yesterday that there were any grounds for her suspicions he has said nothing about the affair.

Fitzgerald has been down in the office of Lawyer Hobbs in the Stewart Building twice since the shooting. He arrived there this morning shortly after 10 o'clock. He looked considerably careworn. When an "Evening World" reporter asked him if he had any statement to make he said:

"No, I have nothing whatever to say."

To some attaches of the Fifth District Police Court, when his wife was arraigned yesterday, Fitzgerald said she was undoubtedly insane from jealousy. That, he indicated, would be the line of defense. Those who have spoken to Mrs. Fitzgerald say there is little evidence of insanity, but that she is emotional and excitable.

Lawyer Hobbs knows little about Fitzgerald. He said this morning that Fitzgerald spends little time in the office. Hobbs also said that he did not know Mrs. Fitzgerald, and never saw Mrs. Pearsall.

The body of the murdered woman still lies at 93 East Eighty-sixth street. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Pearsall says he did not go to the Police Court yesterday morning when his wife's slayer was arraigned. He was then busy with the Deputy Coroner, he says.

Regarding the story that his wife was fond of wearing jewelry, he says it is quite true, but all the jewelry she possessed was purchased with her own money. She never received presents from any one. What she did buy, he says, was bought on the instalment plan. The entire lot of jewelry was valued at less than $200.

She was a hard working woman, fond of her own home. She attended to all the household work herself, but liked to look neat when out walking.

Coroner Schultze, who has charge of the case, had not decided this morning when he would hold the inquest. It may be held on Monday. The coroner has from the police court taken three Patrolmen.

FRIENDLY WITH MRS. STANFORD.

Colis P. Huntington Denies the Rumors of an Unpleasantness.

It was stated in despatches from San Francisco, published to-day, that by some some of her property was left by New York parties Mrs. Leland Stanford could not act as executrix complete the inventory of her husband's estate.

It was said that the property consists of holdings in the Southern Pacific Railway of which Collis P. Huntington is President, and that a feeling has been in evidence between Mrs. Stanford and Mr. Huntington were said to be unfriendly. It was thought a great legal contest might arise.

Mr. Huntington said this morning, in reference to this report: "Mrs. Stanford has no interest in the Southern Pacific, but she holds securities in the Pacific Improvement Company. I can see here this can delay the completion of her inventory, but she should have no trouble in ascertaining either the nature or value of her property in the company, as is alleged.

"There is no misunderstanding between Mrs. Stanford and myself. On the contrary, the most friendly relations exist, as did also between the late Mr. Stanford and myself. Mr. Stanford was a large shareholder in the Pacific Improvement Company."

ELEVEN FAMILIES HOMELESS.

Big Tenement House Fire at Yonkers This Morning.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 4. The large eight-story tenement house at 22 Hawthorne avenue this city, owned by Thomas Crain, was completely gutted by fire at about 2 o'clock this morning.

Eleven families, including that of the owner, occupied the house. Nothing worth speaking of was saved. The occupants of the tenement, being driven from the burning building in their night clothes.

The loss on the building is estimated at $20,000, and on the contents at $1,000. No clue to the origin of the fire can be found. The loss on the building is partly covered by insurance, but the furniture of the tenants was insured for little or nothing.

NO FATAL HAZING.

Story of a Princeton Freshman's Death Discredited.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 4. The faculty and students of Princeton College were much surprised to see it stated in the newspapers this morning that it was reported one of the students had been drowned during a hazing of some Freshmen by the Sophomores. At the college it was denied this morning that any hazing was taking place, or that there had been a fatal hazing. The story was declared to be without foundation.

Battered with Brass Knuckles.

Patrick Gallagher, a laborer, was in a horribly battered state when taken to Bellevue Hospital this morning. His injuries, which were chiefly about the head, were inflicted with brass knuckles by an unknown assailant. The latter had a dispute with the proprietor of a restaurant on Sixth avenue, near Forty-second street. Gallagher interfered in the row and was then assaulted by the assailant. The assaulted man is forty-seven years old and resides on Sixth avenue, near Forty-fourth street. He may die.

OHIO BUCKET-SHOPS LEGAL

Law Against Them Void Because of Discriminating Clauses.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4. Judge Buckwalter, of the Common Pleas Court, in charging the Grand Jury yesterday practically declared that bucket shops are legal. He instructed the jury not to bring indictments against them. The Court said concerning them:

"I wish to call your attention to the statute regarding dealing in margins. I cannot regard the law as constitutional and would therefore not advise any indictments under it.

"It is a species of class legislation, in that it exempts dealing in margins that do not number the actual or protection of the Board of Trade, and it is a crime in one case it should be a crime in all cases, and in making the distinction that it does the statute is clearly illegal and unconstitutional."

FIGHT WITH TRAIN ROBBERS.

One of a Posse of Blackfoot Police Killed in Montana.

MIDVALE, Mont., Oct. 4. United States Marshal Jackson came into this station last night bringing the news of a fight with the train robbers who held up and robbed the Northern Pacific train near Livingston Aug. 5.

Jackson trailed the men from Livingston. Two Indian scouts went out night before last and located the robbers, four in number, about two miles from this place. The deputy then sent out to the Blackfoot Agency and secured details of Indian police under the command of Little Dog.

They came in sight of the cabin about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Jackson and his men made a rush. The robbers dodged into the cabin and the officers opened fire. The robbers returned the fire, killing Henry Schuber, of Blackfoot, who had also gone with the searching party.

The Indian police got scared and deserted the deputy, who says if he has men had stayed with him he could have captured the robbers. Deputy Jackson brought the dead man in here.

Every train is guarded, and to-day the hills will be scoured. This station is right at the summit of the Rocky Mountains, and there are but few trails, so that the robbers will be caught or killed. Two fresh posses of mounted police have arrived.
