Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 15

AMERICAN DIPLOMACY CRITICIZED.—The London Standard, in a leading article on Mr. Blaine's instructions sent to the American minister at Lima, says: "It may be absurd, but it is only carrying the Monroe doctrine to its legitimate conclusion, to assume that by and by we shall see representatives deputed from Washington to control the relations of the Emperor of Brazil with the European powers, and the savages of Patagonia invoking the aid of a United States commission to compose their differences. What is the temper of the Cabinet at the present moment we can only infer from the growth of Chauvinist sentiment, which has confused the discussion of the canal question. As to Peru, it is not wholly, perhaps, a matter of sentiment. It is true that Mr. Blaine has resigned, and the Americans will no longer have to admire the glowing periods in which he has insinuated the pretensions of his country. But American diplomacy is uniform. It will be much the same whether the despatches are penned by Mr. Frelinghuysen or Mr. Blaine. It is not improbable that President Arthur may soon announce that peace is restored and a new protectorate by the United States established."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The impression created by Mr. Blaine's despatches is undoubtedly bad, and it would have been much worse if the author was still entrusted with the direction of the foreign policy of the United States. We feel no apprehension that the attitude Mr. Hurlbut has assumed at Lima will be persisted in by the commissioner who will supersede him. The American people have too much to do never home to set up as adjudicators among the South American republics. If any European power were to intervene, the circumstances would be altered."
