TUESDAY EVENING FEBRUARY 12

HUNTING BEARS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—A three days' bear hunt is reported from the neighborhood of Hillsboro', in Greenbrier county, W. Va. Moffet Beard and son and William Parkins started on Wednesday and soon came on an old bear and three cubs lying under the leaves. One of the cubs put its head out and was shot, when the she bear and other cubs started in different directions. They were hunted until night and the chase abandoned. The next day Thomas Collison, Henry Perry and Dick Beard joined in the chase After many exciting hours the men and boys ran the bears down and managed to kill one of the cubs, but the others were again lost in the darkness and the hunt was postponed until daylight. The morning of the third day Charles Beard, a noted bear hunter, with three bear dogs, joined in the sport, and the party, consisting now of seven men and ten dogs, hotly pursued the now highly infuriated animals. After a ten mile chase the she bear was brought to bay in a laurel thicket, and Jake Beard, a daring hunter, entered the thicket alone, when the angry animal turned upon him. With one blow he was killed to the ground, but at the same time all the dogs attacked the bear and kept her from the hunter until the other men arrived. The dogs worried the animal until eight shots had been fired into her, when she fell dead. The other cub wandered off and could not be found. The bears killed were all large and fat.

FIGHTING WITH RATS.—Silas Berry, of Newton, Pa, had an exciting fight with rats recently, in which he won a costly victory. He works on a farm near by and the other morning entered a pit in which brewers' grain is stored for feeding purposes. It is about ten feet deep and is entered by a ladder. When Berry reached the bottom a large rat ran up his trousers leg. He shook it out, when its squeals brought dozens of rodents to its help. Berry was in total darkness and was attacked from all directions. He at once shouted for help and began fighting as best he could. After twenty minutes his cries were heard and help came. When he was taken out of the pit he was completely covered with blood. When fully convinced that he was safe he fainted dead away from joy. His body is covered with bites and scratches, and it will be a long time before he recovers. Forty-eight dead rats, some of enormous size, were taken from the pit, having been killed by Berry in his desperate fight.

The Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the NINETIETH year of its existence and is not only the oldest paper in the State, but, with very few exceptions, in the country. Notwithstanding the fullness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep abreast of the times in all that pertains to a news paper, furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially and commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandria. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interests of merchants, farmers, and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate. Through all this section of the State and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities. In the household, counting room and workshop, it is an ever welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.,) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment.

For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
