M. to 11 P. M. FROM THE NEW YORK WORLD. Hosea Higgins is probably as well known as any man in New York, and the fame of the institution which he presides has spread all over the country. The invariable and pronounced success that followed his methods in teaching the art of dancing has made it the largest establishment of its kind in the world. The "Our Own" is the better class of "Our Own" is an ideal institution; its fees are unequalled, the floor space is enormous, the music provided is above criticism, the staff of lady and gentleman teachers are at the head of their profession. HOSEA HIGGINS, in his class lessons, gives individual instruction in a room separate from the general classroom. Pupils thus have the first chance and a great advantage. HE GUARANTEES A WALTZ IN SIX PRIVATE LESSONS, TEACHING NO FAILURES.
