MAYNARDISM AND BOODYISM VOTED DOWN!!

EXTRA.

MAYNARD SWAMPED

He Brought Disaster to the State Ticket.

CROKER YIELDS

Concedes that Even the Legislature Is Lost.

TAMMANY IN GLOOM.

Tremendous Rebuke Administered to Bosses by Independent Voters.

CUT RIGHT AND LEFT.

Almost the Entire City Ticket Is Saved to the Wigwam.

At Republican Headquarters at 9.50 o'clock P. M. the claim was made, based upon information received from party leaders throughout the State, that E. J. Bartlett is elected Judge of the Court of Appeals by from 25,000 to 30,000 plurality.

The balance of the Republican State ticket is claimed by pluralities ranging from 15,000 to 30,000.

At 8:30 o'clock, at Tammany Hall, Richard Croker conceded the defeat of Isaac H. Maynard and the entire State ticket, with the exception of the Legislature.

At 9 P. M. Richard Croker said: "It looks as if the Republicans have made a clean sweep of the State ticket, including the Legislature."

Home in Maynard, the man who judged the Putnam County election returns and for whose "vindication" the members of the Democratic organization of this city and Long Island under command of Gen. Cole, Croker, Sheehan and Nicolls, have for weeks been working like beavers, has been defeated for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

In spite of his defeat on the gubernatorial ticket, he probably has made sure of votes in this city throughout the State, just as the council predicted.

Returns from this city, Kings County and up the Hudson received up to 8:30 P. M. confirm the prediction of Thomas C. Platt and Benjamin Brookfield, of the Republican state committee, that Isaac H. Maynard will be found under a landslide.

Kings County went against Maynard by 15,000, and the indications are that he will not have more than 30,000 in the state.

In New York City and Kings County Bartlett's plurality is about Maynard's vote. Mr. Maynard's home is in this city, where he was twice defeated for Secretary of State, for Congressman-at-large, for Republican nominee on New York and Kings County ticket in 1892.

A well-known gentleman from John D. Rockefeller's office said that Mr. Rockefeller regarded the Maynard vote in New York and Brooklyn as a rebuke to the Democratic party.

Assembly returns from the Twenty-first Election District of the Seventh Assembly District, and showed that the following votes had been cast for Secretary of State:

Meyer	80	De Leon	14
Palmer	68	Wright	3
Swardlick	3	Blank	1

Nothing was heard from any of the other districts after that for fully thirty minutes and then they began to come in rapidly.

Capt. Wildebrandt, who had charge of the tabulating arrangements, decided, however, not to begin work until 6.30 o'clock. For that reason none of the envelopes was opened until a little earlier and accumulated.

The police arrangements were almost similar to those of last year. To begin with, a patrol wagon was stationed all the afternoon and evening at the Mulberry street entrance to the building, ready for any emergency.

More than enough policemen were inside the building to man it. Squads of men were then detailed to the various political headquarters and at most of the Tammany resorts to preserve order.

So that there should be no delay in receiving the returns, mounted policemen were stationed at all the Elevated railroad stations on the four roads nearest to the Headquarters building. The moment the messengers arrived in the station the returns were quickly transferred and the mounted men rode off with them. As these messengers arrived by almost every train, it proved nearly a direct mounted men at each station.

There was a considerable absence of excitement at Police Headquarters. In former years many of the candidates gathered in the counting rooms early and generally arrived early in the afternoon. That was not so to-day. Commissioner Martin was the first to show himself in the office, he left soon. Barnes had been expected in the city.

"The people of the City of New York have much to be proud of in the election," the superintendent said to an "Evening World" reporter.

"I am shocked at it. In a city of 2,000,000 people there has not been as much as a sheep killed yet."

"Over in Jersey City, Long Island and up the state people are shooting and stabbing each other. I sent out a general alarm for all stations to report at once any complaints or disorders. There was none.

"The only reports of disturbance I received were from John Sabine Smith, Chairman of the Republican County Committee, and Republican Candidate Charles H. Murray.

"They said that in about half a dozen precincts their watchers had not been admitted within the rail. I investigated the story, and found that in each case an agreement had been made among the watchers of all parties to stand outside the rail on account of the small election district, and would indicate, at that rate, a majority of not more than 30,000 for Maynard in this city.

Two hundred and sixty districts out of 1,142 gave Maynard 26,102; Bartlett, 18,481; a plurality of 7,678, which is not keeping up the ratio of increase.

E. T. BARTLETT,
(Republican candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.)

Two hundred and eighty election districts for Secretary of State gave Lord Meyer, Jr., 31,859; Palmer, 17,295; a plurality of 14,564 for Meyer, which would show that Maynard is running far behind his ticket, nearly 7,000 in 200 districts.

Six hundred and seventy election districts out of 1,142 gave Meyer 81,329, Palmer 44,170; plurality for Meyer, 37,159.

Six hundred and seventy election districts are about 60 per cent. of the total number in the city, and according to the figures given would indicate a plurality for the head of the Democratic ticket—Secretary of State—of about 70,000.

Three hundred and thirty election districts, a little less than one-third of the whole number of districts, give Maynard 33,667, Bartlett, 24,409; plurality for Maynard 9,258, a falling off, and a total plurality for Maynard of less than 30,000.

The Banner district, as usual, will be the second, of which Police Justice "Paddy" Divver is the Tammany leader.

In the Twenty-third Election District of the Second Assembly District of 353 votes cast Maynard received 351, Bartlett 1, Geran 1.

In the Fifteenth Election District of the same, Maynard out of 372 votes got 369, and Bartlett 3.

Seven hundred and ninety election districts out of 1,142 gave Meyer, for Secretary of State, 97,310; Palmer, 53,169. Plurality for Meyer, 44,141.

Four hundred and ten election districts gave Maynard 42,808, Bartlett 30,578, a plurality of 12,230.

Four hundred and ten districts are about 40 per cent. of the total number of election districts, indicating a plurality of about 22,000 at this rate, running more than 10,000 votes behind his ticket.

Four hundred and forty-election districts gave Maynard 46,577 votes; Bartlett, 32,096; a plurality for Maynard of 14,481.

Eight hundred and thirty districts, about 140 more, gave Meyer, 103,018; Palmer, 56,612; a plurality for Meyer of 46,956, indicating a total plurality of less than 60,000 at that stage of the count.

Four hundred and seventy districts give Maynard 49,655; Bartlett 34,280. Plurality for Maynard 15,375; a gain of only 371 in ten districts.

Four hundred and ninety districts returned 51,635 for Maynard; 36,067 for Bartlett. Plurality for Maynard, 15,568, or indicating a total plurality of from 30,000 to 33,000.

Six hundred districts give Maynard a plurality of 16,461, and in 1,000 districts Meyer has a plurality of 56,130.

The first election return was received at Police Headquarters at exactly 5.10 o'clock. Commissioner MacLean was the only official there, the other Commissioners having gone to dinner at 4 o'clock.

The names were from the Twenty-first Election District of the Seventh Assembly District, and showed that the following votes had been cast for Secretary of State:

Meyer	80	De Leon	14
Palmer	68	Wright	3
Swardlick	3	Blank	1

Nothing was heard from any of the other districts after that for fully thirty minutes and then they began to come in rapidly.

ness of the room. As a matter of fact, they had all been invited inside afterwards by the policemen on duty.

"Two Hebrews called upon me," the Superintendent continued, "and said they had not been allowed to vote, as other men had voted on their names. I advised them to get out a mandamus." There were no other cases, nor was there any bribery.

"One man was arrested in the Tenth Assembly District, having gone to the polling place claiming to be a watcher for Otto Kempner. He refused to show his authorization. He also refused to show it in court, but later showed it to Inspector Williams. Instead of being a watcher for Kempner he was there in the interest of the Socialists."

The Twelfth Assembly District, complete, thirty-three election districts, for secretary of state, gives Meyer 5,159, Palmer 1,849.

The Twentieth Assembly District complete, twenty-five election districts, gives Meyer 5,084, Palmer 1,145.

Six hundred and eighty districts gave Maynard 72,801, Bartlett 57,983; a plurality of 14,818.

The falling off is accounted for by the returns from the uptown districts, where the Republicans are stronger, the first returns being received from the downtown districts, where the voting is generally one way—Democratic.

Seven hundred districts gave Maynard, 75,121; Bartlett, 53,693, a plurality for Maynard of 18,428.

Seven hundred districts are two-thirds of the whole number, which indicates a probable plurality for Maynard in this city of not more than 28,000.

The Sixth Assembly District complete, forty-one election districts, gives Meyer 5,663, Palmer 2,108.

Seven hundred and eighty election districts give Maynard 83,724; Bartlett, 60,654; Maynard's plurality, 23,070.

Eight hundred districts give Maynard 85,993, Bartlett 62,086; Maynard's plurality 23,277, a steady falling off.

GLOOM AT TAMMANY HALL.

Bulletins Read Announcing Maynard's Big Falling Off.

The usual rejoicing generally witnessed at Tammany Hall on Election Night has given place to gloom. Many of the braves are there, but as bulletin after bulletin is read showing a falling off in Maynard's vote everywhere, the depression is depicting.

The hall was crowded early, and Bayne's sixty ninth Regiment band served to keep up the enthusiasm until 7 o'clock, when John H. Mecoldrick rapped for order and nominated ex-Senator Thomas J. Creamer as presiding officer.

He made a speech telling of the good work of the Democratic party, particularly of the Tammany Hall organization.

He admitted that there was a doubt about Maynard's election, but said that the local ticket was elected beyond a doubt.

"Jimmy" Oliver then made a speech, in which he referred to the McKane incident at Gravesend.

He denounced the newspapers for making a bugbaloo about it. He for one, he said, was not yet ready to concede Maynard's defeat.

All was fair sailing so far, but just then the returns began to be read out, and it was all that Ambrose H. Purdy could do to arouse the least bit of enthusiasm. Many began to leave the building and walk restlessly along the corridors.

"Maynard is out of it," could be heard on every side.

One thousand and eighty-five districts, 57 less than the total number, give Meyer, 181,706; Palmer, 75,358. Plurality for Meyer, 56,347; indicating a Democratic majority of less than 60,000 in this city.

Eight hundred and fifty districts give Maynard 91,385, Bartlett 67,612. Maynard's plurality 23,773.

WATCHING THE BULLETINS.

The crowd began to gather on Park Row, opposite the Pulitzer Building, long before the first bulletin was received in "The World" office. It was about exactly divided between Maynard and anti-Maynard sympathizers with a liberal admixture of Republicans and prohibitionists thrown in.

For that reason there was a wave of enthusiasm all the time. Bulletin after bulletin was eagerly read, when called out aloud, pro-vokine comments or cheers in response and received in solemn silence by others. It seemed to be an unanimous shout that went up when it was announced that "Bloody and Beastly" had lost in another. It was some minutes before it was noised that Governor's election was claimed by 25,000.

The full division of returns on the state tickets were received with mingled feelings. When it became apparent that Maynard was in deed and in fact a dead pigeon, surprise seemed to be almost too good to believe, that the people had at last asserted their sovereign right. After that it was simply a question of waiting for additional figures to publish. "The Evening World" predictions, that ring rule was broken.

THE VOTE UP THE STATE.

Big Republican Gains—Maynard Behind His Ticket.

Returns from the state at large show Maynard running far behind the rest of the ticket, as well as on the Democratic vote of 1892.

Thirty districts out of 3,317 districts outside of New York and Kings for Secretary of State give:

Meyer, 2,798; Palmer, 3,059.

The same districts in 1892 gave: Cleveland, 3,619; Harrison, 4,503.

Twenty-nine districts out of 3,317 districts outside of New York and Kings for Associate Judge Court of Appeals give:

Maynard, 2,321; Bartlett, 3,092.

The same districts in 1892 gave Cleveland, 3,261; Harrison, 4,179.

Compared another way 28 out of 3,378 districts outside New York and Brooklyn give Palmer, 3,592; Meyer, 1,834.

The same districts in 1891 gave O'Connor 4,333, Rice, 3,798. Republican gain of 1,121.

One hundred and fifty districts outside New York and Kings show Republican gain of 2,500.

One hundred and sixty two districts outside of New York and Brooklyn give Palmer, 17,023; Meyer, 12,698. Same districts in 1891 gave O'Connor, 18,410; Rice, 16,707.

Maynard's figures continue to run behind.

In 100 districts outside New York and Kings Maynard ran 1,500 behind his ticket.

In twenty districts out of 291 in Erie County (Sheehan's) Maynard falls 300 behind the rest of the ticket. Bartlett's plurality 1,100.

One hundred and eighty-five districts outside New York and Kings show 3,156 net Republican gain on head of the ticket.

Thirty-six election districts of Albany, Erie, Onondaga and Monroe Counties give Maynard 3,670, Bartlett 4,993.

Two hundred and twenty-one districts outside New York and Kings show Democratic loss of 4,000.

Forty-five election districts in Albany, Erie, Onondaga, Monroe and Westchester Counties, containing the cities of Albany, Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester and Yonkers, give Maynard, 5,411; Bartlett, 6,741.

The second district in the town of Stamford, in Delaware County, where Judge Maynard lives, gave Meyer a majority of 20.

Maynard received a majority of 75.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Senators and Assemblymen Elected Up the State.

Returns affecting the State Legislature come in but slowly. Republicans and Democrats are both claiming control. Some of the elections reported in the State are as follows:

STATE SENATORS:

Albany District, Amasa J. Parker, Jun.

Queens County, First District, Childs, Rep.

Rochester District—Parsons, Rep., re-elected.

Twenty-sixth District—Charles T. Saxton, Rep.

Syracuse District—Henry W. Stapleton, Rep.

ASSEMBLYMEN.

In Albany County, First District, William Lorch, Democrat; Second District, William A. Carroll, Democrat; Third District, James H. Renner, Fourth District, C. M. Doublas, Democrat.

Onondaga County, James H. Meacher, Democrat, probably elected in the First District.

Jonathan Wyckoff, Republican, Second District, and William H. Hotaling, Republican, Third District.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

Morris Elected Senator Burns Elected in Yonkers.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Returns from a portion of the 160 election districts in Westchester County show that Maynard ran behind his ticket and that the State ticket will have at least 1,000 majority.

Morris (Dem.), candidate for senator, is probably elected by a reduced majority. The contest for Assembly in two districts is in doubt in each case, while Burns in the Yonkers district is re-elected.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Indications that the Republicans Have Won by 500.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Nov. 7.—The sixty-three election districts in Suffolk County have not all been heard from, but the incomplete returns indicate the election of Hinds (Rep.) to the Assembly, and that the Republicans have carried the county by 500 majority for the State ticket.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

McGuire, Democrat, Elected to the Assembly.

STAPLETON, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Women were not allowed to vote in Richmond County.

Returns received from about half of the forty-two districts in Richmond County indicate a Democratic majority in the county of 1,500 and the election of McGuire, Democrat, to the Assembly. Maynard has a small majority on his ticket.

CLAIMS BUFFALO REPUBLICAN.

"Blue-Eyed Billy's" City Swept Completely Over.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 7.—The indications are the city has some Republicans for a change. This is the boast of Sheehan.

The Vote in Oswego.

OSWEGO, Nov. 7.—The city of Oswego gives Palmer 1,776, Meyer 1,566, Parkhurst 1,771, Maynard 1,719.

Republicans Sweep Monroe County.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The Republicans have made a clean sweep of Monroe County.

Maynard Cut at Riverhead.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Nov. 7.—Three hundred Democrats cut Maynard at the polls today.

ANTI-TRACK MEN HOPE.

Declare They Have Smashed the Jersey Duke of Gloucester.

TRACK MEN CONCEDE NOTHING

The Assembly Will Be Very Evenly Balanced.

TOFFEY RAN WELL IN HUDSON.

Both Sides Represented in At Least One County.

The returns from New Jersey seem to indicate that the anti-race-track forces have broken the power of the ring which has so long dominated the State.

Both sides as yet claim to have elected a majority of the Assembly and to have control of the next Legislature.

Even with quite complete returns it is impossible to definitely announce the result of the fiercest fight in the history of the state.

The Democrats of Jersey City elect the election of Scanlon for Sheriff by a majority of 700 majority. Not half of the precincts in Hudson County have been heard from.

Stanton was cut in the North Hudson County precincts, especially by the Germans. Col. Toffey, Stanton's opponent, made an excellent run in the Bayonne and Hoboken districts. The Republicans do not concede the election to Stanton.

PRAYER AT THE POLLS.

Warren County Divided Between the Two Parties.

BELVIDERE, N. J., Nov. 7.—The election here was remarkable in some respects. Before the polls were open a prayer meeting was held under the auspices of the Citizen's League. Prayers were offered for the success of the Citizen's League ticket in Warren County.

The present information is that Stafford (Rep.) is elected to the Senate, Warren (Dem.), to the Assembly, First District, and Davis (Rep.), Assembly second District, and Searle (Dem.) for sheriff.

FOUNDER BRADLEY HOPEFUL.

He Polled a Heavy Vote in His Home Town.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Nov. 7.—The contest for senator between Bradley and Reilmann in the Monmouth district is close. Both sides claim the election.

Bradley received an unusually heavy vote in Asbury Park, and the mail and telegraphic returns from other parts of the county look favorable for him.

THE BAY STATE REPUBLICAN.

Greenhalge Elected Over Russell by 15,000 to 30,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Ninety-five precincts in Boston give Greenhalge 11,855, Russell 34,156. In 1892 these same precincts gave Hall, 10,668; Russell, 14,624.

Henry Cabot Lodge is leading the returns at the Republican Club here against Russell's Congressman Wheeler. They had returns from 54 towns showing a ten per cent. uniform gain.

Senator Lodge said the state would give Mr. Greenhalge 30,000 plurality.

The Globe's last, from 57 towns, gives Greenhalge a majority of 15,000 plurality.

The Herald at 7:30 P. M. bulletins Greenhalge elected by a plurality in many sections of city. Russell is gaining a small vote in Boston.

GARY MAY BE BEATEN.

Though He Has Run Ahead of His Ticket in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The Democrats have undoubtedly elected Gary (Dem.), a gentleman who is the republican vote in the county ran out of sight.

Judge Gary is one of the best known Democrats in the republican candidate for Judge, Mr. Jackson, has run ahead of his ticket, and the Democrats have a majority in the Assembly.
