Nervous Women
Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Female Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected
A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous?

How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in woman is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability; spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps; pain in the abdominal region and between the shoulders; loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia; a tendency to cry at the least provocation—all these point to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night.

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me.

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick, weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

President Kills a Wild Turkey.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt arrived in Washington last night at 9:10 o'clock from Pine Knot, Va., where they went Wednesday last, accompanied by Surgeon General Rixey and Private Secretary Latta.

The party came in the special car Signet over the Southern Railway. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were driven direct to the White House.

The President spent his entire time while at Pine Knot hunting wild turkeys. He had never shot one before, although he often hunted them. His hunting companions were Dr. Rixey and J. C. Bishop, a local hunter. Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings the start was made at 4 o'clock and the hunt kept up all day.

It was not until late Saturday afternoon, however, that the President accomplished his desire. He shot a wild turkey, the only one shot during the three days of hunting.

The President returned to Washington feeling much invigorated from his outing and decidely pleased that he had added one more laurel to his hunting record.

Mrs. Roosevelt took several horseback rides, and, as the weather throughout was ideal, the outing was pronounced a decided success.

Active preparations for the President's Panama trip are in progress at the White House. The President will leave at midnight tonight for Oyster Bay

Murder and Then Suicide.

When confronted with conclusive evidence of his guilt in murdering Mrs. William Garrett, at Abingdon, Saturday night, John W. Hawkins, aged 30 years, in the presence of his wife and three small children, committed suicide by blowing his head off with the same gun with which he had a few hours before committed one of the most shocking murders in that section.

Illicit love had existed between Hawkins and Mrs. Garrett for several years, notwithstanding the fact that the former had a respected young wife and three children. The murder was the outcome of a quarrel, which was to conclude the liaison.

Mrs. Garrett started from the home of J. H. Gildersleeve, a prominent citizen of Abingdon, late Saturday night, and as she was crossing a dark alley leading to her home, a double-barrel shotgun was emptied in her direction from the darkness and Mr. Gildersleeve a few hours later stumbled over her lifeless body.

The woman's head had been completely blown from her shoulders and two empty shells were found near her.

Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opiates. Conforms to Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

More Rioting.

Missiles filled the air and shots aroused the West Side, New York, when striking chauffers and their sympathizers attacked an Eighth avenue car at 30th, street Saturday night to get at some strike breakers and special detectives who were among its passengers. One man was shot through the neck and taken to Roosevelt Hospital in a serious condition. The riot took place while a political meeting was in progress on the corner, and the firing of revolvers in the air and the clashes between strike breakers and strikers caused great excitement. The fighting lasted for nearly half an hour, and it was not until the arrival of the reserves from the west 37th street, west 30th street and west 20th street stations that the mob was dispersed.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
